DOING BUSINESS ON A BIG SCALE

The Devlin & Firebaugh Company, which has been doing an extensive real estate business, has moved into handsome and more commodious quarters in the Hotel Oregon on Cascade avenue.

Ed Knott, who was called east several weeks ago by the illness of his father, returned from Davis Junction, Colo., the latter part of the week, accompanied by his brother, George Knott.

Mrs. L. Winans, who came up from Portland, Monday received word that her husband, who has been staying in California during the winter, has almost recovered and is able to walk about.

Geo. M. Champlain one of Hood River's oldest pioneers was here last week as organizer of the Union Secret Abra Society, an organization of American inventors.

W. W. Smith, wife and baby came up from Mojave, Calif., last week for a visit with his father, W. L. Smith, and family.

Wm. McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in Oregon, had as his guest here Monday H. F. Forsberg, who holds a similar position in California.

Angela May, comic opera star, will arrive Friday. The Interstate touring "overland" car bringing Angela May, the noted contralto opera star, from Boise, Idaho, to Portland, will arrive here Friday.

Mrs. E. J. Welty of Portland spent Sunday at Hood River visiting her ranch in the upper valley.

G. B. Johnson returned from Phoenix, Arizona, Saturday and has taken his old position with the Paris Fair. Mr. Johnson informs us that Arizona is sure fire, but admits that he had a longing for Hood River, and wasn't slow on satisfying that longing.

A. E. Coley returned to his home in Goldendale, Wash., Thursday.

Mrs. K. W. Sinclair and baby and her sister Miss Ruth Miller of Chicago arrived last week to make their home with their mother Mrs. Jennie Miller. Mr. Sinclair arrived here some time ago. Miss Miller is a china painter of more than ordinary ability and will take up this work at Hood River. Some of her work which has been exhibited in Frana window has attracted a great deal of attention.
