[This matter must not be reprinted without special permission.]

If arrangements were not made at the time the icehouse was built and filled for the drainage of the water therefrom, this should be attended to before the warm weather sets in.

Those who have tried it recommend hot soapsuds as an excellent means of ridding cabbage and cauliflower of the green worms which infest them. A strong resin soap and soft water give good results.

Ground tobacco placed where the sheep can get what they want will rid and keep them free from attacks of stomach worms. This seems to be a case where the acquiring of the tobacco habit is really an aid to health.

Rather oddly, while dairy cows seem to show an instinctive aversion to profane and rough language in their caretakers and will shrink in their milk if this becomes the rule, they do not mind whistling or a song in the least, but seem rather to enjoy it.

Dampness, blight and rot funguses go hand in hand. On this account many irrigated sections of the semi-arid west are almost entirely free from these pests, due to the bright, fine weather which prevails almost uninterruptedly during the growing season.

A dollar a bushel is a good price for wheat, but the first prize bushel which was recently exhibited at the meeting of the Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment association brought $64. It was of the winter variety and will doubtless be used for seed in the growing of prize wheat for next year.

The spraying of previously untreated orchards can be counted upon to increase the yield of fruit from three to four times as well as to remarkably improve its quality. What it will do for a given orchard can easily be worked out on the above basis. The cost of spraying good sized bearing trees in materials, labor and machinery should not exceed 20 cents annually for three or four sprayings.

The shakes, or long split shingles, which have been used in many sections of the west in place of the ordinary shingle, are cut chiefly from the sugar pine, which possesses a remarkably straight and even grain. The water follows the grooves of the grain very closely, while the method of laying them insures a good circulation of air and tends to check the rot which is so destructive of closely laid common shingles.

The Delicious apple when tasted fully bears out its name, being juicy and of a delicious flavor and possessing a red color that is hardly surpassed by the Spitzenburg. However, it is tender like the Jonathan and of about the same season and should be put on the market by Christmas time if the consumer is to get it at its prime. The Delicious apple has been on the market but a few years, being originated by a southern Iowa nurseryman.

Many a municipality has a bad blot on its reputation because of the wretched condition of the thoroughfares leading thereto when timely work done with a road grader and drag would greatly improve their condition. In too many cases these same "rocky" roads are found in townships and towns whose road supervisors or street commissioners are drawing good salaries for taking care of the highways, while the equipment for keeping them in order is acquiring a coat of rust in some vacant lot or alley.

MICRO
DANDRUFF AND
are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth. Save your hair before too late. Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair, free from grease and sticky oils. Ask your druggist for free booklet.

WENATCHEE SELECTS THE GIBSON FRUIT CO. AGENTS

The Chicago Packer says that the Gibson Fruit Co. last week received notice that the Wenatchee Fruit Growers Assn. of Wenatchee, Wash., has selected the firm as its general eastern sales agent for all territory east and south of Denver and St. Paul. This contract is declared to be the largest one ever made for the handling of apples and if present prospects mature the shipments from the valley controlled by the association are expected to run over 800 cars. Some estimate that they will be nearer 1,000 cars.

Surprise Birthday

Doctor and Mrs. F. C. Brosins invited Cauby Post and Canby Womans' Relief Corps to their home last Saturday night to a social in honor of the birthday of Dr. Williams, who is Mrs. Brosins' father.

The Department of the Oregon W. R. C. was present with a large number of the members of the Post and Corps and all passed a very happy evening in social conversation, music and games, of which chasing the elusive ring was the most amusing. Dr. Brosins exhibited a commission, which he had just received, of his appointment as major of the medical department of the Oregon National Guards, of which he is as proud as a boy with his first red topped boots.

Dr. and Mrs. Williams will make their home here and will be welcomed as they become known.

Dr. Brosins and his wife are royal entertainers and the instrumental and vocal music by Miss Brosins was surprising for excellence. She sang several of the old time war songs, that stirred the memory of old times.

The refreshments were abundant, appropriate and tasty and the guests hurried away for fear of breaking the Sabbath, but wishing for more birthdays. About thirty guests were present.
