GAYETY PREVAILS AT HOTEL OREGON

The public opening of the Hotel Oregon which took place Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Smith as host and hostess was highly enjoyed by a large number of city and valley residents. Several out of town guests were also present, among them Landlord Clark of the new hotel at The Dalles, and John Franz, day clerk of that institution.

Guests on arriving were escorted through the establishment from kitchen to roof garden and expressed their admiration of the completeness and convenience of its arrangement. Obliging maids showed visitors the rooms on the various floors. The new hotel now has 96 guest rooms, many with bath and handsomely furnished. The roof garden was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns. Potted plants placed on the parapet added to the attractiveness of this feature of the hotel, which is covered with a wooden pergola. During the evening the Mandolin Club which was stationed there rendered pleasing selections. The Trio orchestra provided music for dancing in the dining room and lobby, while refreshments were served at dainty tables in the grill room. For several hours the floors of the establishment were thronged with guests who later congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Smith on the completeness of the hostelry and thanked them for a very pleasant evening.

DELEGATES ENROUTE TO LEAGUE CONVENTION

Hood River News—Delegates from Hood River Chapter to the first annual convention which left Hood River at 11:55 a. m. today, were scarcely seated in their places when delegates from Portland made themselves known. Then followed in rapid succession delegates from Hillsboro, Newberg, Salem, Medford, and when we reached Pendleton there were still other delegates. In fact, there seemed to be nothing but league delegates in the two Pullmans attached to our train.

Portland is in the lead with 250 members and 75 paid up, but if Portland leads in league members, Hood River had the roses, which certainly were the envy of all who saw them. Portland is working for a $25,000 Chapter House and the secretary says they will surely get it before spring.

Everyone is happy and enjoying the trip immensely.

PINE GROVE GRANGE
The regular meeting of Pine Grove Grange was held in their hall Saturday evening, May 21, a fair number being present. Some important business was transacted. Among other things was the initiation of Albert Miller into our ranks as a granger.

At the close of the business session a program was given under the direction of our worthy lecturer, Mrs. Clara Jarvis, which was as follows:

Song by grange—Beautiful Grange
Question box—Some important questions discussed were "Consolidation of high schools," "Which is the worst, sunburnt apples caused by heat and lime-sulphur spray or fungus?" and "Better telephone service in connection with the proposed advanced rates."

Quartet—Whippoorwill Song.
Recitation—Rights of An American Citizen—Mrs. J. A. Hunt.
Duet—Sunset—Mrs. Jarvis and Luella Hunt.

The question box promises to be a regular feature at all our meetings. On motion it was decided that the program at our next meeting, June 18th, be open to the public. Program begins at 9 o'clock and will be under the direction of Flora.

Song by court and assistants.
Address by Worthy Flora.
Flower drill—Ten young ladies.
Solo—Sweet Bunch of Violets—Alice Clark.
Recitation—Kathie Johnson.
Recitation—Nellie Warren.
Solo—Roses—Marie Mohr.
Recitation—Joy Mason.
Selection—Vision of Sir Launfel—Luella Hunt.
Solo—Garden of Roses—Mrs. Clara Jarvis. J. A. H.

Hood River Defeats Goldendale
Owing to a change in the schedule on account of the church dedication at White Salmon, Hood River played Goldendale here Sunday and defeated the visitors by a score of 3 to 1. The game was one of the best of the season. Lake and Shay of Portland were the battery for the home team. White Salmon, who played The Dalles, was defeated in a ten inning contest by a score of 9 to 8.

Mrs. Matt Russell Dead
Mrs. Matt Russell, a former resident of Hood River died Monday at The Dalles hospital as the result of a serious illness, for which she was operated upon. The body was taken to Vancouver, Wash., where burial took place.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S NEW COW.

Fine Holstein From Senator Stephenson to Replace Lamented Mooley. Although President Taft's celebrated cow Mooley is dead, the White House table is not to suffer for lack of dairy products. In fact, Mr. Taft is to have a cow that will make him the envy of the dairymen of the land. Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin, the oldest member of the senate, heard with deep regret of Mooley's sudden ending. For many years Mr. Stephenson has made a specialty of raising fine Holstein cattle on his model farm near Kenosha. A few months ago one of his cows, Gertrude Wayne, broke the world's record for butter production.

Mr. Stephenson offered to give the president a cow to take the place of

PRESIDENT TAFT.

[A pastoral scene at the White House.] The lamented Mooley. Mr. Taft was willing, and Mr. Stephenson wrote to his farm superintendent to ship Gertrude Wayne to the grazing pasture back of the White House. The superintendent suggested that as Gertrude was nine years old, attached to the old farm, a friend of the children of the neighborhood, and all that, it might be better to send another cow. He suggested Pauline Wayne, which will be four years old in July. This was agreeable to Mr. Stephenson, and Pauline is now being groomed for her journey to Washington. She will be turned loose in the ultra select pasture back of the White House some time this summer and will be in prime condition to make her contribution to the White House table when Mr. Taft returns from Beverly, Mass.

Mr. Stephenson says that Pauline is amply competent to maintain the record of the Wayne family and predicts she will supply from twenty-five to twenty-six pounds of butter a week for the president and his family.

MONUMENT TO CARNEGIE.

Steel King's Former Partners Will Erect Heroic Effigy at Pittsburg.
Former business associates and partners of Andrew Carnegie, including Charles L. Taylor, Charles M. Schwab, William E. Corey, Alexander R. Peacock and Judge J. M. Reed, have decided to erect a statue of Andrew Carnegie, the steel king, almost twice life size.

The statue is to be of bronze and will stand on a marble pedestal inside the entrance to the Carnegie Institute at Pittsburg. The idea has been under consideration for some time, and the contract has been let to J. Matthew Rhinds, a New York sculptor, who is now working on the design. None of the Carnegie veterans will tell the amount of money to be invested in the statue, but it is understood that it will cost $50,000.

It was meant to surprise Mr. Carnegie when he visits America again next year, but the news got out when a committee visited the institute and marked where the statue will stand.

NEW USE FOR POSTCARDS.

Children Taught Geography With Picture Souvenirs From Abroad.
Mrs. Frank O. Lowden, wife of a member of congress from Illinois, has discovered a new use for picture postcards. Her daughters receive scores of cards from friends and relatives traveling abroad, and instead of tossing them away they place them in an orderly fashion in a scrap book.

By each card is written a history of the city or country from which it came, and each child must study this out for herself. She must arrange her cards by countries. Mrs. Lowden believes this provides valuable mental training for her children and impresses geographical facts on their minds. When the books have served their purpose in the nursery the volumes are sent to hospitals or to the homes for crippled children.

Lemonade For Longevity.
Edward I. Goldsmith of Boston, who celebrated his ninety-eighth birthday the other day, gives lemonade the credit for his long life and good health. For many years past Mr. Goldsmith has made it a daily custom to drink several glasses of lemonade and incidentally to abstain from anything stronger. He met President Taft when the latter was at Beverly, Mass., last summer, and the president told him he looked as though he would live to be 110 and he hoped he would.

PARKDALE TO HAVE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Residents of Parkdale are preparing for a big Fourth of July celebration to which the citizens of the entire valley will be invited, and which it is promised will be a day of interest and pleasure. Excursion rates will be put into effect on the Mt. Hood railroad which will run a special train and it is expected that a big crowd will be present. Details of the program will be announced later.

Dedicated White Salmon Church

Prof. B. P. Stout and Rev. T. B. Ford returned Monday from White Salmon where they were in attendance at the dedication of the new Methodist church Sunday. The dedication exercises occupied a good part of the day, commencing at 11 o'clock in the morning. An immense crowd was present, among them a large number of Hood River people. Rev. H. C. Clark is the pastor of the new church which is a handsome structure. During the day $1,700 was raised to pay off the indebtedness of the church, and at the evening service Prof. Stout succeeded in raising $80 more to purchase a bell for the edifice. Rev. Clark was assisted in the services by Rev. H. J. Wood, Rev. T. B. Ford, Rev. J. G. Tate, Rev. J. W. Rigby and Rev. Frank Spaulding in addition to Prof. Stout.

Carried Six Shooter, Fined $23

A. Vandever, a young man who was here picking strawberries, was arrested by Officer Hicks Sunday night for flourishing a six shooter and doing the tough act. The disciple of Texas Jack was taken before Recorder Langille Monday morning and fined $23. He skiddoed.
