POLITICAL POT BOILS IN WASCO COUNTY

The political pot has commenced to boil in Wasco county and a number of candidates have filed their petitions. In sizing up the situation in our neighboring county, The Dalles Chronicle says:

"County Clerk Frank R. Angle Sheriff Levi Chrisman and Treasurer Frank S. Gunning have filed their petitions as candidates for re-election.

"H. C. Rooper of Antelope is a candidate to succeed himself as county commissioner, and will be opposed at the primaries by E. P. Harvey of Mosier, who wants the Republican nomination. Surveyor A. W. Mohr is also a candidate for re-election, as is Coroner C. N. Burget.

"The four-year terms of County Judge A. E. Lake, Assessor J. W. Koontz and County Superintendent of Schools Justice T. Neff do not expire until January, 1913.

"Circuit Judge W. L. Bradshaw is a candidate for another term and will be opposed by Attorney S. W. Stark of Hood River. Both men have filed their petitions. District Attorney Fred W. Wilson is a hold-over.

"H. C. Dodds of Dufur and J. L. Carter of Hood River, as joint representatives, will complete their term this year. Alexander Stewart of Mosier and Mr. Tate of Hood River were endorsed by the state assembly for the offices. Mr. Tate may not make the run. Attorney A. A. Jayne of Hood River has been mentioned as a representative candidate. Other office-seekers are expected to announce themselves soon for the legislative positions. County Clerk Angle received a request a few days ago for a petition which will be circulated by a Democrat of Tygh Valley who wants to represent the counties of Wasco and Hood River at Salem. Senator N. J. Sinnott is another hold-over.

"All of the candidates in the local field at the present time are Republicans, with the exception of Judge W. L. Bradshaw, who always polls a large number of Republican votes. No assembly was held in Wasco county and there is very little election talk. Every indication points to the fact that the coming election will be quiet."

The Ross & Richards Company will serve Hazelwood special ice cream Sundays at the same price as other creams."

New Firm Derby & Wilbur

To keep pace with the age of combinations, County Judge Derby and Attorney George R. Wilbur have formed a partnership for the practice of law, and for the present will retain the offices occupied for some time by Mr. Derby, in the First National Bank building.

The formation of the new firm joins together in business two of Hood River's best known and successful legal lights, both of whom are popular and have many friends.

Judge Derby has been a resident of Hood River for several years and may be said to have grown with it from the time it was a one-lawyer town. Originally he came here from Portland, where he was admitted to the bar and entered a partnership to practice law with Seneca Fouts, under the name of Fouts & Derby. Later he was associated with A. A. Jayne, afterwards branching out for himself. When Hood River county was created, Mr. Derby was the unanimous choice of his fellow citizens for the office of county judge, although he very reluctantly took the office. In organizing and getting the county's affairs into shape, he brought to bear his legal training and proved to be the right man in the right place. As city attorney, he has been custodian of the city's legal affairs for two years.

Mr. Wilbur came to Hood River a year or more ago from Nebraska, where he was prosecuting attorney, and became the legal adviser for the Hood River Abstract Company, and also a member of the firm. When the two abstract companies were consolidated he withdrew and will now devote his entire time to the general practice of his profession. Since his arrival here Mr. Wilbur has made many friends, both in a business and social way, and a successful career is predicted for the new firm.

Davidson Fruit Co. Ready for Apples

The Davidson Fruit Co. has just closed the strawberry season, having handled some 25,000 crates which netted here at Hood River $2.33 per crate, giving their customers an increased profit of 20c per crate, or about $5,000 over other shippers.

This firm will be in the apple deal and expect to maintain their good reputation by giving their customers satisfaction.

Those having crops of fancy apples will no doubt put money into their pockets by arranging with the Davidson Fruit Co. to handle their fruit.

Phone them at 65 or call at the office at the foot of Third street, Hood River, Oregon."

GREEKS FILE LIENS ON VALLEY PROPERTY

An attorney for twenty-five Greek laborers, Attorney S. W. Stark has filed twenty-five liens on some property belonging to Geo. W. McCoy in the valley, owing to the fact that McCoy failed to pay the men, who had been clearing land for him, after issuing pay checks.

According to the story of the Greeks, McCoy, who is stated to have turned a similar trick several times, engaged them in Portland to clear the land and came to Hood River and set them to work. After working for two weeks they demanded their money, and McCoy issued pay checks, telling them to meet him at the Mt. Hood Hotel the next day. The checks aggregated in the neighborhood of $900. When the men arrived here next day they were told that McCoy had gone to Portland. A number of them then went to that city and, finding his office address, again demanded the money, and McCoy promised to meet them in an hour at one of the banks and pay them off. The Greeks waited around the bank all day and when McCoy didn't show up they went to his house, where they were told he had gone to Astoria. They then returned to Hood River and laid the case before Attorney Stark, who went to the premises to see if the work had been done. While there he discovered that McCoy had posted a notice on a tree the day after the men went to work, which stated that he would not be responsible for any labor performed on the place.

The Greeks, being unable to read, worked with McCoy on the place until they demanded their pay without knowing of his action in posting the notice, and were unaware of its contents until told by their attorney.

McCoy had some trouble of a similar nature last year in the Oak Grove district, with a bunch of Hindus, who, it is said, never received their money.

Notice to Apple Packers

Midsummer Social Event

A very enjoyable midsummer social event took place Thursday and Friday evenings at the home of Wm. T. Stewart, when Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. O. J. Nelson and Mrs. J. F. Watt gave a musicale and card party in honor of Mrs. Chas. J. Henney. The handsome home of the Stewarts was prettily decorated with potted plants and flowers, yellow being the prevailing color, and refreshments suitable to the season were daintily served to guests at tables placed on the lawn. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. C. R. Grelson and Miss Nettie Allen.

The musicale, which was given Thursday evening, included most of Hood River's musical talent, with the addition of a number by Mr. Patterson of Portland.

The other numbers were given by Mrs. Henney, the guest of honor, Will Chandler, violin solo with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Dumble. Miss Bryant, Geo. Wilbur, Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Mrs. C. H. Sletton, Miss Alberta Jackson, Mrs. A. A. Jayne, Mrs. Chas. Hall, Murray Kay and J. A. Epping. Several selections were given by the Mandolin Club and the guests were further entertained by a little girl artist at present visiting in the city, who whistled classical selections, accompanied by the piano, most marvelously.

Guests on Friday evening were entertained at cards.
