

JULY CLEARANCE SALE

There was a great stir among the beasts as to which could boast of the largest family. So they came to the Lioness. "And how many," said they, "do you have at a birth?" "ONE," said she grimly, "but that one is a LION."

THERE IS ONE UP-TO-DATE STORE IN HOOD RIVER, AND "IT'S A LION"

...ALL SUMMER GOODS MUST GO...

Every article of ready-made wear substantially reduced during this yearly event. Watch our windows for the greatest offerings ever shown in July.

Ladies Suits, Coats, Skirts
20 to 50 % off

FRANK A. CRAM

Men's and Boys' Suits
20 to 50 % off

Live Local Topics

Learn to say EL RAYO.*
W. L. Clark was a business visitor in Portland Wednesday.

Charlie Plog visited here Wednesday, coming up on the Gatzert and returning to Portland by train.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kincaid, who were recently married in Portland, returned to Hood River Friday.

Mrs. A. A. Jayne returned Wednesday from her extended trip to the Atlantic coast and middle west.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Clarke were guests at the home of Mr. Clarke's brother, F. W. Clarke, at The Dalles Wednesday.

Georgia Lynn of Hood River is spending a few weeks with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Byrlee, at St. Johns.

Arthur Krohn physical director of the Portland schools and also of the Multnomah Athletic Club, spent Sunday with friends in Hood River.

W. Cox of Hershey, Nebr., was here Saturday after a visit with friends at White Salmon. Mr. Cox was looking for a location in the west.

Wm. Vogt, formerly of Hood River has decided to open up a gent's furnishing store in White Salmon and has rented a business building there for that purpose.

Jesse Davidson of Mount Hood was a visitor here Friday after quite an absence. He says that orchard land is being developed rapidly in the Mount Hood country.

Mrs. Bob McLain, accompanied by her daughter, came up from Salem Sunday to spend the Fourth with her husband, who is foreman of one of the logging camps of the Oregon Lumber Company.

Clarke Thompson, accompanied by Mr. Hershelmer and son, the former owners of the Wind River Lumber Company at Cascade Locks, were guests at the Mount Hood hotel Wednesday.

The Glacier moved into its new quarters in the First National Bank building last week. New equipment has been added to the plant and its enlarged quarters give it a more convenient home than formerly.

Coarse ground and rock salt at Whitehead's.*

Hazelwood double Jersey butter, milk received every day at Ross, Richards & Company's.*

R. M. Horton, a Portland man, was here Friday looking over the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cowley left Monday for Chewelah, Wash., for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. L. E. Martin.

Mrs. W. J. Haynes and Mrs. Wm. E. Sheets, now residents of Portland, were here last week visiting relatives and friends.

A. V. Perry of Seattle, who has land interests here, was here for a day or two last week. Mr. Perry owns a large tract on the west side.

Prof. Cordley stopped off here Sunday to take a look at the valley, on his way to Pendleton. Prof. Jackson arrived here Sunday for a two week's stay.

Fordman Kimball, a Boston man, has purchased the Klemmer place through the agency of Devlin & Firebaugh. The property consists of 19 acres and was sold for $20,000.

Dr. Fletcher Homan, president of Willamette university is here superintending work on his ranch. Mr. Homan is interested in the work and is becoming a typical Hood River booster.

Malcolm Moody, accompanied by the Misses Lang of The Dalles, came down Sunday and made his usual trip to Cloud Cap Inn for the Fourth. The party was taken to the Inn in two automobiles.

Miss Dale Pugh, a friend of Frank Cashen, whose home is at Mt. Blanchard, Ohio, has been a guest at the Mount Hood Hotel for several days. Miss Pugh is making a tour of the coast and dropped off at Hood River to visit the valley.

Yucca Tree Protectors at Whitehead's.*

A full line of poultry supplies at Whitehead's.*

Hazelwood sweet cream and ice cream can be obtained in quantities from now on at Ross & Richards's.*

Lost—A brown physician's grip, somewhere near State street, contains some underwear and one other article. Return to News office and receive reward.*

I have a client who wants to borrow $300 for two years. Will pay 8 per cent and secure note with first mortgage on improved real estate valued at $1800. Phone 308-M. S. W. Stark, Elliot Bldg.*

Ed London of Portland was here Saturday for a visit to the valley.

Mrs. J. L. Pelronnet of Mount Hood made a short visit here Thursday.

Miss Amie Walton, who was at the Cottage hospital for a week suffering from a nervous breakdown, recovered sufficiently Friday to return to her home.

A garage constructed of cement blocks is being built for H. F. Davidson and Fred Howe between their properties on Sixth street. The work is being done by Bradley Bros.

A. W. Lafferty, a lawyer of Portland, is a candidate for the nomination of congressman from this district. Mr. Lafferty will make a tour of the district later outlining his platform.

If interested in automobiles call up W. L. Nichols, phone 1812-X, as he has the agency for the 1910 four-cylinder Reo and will be glad to show you the car. Also have on hand second hand two-cylinder Reo for sale cheap.*

Dr. L. J. Wyeth, a resident of Washington, D. C., is spending the summer in the valley. Dr. Wyeth is acquainting himself with the intricacies of the fruit business with a view to locating here.

Col. S. C. Spencer and wife, friends of Dr. and Mrs. E. Wright, arrived here from Portland Saturday and will spend several weeks visiting the latter. Col. Spencer brought up his big Winton-six on the boat and will use it in touring the valley and nearby districts.

J. C. Kilpack, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, was here last week looking up several charges he has in the valley. During the strawberry season Mr. Kilpack brought up six boys who spent the berry season here picking berries and enjoyed an outing.

A. T. Loeffler, employed in Franz hardware store left last week for Yellowstone Park, where he will meet his sister who is making a tour of the west. Mr. Loeffler will take in the wonders of the park and expects to have his sister accompany him back to Hood River.

E. E. Lyon, now a resident of Bandon, Oregon, but for many years one of Hood River's prosperous ranchers was here last week for a visit. Mr. Lyon went to Bandon last fall and was here looking after some property he still owns here. He reports that C. A. Dano, who is now at Marshfield, has bought a tract of land near there and he and his son-in-law are clearing it up.

G. W. Carrier, expert piano tuner; resident of valley. Phone 210-K.*

For Sale—Brand new visible typewriter, $65. Try it a week. A. Wilson, Mount Hood depot.*

Geo. D. Culbertson & Co. write all kinds of insurance. Fire, life, accident, plate glass and bonds.*

Rex Brand Stock and Poultry Food. Best in the world. The kind that brings results. Whitehead's.*

Have buyers for some improved and unimproved fruit farms. Call and list your place with Geo. D. Culbertson & Co.

Buy two good lots for a little money. Payments—on your own terms. Phone 168K, or address E. H. Hartwig, Hood River, Oregon.

C. W. Edmunds, M. D., eye, ear, nose and throat diseases exclusively. Office hours 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Phone 43, Res. 3312-L.

Captain Chas. Spencer of White Salmon was here Saturday on a business visit.

Marsh Morse who has been employed by the Goble logging company for some time returned to Hood River Friday.

Mrs. Harry Bailey and children left Tuesday for a visit with relatives at Kansas City, Mo., and other cities in the southwest.

Rev. C. F. Swander, will preach in the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. It is desirable that every member and friend of the church be present as there will be an important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Parkins of Lyle were the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Parkins, the past week. Mrs. Myrtle Stump was also a guest at the Parkins home during the week.

August Paasch left yesterday for Minnesota to visit his brother who has a large farm in that state. Mr. Paasch expects 12,000 boxes of apples on his ranch this year and is taking a vacation preparatory to the work of packing and marketing them.

William Boeffer of Virroque, Wis., accompanied by his wife and daughter, were here Wednesday and visited the family of F. H. Blagg. The Boefflers, who are looking for a location on the coast, are old friends of Mr. Blagg and may decide to locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Starrett of New York City, who own a ranch at Hood River, are expected to arrive here this week. Mr. Starrett was recently given a farewell banquet at his club in honor of being the oldest member of the organization.

Holy Communion at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 o'clock and consecration of the new individual communion set presented by Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Turner. In the evening at 8 o'clock Dr. Ford will speak on "The Greatest Need of Our Nation," or the kind of men we need as leaders. Special music.

Bob White and Harry Morgison have gone into the draying business and are out doing business with a bright and shining new dray and fine team. Bob for several years was employed by the Transfer company and has many friends about town. Harry has also had an extended experience in the transfer business and the new firm is prospering.

P. O. Ammerman and wife and their son, Joseph Ammerman, of Tyrone, Pa., are here as the guests of M. P. Isenberg. Mr. Ammerman is a nephew of Mr. Isenberg and is engaged in the railroad business at Tyrone. They are being shown the wonders of the valley by Uncle Pete, who is a native Pennsylvanian and visits his former home frequently.

Money to loan. Apply to Geo. D. Culbertson & Co.*

Don't let the rabbits eat your trees. Buy your tree protectors at Whitehead's.*

The Ross & Richards Company will serve Hazelwood special ice cream Sundays at the same price as other creams.*

Wanted—20 to 40 acres of unimproved for customers. Also 10 to 15 acres improved on the east side. G. Y. Edwards & Co. Phone 228-L.*

If your horse is run down and out of condition and you want to get him in shape to do good strong work buy a pall of Rex Stock Food it will do the job. Whitehead's.*

APPLE LANDS

IMPROVED

We have 80 ACRES 4 1-2 miles south of Hood River, all set to Newtowns and Spitzensbergs, 1 to 4 years old, A-1 condition, which is cut up and being sold in ten acre tracts. Good soil, perfect drainage; beautiful view of both mountains; on Mt. Hood road. This is a splendid buy and will double in value in three years' time. A purchaser of a section of this property could get it cared for by parties in the valley at a very reasonable figure, making it an A-1 investment. Prices range from $4,000 to $9,000 on these tracts. Easy terms. Write or inquire now if you wish one of these, as they are among the best bargains on the Hood River market. Easy terms.

10 ACRES near school, store and railway station, on main road, good soil, good drainage. All set to two year old Newtowns and Spitzensbergs, excellent condition. Bargain at $5,500.

10 ACRES heavy red soil, 3 1-2 miles southwest of Hood River on main county road. Partially cleared. New house and barn. Price $3,000.

20 ACRES, East Side, 1 1-2 miles from town, 8 acres in one and two year old Newtowns. Balance light clearing; all lays well for fruit land. Perfect drainage. Less than an acre of waste; beautiful view of the Valley. Price $7,000.

20 ACRES, 6 miles from Hood River, set to commercial orchard as follows: 416 Newtowns and Spitzensbergs 14 years old; 168 Spitzensbergs, 213 Newtowns; 24 Ortlovs, 7 years old; 76 Spitzensbergs, 4 years old. 5 acres ready for fall planting. Good house and barn. County road on two sides. Price $24,000. Terms.

20 ACRES, in Willow Flat district, 10 acres under cultivation; 6 acres in 2 and 3 year old Newtowns and Spitzensbergs, 4 acres in potatoes; balance partially cleared. Four acres in young strawberries between the trees. 10 inches of water stock; good team and complete set of implements go with the place. 4 room house, small barn and good spring on place. A bargain at $10,000. Terms.

UNIMPROVED

20 ACRES, East Side, 1 1-2 miles from town, eight acres in 1 and 2 year old Newtowns, balance light clearing. All lies well for fruit; perfect drainage. Beautiful view of the valley. $1,000 will handle it.

20 ACRES, 12 1-2 slashed and burned, red soil, close in, $175 per acre.

20 ACRES high and slightly, in best orchard district, practically cleared, $375 per acre.

120 ACRES, on Upper Neal Creek, mostly tillable land; about 5 million feet of saw timber. Price $3500 cash.

60 ACRES, near Summit, shot soil; 50 acres good orchard land, few scattering fir and some oak. Price $7000. $1700 cash, balance on or before seven years.

Devlin & Firebaugh

THE LEADING DEALERS
PHONE 141

Swetland Building Hotel Oregon Building
PORTLAND, OREGON HOOD RIVER, OREGON

5 New York Bond
Cent Cigars
Are good Cigars

...At ALL DEALERS...

CAMPBELL & EVANS

Distributors

Portland :: :: Oregon