Rev. E. L. House did not occupy the pulpit Sunday morning, as was expected, but will be present next Sunday morning. Rev. Hayes, our pastor, preached an excellent sermon, however, taking for his subject "The Sympathetic Touch o Christ; What It Has Done for Mankind," and brought forward many strong points, which were greatly appreciated by all.

Annual Picnic Neighborly Club

The Neighborly club, with their families, held their annual picnic on Saturday evening, August 20th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Reed. According to the custom of the club, this event takes place during the full moon of August.

Supper was served on the lawn, after which the cares of life were laid aside and old and young all joined in dancing the Virginia reel.

Then came more strenuous games, children gazing in wonderment at the feats of sprinting performed by their dignified elders.

It was an evening of mirth and music, and on leaving all took with them happy memories of a delightful evening.

SECRETARY NEIGHBORLY CLUB.

Sold Booze to Wrong Man

Mike Smith, who gave his residence at Dee, got off on the wrong foot last week when he sold Constable Bill Ganger a quart of whiskey. Smith is said to have been bootlegging around town and first tried to sell some red eye to Marshal Lewis. Lewis told him that he was not buying any booze, but thought Ganger would invest. After handing over the coin for the whiskey, Ganger promptly arrested Smith, who was taken before Justice of the Peace Buck and fined $50 and costs. It is said that Smith had six bottles of booze which he tried to unload around town.
