Tickets for the excursion to The Dalles on the 4th can be had from any of the band boys.

George Blodgett, after a lengthy stay at Mount Hood, spent a few days about town last week.

Don't forget the excursion to The Dalles by boat on the 4th and that the band boys are running it.

Leslie Butler is at Baker City this week attending the convention of the State Bankers' Association.

McGuire Bros. will have some of their special Red, White and Blue Hams ready for the 4th. Get one.

McGuire Bros.' Meat Market will be closed all day the Fourth. Place your orders early so that you will not be disappointed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson and their daughter Virginia, who have been making a week's visit to Astoria and Seaside, returned home Monday.

A. L. Crocker, a Boston man and a graduate of Harvard college, is here making an inspection of the valley with the intention of purchasing a ranch.

"Our Nation and the Civic Use of Life" will be the theme of Rev. W. C. Gilmore's sermon next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Special music by the choir.

W. F. Lobb and family, who have been living here for some time, left Tuesday for Baker City where they have bought property and will reside in the future.

Mrs. Pooley and son of Philadelphia are here visiting E. R. Pooley at his ranch on the east side. They expect to make an extended visit and will be joined shortly by Mr. Pooley who will spend the summer here with his family.

The Gilbert-Vaughan Implement Company disposed of another Cadillac last week. The purchaser was Leroy Armstrong. This makes 17 of this make of car that the company has placed at Hood River. Nine of them were sold this year.

Mrs. Helen Scott and Mrs. Ida McKittick were here Wednesday canvassing for subscriptions for the Portland Commons and had very good success. The organization is devoted to philanthropic work and maintains a mission, men's home and a rescue home for girls.

J. A. Welster, official photographer for the O. R. & N. Co. and the man who has given Hood River name and fame through his artistic pictures of the valley was here Saturday. Mr. Welster will take additional pictures in the valley this summer for use by the railroad in advertising.

The Rufus correspondent of the Sherman County Observer says that "A fine large rattler was killed under the sidewalk between Hill's store and Phillip's residence one day last week." We have no objection to a rattler being designated as large, but will have to draw the line on it being called fine.

Miss Carrie Cople, a Hood River girl who has lately been teaching in one of the Portland schools, will leave for New York this week to meet a party with whom she will go abroad. Before returning she will visit England, France and Germany and take up some of the higher studies in those cities.

Mr. Fred Carpenter, a prominent lawyer of Rockford, Ill., accompanied by his sister, who are making an extended tour of the Pacific coast, were guests of the Cutlers last week. Mr. Carpenter is also a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Bruner who formerly lived at Rockford. While at the Mt. Hood Hotel, Miss Carpenter who is a vocalist of exceptional ability, sang for a number of Hood River people who were delighted with her voice.

Mrs. Chas. J. Henney who with her husband is here from Washington, D. C., delighted the congregation of the Unitarian church last Sunday by singing several solos. Mrs. Henney has been a soloist for several years in Washington churches, her latest engagement being with the Unitarian church in that city attended by President Taft. Previous to that she sang in one of the prominent Episcopal churches there and has a voice of rare beauty and power. The Henneys are friends of Mr. Currier and have been his guests here part of the time since arriving.

KNOCK

I AM OPPORTUNITY

I am knocking at your door now. It is said I knock once at every man's door. I am knocking at yours three times, and my knocks will ring in your ears for all time. I don't want you to overlook me, because I am your good fortune.

I say to you "Go to Oregon now." If you are interested in fruit growing, dairying, poultry raising, or general farming, Oregon is the place for you. If you are interested in business openings, Oregon is the place for you. If you are tired of Eastern summers or winters—those terrible extremes—Oregon is the place for you. If you want to live and grow in a splendid, enthusiastic commonwealth, Oregon is the place for you.

I, Opportunity, ask you to investigate Oregon now. Vice President Fairbanks has termed Oregon "The Land of Opportunity," and I make my abode here. I have asked the Secretary of the Portland, Oregon Chamber of Commerce to speak specifically for me, and I ask you now to address him in your own interest and learn about Portland and Oregon. I have knocked at your door three times.

Note.—This advertisement was prepared for the Portland Chamber of Commerce by the Sunset House-keepers Bureau, Portland, Oregon. It will appear in July Sunset. This service is rendered in connection with the Co-operative Community plan of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company and Southern Pacific Lines in Oregon.
