There will be a union service for prayer and conference at the Baptist Church Wednesday evening 7:30, May 4th. All the churches of the city and valley are requested to be present so far as possible. Business of importance is on hand, do not forget to attend to it.

John D. Rockefeller would go broke if he should spend his entire income trying to prepare a better medicine than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for dysentery or bowel complaints. It is simply impossible, and so says every one that has used it. Sold by all dealers.*

J. A. C. Brant and wife spent several days here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Graham. Mr. Graham is Mr. Brant's brother-in-law. The latter has been employed on the Oregonian for a number of years, where he is a valued member of the proof reading force. He was in the newspaper business as long ago as when H. W. Scott was editor of the Bulletin, which was a good many years. Mr. Brant was a boy in the office of the Bulletin when Col. S. F. Blythe, now a highly esteemed citizen of Hood River and formerly editor and owner of the Glacier, was one of its employes. He has seen a good deal of Oregon history during his connection with the big Portland papers and tells of it interestingly.

BARRETT SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

The graduating exercises of the ninth grade of the Barrett school were held at the Park grange hall last Saturday evening. The attendance of the patrons and friends of the school was large, exceeding the seating capacity of the hall. The building was tastefully decorated with red and green, the class colors, and with a profusion of white lilies the class flower, while the class motto, "Let us ever look higher," was conspicuously placed back of the platform. The musical part of the program was pleasing and well executed, and the orations and papers by the graduates were of such a character as to reflect decided credit upon the faithful work of Principal B. L. Murphy and his assistants. The address to the class was given by Rev. Isaac Peart who gave the young people some valuable pointers on how to succeed.

There were nine members of the graduating class, Mayme Hodges, Maude Hasbrouck, Vernon Shoemaker, William Walters, Conrad Jacobson, Leslie Sherrleib, Arthur Moses, Ralph Kordenat and Glenn Shoemaker. The program was as follows:

- Musie—Robbins' Orchestra.
- Invocation—Rev. H. J. Wood.
- Quartet—"Hunters' Chorus."
- Salutatory—William W. Walters.
- "Moral Worth"—Arthur Moses.
- Solo—"You Can't Pull any Plums From my Plum Tree"—Erma Boyce.
- "Our Country"—Glenn Shoemaker.
- Class Prophecy—Maude Hasbrouck.
- Class Will—Vernon Shoemaker.
- Valedictory—Mayme Hodges.
- Solo and Chorus—"Our House is Haunted."
- Address—Rev. Isaac Peart.
- Presentation of Diplomas—C. L. Morse, president of school board.
- Musie—"Happy Heine"—Robbins' Orchestra.
