RURAL NEW YORKER
SUED FOR $250,000

The Lewis Publishing Company of University City has filed suit in the circuit court at Clayton, Mo., against the Rural Publishing Company of New York City, in which the plaintiff asks $250,000 damages for libel.

This action is the result of the publication in the Rural New Yorker, a so-called farm paper which has its chief office on Pearl street, in New York City, of several alleged libelous articles attacking The Lewis Publishing Company, the American Woman's League and other enterprises of which E. G. Lewis is at the head.

The attorneys for the plaintiff state that every opportunity was given the defendant to retract or explain the articles before the suit was filed, and that legal action was resorted to only when no other course remained open for them to pursue.

The title of the petition follows.
 Part of the complaint alleges that the "said 'New Yorker' journal has for some years past been circulated, published and distributed in the city and county of St. Louis, Missouri, by the Rural Publishing company, as well as elsewhere in many other parts of the world; and said journal now has and during said time has had a circulation of many thousands of copies thereof.

"In the issue of said 'New Yorker' journal dated June 18, 1910, there was printed and published (of and concerning the plaintiff and of and concerning the business of plaintiff) a false, malicious, wicked and scandalous libel."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.
 Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
 Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful.
 It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J.
 Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Take Hall's family pills for constipation.*

When the stomach fails to perform its functions, the bowels become deranged, the liver and kidneys congested causing numerous diseases.
 The stomach and liver must be restored to a healthy condition and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets can be depended upon to do it. Easy to take and most effective.

Up in the Thousands.
 A golf champion said one afternoon on the links:
 "That chap ahead of us plays very poorly, doesn't he? Let us say nothing to him about it, though. His poor playing is often enough rubbed in on him."

"His caddy, one day when he was in particularly bad form, lay down near the ball in a bunker and pretended to sleep.

"The man looked up from one of his many vain swats at the ball and growled:

"Say, you must be tired, boy, lying down?"
 "I ain't tired of carryin'," said the boy, "but I certainly am tired of countin'!"—New York Tribune.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering and saved more lives than any other medicine in use.
 Invaluable for children and adults.
 Sold by all dealers.*

Breaking It Gently.
 Simpkins always was soft hearted, and when it devolved upon him to break the news gently of Jones' drowning to the bereaved Mrs. Jones it cost him much paper, ink and perspiration before he sent the following:

"Dear Mrs. Jones—Your husband cannot come home today because his bathing suit was washed away."
 "P. S.—Poor Jones was inside the suit."—Modern Society.

Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is quickly relieved by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment.
 This liniment is equally valuable for muscular rheumatism and always affords quick relief. Sold by all dealers.*

A Whistling Moth.
 A whistling moth is an Australian rarity. There is a glassy space on the wings crossed with ribs. When the moth wants to whistle it strikes these ribs with its antennae, which have a knob at the end. The sound is a love call from the male to the female.

 Tablets gently stimulate the liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system, cure constipation and sick headache. Sold by all

SKEEING IN THE ALPS.

Picturesque Sport on the Order of "Follow Your Leader."

The skeeing clubs form one of the most picturesque sights to be seen in the Alps in winter. With their bright colored blanket suits, tasseled caps or tam-o-shanters and huge white mitts, they go through the snow covered woodlands across the white mountain slopes usually in single file, perhaps fifty sliding along after the leader in true Norwegian fashion. Indeed, it is a variety of the old game of "follow your leader," for what he does the others are expected to do. So if he comes to a ledge and jumps off all are supposed to leap.

But jumping with the skees is not so easy as it looks, and the end is often burial in the snow bank, for unless one is very sure of his footing the long, narrow wooden slats will twist or turn without warning, and over you go. With the skee one can go over hard snow at a very rapid rate, but when he strikes a patch of the newly fallen snow it is a case of slow to be sure, for any minute the bottom may sink away with him.

But it is healthful as well as invigorating, and the women have found that they need not look awkward even in this form of outdoor dress, with a ribbon here and a tassel there and some even adorning their skees.—St.
 Nicholas.

HE TOOK THE CASE.

The Lawyer Said He Would Attend to It, and He Did.

A Washington attorney is rather noted for the facility with which he forgets financial obligations. He has owed a certain grocer $8 for a year or two. The other day the merchant concluded to try a new course with him.
 Meeting him in his store, he said:

"Judge, I have a customer who owes me a small bill and has owed it for a long time. He makes plenty of money, but won't pay. What would you do?"
 "I'd sue him," said the lawyer emphatically.

"Well, I will put the account in your hands." And the merchant presented a statement of the account against the lawyer himself.

"All right. I will attend to it," said the disciple of Blackstone.

A few days later the merchant received the following note from the lawyer:

"In the case of — versus —, I took judgment for the full amount of your claim. Execution was issued an-returned 'no property found.' My fee for obtaining judgment is $10, for which amount please send check. Will be glad to serve you in any other matters in which you may need an attorney."—Washington Star.

Imperishable.

"Do you think it a wise thing to send a boy away to college, Binks?" asked Rippleton.

"Oh, yes," replied Binks. "Teaches him independence."

"But doesn't he get out of touch with home influences?" persisted Rippleton.

"Not altogether," said Binks. "He gets away from the home influences, but the 'touch' goes on forever."—Lippincott's.
