Correspondence

MOSIER

Mrs. Amos Root left Monday for Caldwell Idaho to visit her son Leo and wife.

Mrs. C. Gove left Friday afternoon for Hood River to attend the graduating exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor returned Friday after several days spent in Portland on business.

Amos Root accompanied his son Leslie to Collins Tuesday to try the hot springs for his son's rheumatism.

Mrs. John Smith returned to Portland Tuesday, intending to return soon and live on her fruit farm east of town.

It seems the river has reached its highest mark this year as it has been falling quite rapidly for the past several days.

Alex Stewart is making changes in his store, having the stairway go up from the side of the building, giving him more room in the dry goods department.

The revival meetings being conducted at the Baptist church by Rev. Bettus are largely attended. A union meeting was held Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. H. C. Clark returned Thursday to resume his work as pastor of the Christian church. He is not fully recovered yet, but thinks this fine weather will help his rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Stroup came up from Portland the first part of the week and will spend the summer here. They will occupy one of the new cottages built by Guy Wilson.

Nichol & Co. have added a covering to their front porch which helps the appearance of the place very much as well as shedding the rays of the sun from the front part of the store.

E. L. Root, Leo Hunter, Mrs. Rachel Stewart and Miss Effie Wright returned Friday evening from Eugene where they went as delegates to the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah grand lodge convention.

Everyone interested in school work should attend the exercises to be held in Stroup's hall Wednesday evening. Rev. Warren of The Dalles will deliver the lecture. Ice cream, cake and strawberries will be served for 25c.

VALLEY CREST

L. M. Antone of Portland was up to his ranch Sunday.

Mr. Millard, of Omaha, Nebraska, made a short visit to his ranch last week.

Rev. and Mrs. VanNuys were welcome callers in the neighborhood Saturday.

Miss Magnus of New York is visiting her cousin, Chas. Steinhauer, and family.

Alfred Allen and C. B. Marine of Des Moines, Iowa, have purchased the Walte place.

Mr. Dresser of Seaside, Ore., spent a week here with his son, E. F. Dresser, on the ranch.

Mrs. J. L. Groff and Mrs. Helme visited relatives in the lower valley Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Ralph Davies has returned from a week's visit with relatives in Portland and The Dalles.

During the past week four gentlemen have walked to the Inn and report about eight feet of snow in some places.

C. W. Blodgett, of Northfield, Minn., has come for an extended visit with his son, George, who purchased a ranch here last fall.

Millie Hardman left Friday to attend the Rebekah convention at Eugene. Before she returns she will visit relatives and friends in the Willamette Valley.

A. T. Allen made four trips to this part of the valley last week with eight-seers and land seekers, among whom were Dr. J. R. Parker, Roy Dean and Mrs. J. L. Henderson of Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. Holden of Portland and Prof. Wm. B. Patty and wife.

Special Meeting

In commemoration of the second anniversary of the Alliance Chapel, the Christian and Missionary Alliance, will conduct a series of special meetings, beginning Tuesday, May 31st, at 8 P. M. The purpose of these meetings is to set before the public the mission of the Christian and Missionary Alliance in Hood River and the world, and the doctrine for which it stands.

The public is invited to be present at each service. Especially do we desire the members and friends of the work to attend. Service each night at eight o'clock.

C. E. PERRY,
Pastor.

A Word For The Band

The re-organization of the Hood River band and its fine progress is causing much favorable comment. The News has received the following appreciation of this fact in verse:

There's a lot of free will boosting
For Hood River's fruitful land,
And for all its institutions
Here's one for the Hood River band.

They practise at the Club rooms,
All are present every night,
And there's no use denying
The music is "out of sight."
Hearty leads and plays cornet
And Kranke plays one, too.
The way those boys handle them
Would make Hi Henry blue.

Kincaide and Zolls play clarinets,
And talk about your style.
They've got Ringlings soloists
Skinned at least a mile.
Kent and Isenberg play altos.
Thomas' orchestra never did see,
Two guys that can touch Bert and Punch.

When it comes to harmony,
If Arthur Pryor blew into town
Heard Zolls and Emery play trombone,
He'd never be satisfied again.
Until he had them in a band of his own.

And Page with his Boston baritone,
Just makes the echoes ring.
If he would join Innes' band
He'd be just about the whole thing.

Vogel plays the E flat bass,
"Vogel", that's the dutch for "bird."
I'd bet Creator himself would say,
"He's the best I ever heard.

And that kid trap drummer,
If he would join Phinney's band,
His name would be familiar
To every bandman in the land.

The Hood River band is a pippin,
Made up of Spitz and Newts.
The music is something rippin',
The boys themselves are "beauts."

Hood River apples are famous,
Hood River strawberries grand.
Just because they absorb the music
Played by the Hood River band.
Booster.
