SWACK HANNER, MALAY,
SENDS DEFI TO DEBATERS

The following communication to the News from Mr. D. J. H. A. Z.
 Swack Hanner, Jr., who describes himself as a "Malay lecturer of noted experience" and who challenges anybody and everybody in Hood River to a debate should prove of interest.
 Mr. Swack Hanner delivers himself in the English language thusly:

"Redmond, Oregon, June 24, 1910
 To the Editor of the hoodriver news, Daer sir, I am an native of the Hayti West Indies Islands, Talking in the state of Oregon telling pupils' parents about Phillipines, Sandwich, Flgi, India, Burmah, Siam, Arabia and the ladrones south America, Central America, Africa, West Indies. So then I talk on what the text books do not give and what they should give and I will challenge anybody, ministers, Principals, Teachers barring none of any school in that County or the United state of this or any other state, to debate on these topics as such as should be in the school books today, in so then I will come in that city some next month. I am handy capped here some body from Corvallis is head of me, so that is all to day. Sendfng you the top piece.

"Not dress fine but will challenge any body barring none on debate.

 of noted Experiences"

PINE GROVE-

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fike were visitors in Portland last week.

Mr. Newman's people entertained visitors from Mount Hood Sunday.

Rev. Hayes will give a patriotic address next Sunday morning at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Chicago are guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Thorn this week.

Rev. Hayes, our pastor, occupied his pulpit Sunday morning, preaching at Odell in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickerson are fully established in the new home of the firm of Dickerson and Peck.

Mrs. Sweetland, with little son, arrived from Salem Monday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark.

Mrs. Bert Lewis, who has been visiting at the home of H. M. Vander and family, returned to Portland Sunday.

Mr. Stanton of Oklahoma, who has purchased 12 acres of uncleared land of J. C. Porter, will, with his family, take possession at once.

Special meetings are being held at the home of A. I. Mason in the interest of the fruit growers, relative to the disease termed pear blight and its remedies.

We assume east side residents will appreciate the advantages of rural delivery again. We learn we are to have this service again the first of next month.

VALLEY CREST

Mrs. Mason of New York is visiting her son.

Chas. H. Tyler has returned to his home in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Homer Rogers left Sunday for a short visit in Portland.

Alfred Allen made several trips to Valley Crest the past week.

 days of the past week in Portland.

Ralph Davis has returned from a short visit with relatives in Portland.

Messrs. Isham and Goldsbury were business callers in the neighborhood Friday.

Says Lewis Made Good

Mrs. S. E. Bartmess, who was a delegate to the American Woman's League convention at St. Louis, accompanied by her daughter Marie, is now visiting in Cincinnati. Word from Mrs. Bartmess is to the effect that E. Gardner Lewis the head of the League, more than fulfilled all his promises to the delegates. Visiting with Mrs. Bartmess in Cincinnati at present is her son Melgs, who has for five years been employed by the Westinghouse Company at its electrical works in Pittsburg. Before returning home Mrs. Bartmess will visit relatives in Indiana, Oklahoma and Colorado.

Captured 70 Gallons of Red Eye
 If one had wandered into the sheriff's office a few days ago he might have been pardoned if he had given the sheriff the wink, for he had cached away 70 gallons of the pure stuff. He captured it at Roosevelt some time ago, and was awaiting an order from the court to destroy it.—Blngen Observer.

NEW BRICK SCHOOL
FOR BARRETT DISTRICT

Plans are now being drawn for a new school house in the Barrett district and as soon as they are completed work will be commenced on the structure.

The new school house will be of brick and will cost from $10,000 to $15,000. It will be erected on ground belonging to the school district and now partly occupied by the old school building. When completed the building will be commodious and modern in every respect and it is expected to have it finished by the first of the year.

At a meeting of the Barrett school district held Monday F. C. Sherrieb was elected a director for three years The other directors are F. H. Miller, W. N. Moses and G. H. Robbins.

Pretty soon the city will grade and improve Adams Street through Paradise Farm, from Thirteenth Street West to the City Limits. That will make very desirable the lots in Adams Addition, fronting east in Thirteenth and just south of Adams.

In fact, they are pretty desirable lots right now.

They can be bought on very easy terms and at a reasonable price.

There are two or three corners left that should prove a particularly good investment. See....
