HEILBRONNER BLOCK TO BE THREE STORIES
Believing that Hood River needs another large and conveniently equipped hall, J. H. Heilbronner, who is erecting the new block next to the First National Bank, has had the plans for the building altered so as to include another story. When completed, the structure will have three stories and basement, and, taken altogether, it will be the finest building in the city. The plans call for superior construction and workmanship in every detail. Hockenberry & Bartlett, the architects, who are directing the work, will see that the specifications are carried out to the letter. L. D. Boyd, who has the contract, is making good headway and work on the walls will be commenced this week.

Will Universal Peace Ever Be Realized?

The recent announcement that preparations have been begun already for a celebration in 1914 of the centennial of the treaty of Ghent, marking a hundred years of peace between Great Britain and America, makes the thoughtful consider if peace, universal and lasting, will ever be established among nations.

THE WAGE EARNERS tend more and more to become the ADVOCATES OF PEACE, for wars disorganize industry, increase the ranks of the unemployed and raise tremendously the cost of living.

Citizens who have some property accumulated manage to pull through without great suffering. But the suffering of those whose livelihood DEPENDS UPON THEIR DAILY WAGE cannot be depicted or even imagined.

THE expense of building and maintaining fighting ships has become so large that all the great powers have concentrated their expenditures on purely military fleets for the control of the sea.

It seems probable that the practical IMMUNITY OF PRIVATE PROPERTY is not far off since the control of the sea is the vitally important object to which all other considerations must be sacrificed. WAR MUST CONTINUE.

THIS world is filled with the clangor of INCREASING ARMAMENT, the most Christian and civilized nations vie with one another in building new and more monstrous battleships and in reorganizing their military establishments, and all in the sacred name of PEACE.

A Riddle Making Epoch.
There have been epochs at which riddle making has been more especially in vogue, and such epochs would appear to occur at seasons of fresh intellectual awakening. Such an epoch there was at the first glimmering of new intellectual light in the second half of the seventh century. This was the age of Aldhelm, bishop of Sherborne, the first in the roll of Anglo-Latin poets. He left a considerable number of enigmas in Latin hexameters. Aldhelm died in 709. Before his time there was a collection of Latin riddles that bore the name of Symphosius. Of this work the date is unknown. We only know that Aldhelm used it, and we may infer that it was then a recent product. The riddles of Symphosius were uniform in shape, consisting each of three hexameter lines.—Cornhill Magazine.

Chaldean Tablets.
The clay tablets of Chaldean, probably the very earliest writing materials used by man, were of different sizes, the largest being flat and measuring 9 by 6 1/2 inches, while the smallest were slightly convex and in some cases not more than an inch long. In the same ruins with the tablets have been found the glass lenses which were used by their readers. The writ-

VENTURE to suggest that in every important department of human affairs, the SETTLEMENT OR ADJUSTMENT OF DISPUTES between nations, the American people might do a lot of good.

THE nation that has no army or navy, however populous, opulent or advanced in the arts of civilization, CANNOT BE A POTENTIAL FACTOR FOR PEACE in the midst of armed nations.

DISPUTES of nations should be settled by INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNAL.

In the constitution of an arbitration court the first requisite is that it should be permanent. However cordial the acceptance of the general principle of arbitration may be, any plan which does not afford ready access to an established tribunal is more or less of a makeshift.

THE Prince of Peace declared he came not to send peace, but A SWORD.

The paradox lies in the fact that he came to establish righteousness and justice among men, to overcome selfishness by unselfishness and hate by love. This of necessity means CONFLICT, which is SYMBOLIZED BY THE SWORD.

A Mistake Somewhere.
"Is it true, Miss Gertie," he said, "that there are just two things a woman will jump at—a conclusion and a mouse?"
"No," she answered; "there is a third, Mr. Philip."
After thinking the matter over a few moments he tremblingly made her an offer, but she didn't jump at it. He was not the right man.

Two Men.
A feeble man can see the farms that are fenced and tilled, the houses that are built. The strong man sees the possible houses and farms. His eye makes estates as fast as the sun breeds clouds.—Emerson.

High Class.
Teacher—What class of birds does the hawk belong to, Tommy? Tommy—Birds of prey. Teacher—Now, Johnny, to what class does the quail belong? Johnny—Birds on toast.—Chicago News.

A Sure Cure.
"Doctor, my wife has lost her voice. What can I do about it?"
"Try getting home late some night."
