GLACIER PHARMACY

Hood River :: :: Oregon

5th. He was brought to the Cottage Hospital and up to the middle of last week his symptoms indicated a speedy recovery. On Thursday his condition became suddenly worse and Dr. Coffey of Portland was called. An operation was performed, but too late to save the patient.

The passing of Mr. Richards removes from the valley one of its highly respected, promising and enthusiastic citizens. One who had that quality of manhood and gentility of presence that not only made friends quickly, but kept them and called forth the most kindly regard of those who worked with him. In business relations he inspired confidence.

Mr. Richards was born in Portland in October, 1880. He was one of a large family and is survived by his mother and four sisters, one of whom is Mrs. C. J. Calkins, of this city. Nine years ago Mr. Richards was married to Miss Frances Sarah Monk, who with one little boy Kenneth, live in the memory of a happy home circle all too soon broken.

The funeral which was held in this city Sunday afternoon was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, many of whom came long distances to be present. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Hargreaves. Burial was in Idlewild Cemetery.

MRS. O. D. CADWELL.

Mrs. O. D. Cadwell, who had been living in town, but who was removed to the country Friday, died Saturday, August 13th, on the old Jarvis place in the Oak Grove district, now owned by Mrs. Lamonte, and of which her husband had just taken the management. Mrs. Cadwell, although ill, was not considered in a serious condition, but is thought to have been weakened by the strain of moving. The deceased was born in Boone county, Iowa, March 17, 1875, and is survived by her husband and four children, the youngest about three weeks old.

The funeral was held at Bartmess chapel Sunday afternoon at 3:30, services being conducted by Rev. Isaac Peart of the Valley Christian church. The burial services at Idlewild cemetery, where the remains were interred, were in charge of the Royal Neighbors, of which Mrs. Cadwell was a member.

ANDREW D. SHRUM.

Andrew D. Shrum, the eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Shrum, died Wednesday, August 10th, at the home of his parents. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, August 11th, at the home of J. S. Simonton, a relative, owing to the fact that the four other children belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Shrum were sick with pneumonia. Services were conducted by Rev. T. B. Ford and burial was in Idlewild cemetery.

New Real Estate Firm

The Epping-Brydle Company is the name of a new real estate company which has recently been formed, with offices in the First National Bank building. Mr. Epping is the well known west side rancher and real estate man, who has sold a great deal of property in the valley and recently secured a large tract to be cut up into acreage, in the Stanley-Smith logged off holdings. Mr. Brydle is an eastern man who has been here some time and has interests in the valley. He is enthusiastic in regard to the future of the country and will help develop it by bringing in new capital and people. The firm will do a general real estate business.

In line with the important question which is at present claiming the attention of local people, Mr. Hargreaves will preach next Sunday evening at the Baptist Church on the theme, "Some definite things for which the church should stand."

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery parents of J. E. Montgomery, of the Glacier, who reside at Greenfield, Ind., are here for an extended visit with their son. Mr. Montgomery senior is an ex-newspaperman and published a paper at Greenfield for several years.

A light frost was noticeable in town early Tuesday morning and ice is reported to have formed in several districts in the valley. No harm was done however by the unusually low temperature. It is stated by old timers that they fail to remember frost appearing here so early in the season.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease, but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Sold by all dealers.*

DIED

MRS. L. E. TAFT.

After an illness of several weeks' duration, Mrs. L. E. Taft, wife of the well known and highly esteemed business man of that name, died Thursday, August 11th, at the Cottage hospital. Mrs. Taft's death was not altogether unexpected, although it was believed that she might recover and her many friends had strong hopes that she would do so.

Mrs. Taft's maiden name was Caroline Evans and she was born in Milwaukee, Wis., February 23, 1883. Her acquaintance with the Taft family was almost lifelong duration and on Sept. 4, 1904, she was married to L. E. Taft, her friend since childhood, at Tunnel City, Wis.

After continuing to reside in Wisconsin for some time, Mrs. Taft, with her husband, came to Hood River, arriving here in December, 1906, and made her home here until the time of her death.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Taft is survived by a little son three years old and infant daughter three weeks old. She also leaves two sisters, one of whom resides in Erie, Pa., and the other in Detroit, Mich., and a brother whose home is in Milwaukee.

The funeral of Mrs. Taft, which was held Saturday at the Baptist church, was very largely attended and the services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Gilmore. Interment was made in Idlewild cemetery. In attendance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taft of Tomah, Wis., the parents of Mr. L. E. Taft.

CLYDE OTIS RICHARDS.

Clyde Otis Richards, aged about 29 years, member of the Mt. Hood Milling Company, and a resident of the middle valley for four years, passed away Friday after a week's illness. Mr. Richards was taken with an acute attack of appendicitis on Aug.
