HOOD RIVER MASONS TAKE ADDED HONORS

A large party of Hood River Masons attended one of the most notable meetings in the history of the state organization at Portland last week. Members of the fraternity from all sections of the state were present, among them many ladies in attendance at the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Eastern Star. Several local men took honors in the several orders of the organization, among them Hon. A. A. Jayne, who was selected as class orator of the fifteenth cathedral class, thirty-second degree Masons, Scottish rite. In addition Mr. Jayne joined the order of Shriners, crossing the hot sands with two other members of Hood River Lodge, P. S. Davidson and J. K. McGregor.

The ceremonies are pronounced by members of the organization to have been the most impressive ever performed. The Oregon Masonic fraternity now numbers 1,900 members and its financial affairs were never more prosperous.

The Shriners from Hood River attending the pilgrimage Saturday were: W. J. Baker, J. K. Carson, A. D. Moe, Truman Butler, H. F. Davidson, W. E. Sherman, G. C. Dean, W. F. Laraway, Ralph Laraway, J. A. Wright, C. H. Stranahan, C. T. Early, C. P. Sonnichsen and E. P. Michell. C. A. Bell, Chas. N. Clarke and W. L. Clark were in attendance at the sessions of the Grand Lodge and Mrs. John Otten represented Hood River at the sessions of the Eastern Star.
