Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gilbert of Portland were the guests Sunday of E. O. Blanchard.

Dr. H. S. Sutphen, a resident of Newark, N. J., who is interested in Hood River arrived here Sunday for a month's visit.

Albert Lathrop, who has been spending a week at the seashore, returned home this week and reports an enjoyable time.

A disastrous fire at Eagle Creek, between here and Portland, is said to have destroyed considerable fine timber in that country this week.

An ice cream social will be held Saturday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. Snider in Willow Flat. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

T. A. Schall, who recently sold his place in the valley will move his family to Portland, and is packing his household goods this week preparatory to his departure.

For Sale or Exchange—Eight room house, desirable location, three lots with property and small barn. Will sell or exchange for valley property. Enquire of Mrs. Flora Hartley, Phone 146-L.*

Mrs. W. G. Snow will leave today for a three months' visit on the Atlantic coast and in the middle west. Her first stopping place will be Boston, where she will visit for some time, later going on to Detroit, Mich., and several other cities.

Mrs. J. B. Stewart and little son Walter, the former a sister of Mrs. Flora Hartley, are spending the summer here. Mrs. Hartley and Mrs. Stewart have just returned from a week's trip down the Columbia to Seaview. The Stewarts are from Newberg, Ind.

A. E. Baker, H. A. Baker and R. W. Anderson of Decorah, Iowa, and B. W. Baker of Plainville, Texas, relatives of E. H. Baker, were here last week and visited the city and valley. The party were much pleased with the country and left Hood River satisfied of its future prospects.

Samuel Davidson, who was drowned Sunday in the Willamette river at Portland was well known here, having formerly been a Hood River resident and at one time lived on the old Wunder place in the valley. When he left here he went to Eugene to take a law course in the state university.

Secretary Ballinger of the Department of the Interior is busy on a trip of inspection of the reclamation projects of the state, and is becoming familiar with the workings of the service in Oregon. Among other things, he will start preliminary surveys of Crater Lake National Park, looking toward its development along the lines of the better known national parks of the country.

Miss Mary Rothrock, a well known Pendleton girl who has been teaching in the high school at Hood River since her graduation from the University of Oregon with the class of '07 and who is now visiting friends and relatives here, is to be an August bride. She is to be married in Portland on August 25th to J. M. Culbertson, a prominent real estate man of Hood River, where they will make their home.—Billy Oregonian.

Geo. D. Hensley, a well known artist and cartoonist who is now living in Portland but formerly located at Los Angeles and New York, was here Saturday and was taken over the valley through the courtesy of Frank Chandler. Mr. Hensley, who has estimated the resources of Hood River from the railroad trains, on which he had passed through here several times, was astonished at the extent of country and its wonderful productiveness.

Sold Orchard for $10,000

Through the agency of the Hood River Realty Company, Dr. R. A. Jayne sold his 14-acre orchard last week to A. Wing, an Illinois man, for $10,000. The place is one of the most desirable in the Oak Grove district, and has four acres in bearing orchard and the rest in young trees.

A New Law Firm

Hon. A. A. Jayne and G. J. Watson have formed a partnership for the practice of law. The offices of the new legal firm will continue to be in the Hall building where Mr. Jayne and Mr. Watson have transacted the duties of their profession for some time. The senior member of the firm is too well known at Hood River to need any comment having been identified with almost every important case here for many years and considered one of the leading lawyers of the state. Mr. Watson is a New Yorker having practiced law in the big metropolis of the Empire state but for whom the attractions of Hood River were greater than the courts of Gotham. Shaking the dust of Broadway off his feet about a year ago he came to the Apple City and it looked so good to him he decided to anchor. Having bought an apple ranch he has put himself in line to become a millionaire and in the meantime will interpret Blackstone for the public. Mr. Watson is a man of ability, of sterling qualities and one worth knowing, both in and out of his profession.

Local Elks to Go to Astoria

A meeting of Hood River Elks was held Wednesday evening to take action on joining an excursion to Astoria this week, when the new club house of the local lodge there will be dedicated. The excursion will be conducted under the auspices of The Dalles lodge and will leave that city Friday night. A large number of local members of the antlered herd have decided to take in the trip, and it is expected that they will have such a time as only the members of this order can put up.

Had Successful Season

The Hood River Baseball Association, which had a meeting recently, reports a successful season. Under the management of J. L. Morrison and L. E. Morse, the stockholders of the association were enabled to pay off an indebtedness of $100 and leave a surplus in the treasury. The funds were turned over to the association by Mr. Morrison, who has looked after its affairs this summer.

Drive Stakes on Hood River Road

The Portland Journal says that county surveyors are at work establishing grade stakes for the proposed road to Hood River along the Columbia. The right-of-way has been surveyed and grades are being established as rapidly as possible, and it is thought that everything will be in readiness to begin actual construction work in a month or two.

PINE GROVE

The Ladies' Aid will hold their social meeting with Mrs. Allen Friday afternoon of this week.

HOPE.

Hope is always liberal, and they that trust her promises make little scruple of reveling today on the profits of tomorrow.—Johnson.

An Exception.

Aseum—He's particularly pleasant when you get him in a reminiscent mood, don't you think?

Boroughs—Not always. He was in just such a mood the other day and recalled a loan of $5 he had made to me.—Exchange.

A Time Killer.

"You look old tonight, John, dear," said Mrs. Peters as she finally announced her readiness to start for the theater.

"Yes, my love," replied Peters. "I age a good deal while you are putting your hat on."—Lippincott's.

Poor Human Nature!

Waggles—He couldn't remember why his wife tied a string around his finger, so he was afraid to go home and stayed out all night.

Jaggles—What was it he should have remembered?

Waggles—To come home early.

Strength of Bees.

Hundreds of bees can hang one to another without tearing away the feet of the upper one.
