An important feature in the proposed institutional work at the Baptist church this fall and winter will be a "Ladies' Reading Circle," to be conducted by Miss Hill. Information concerning this can be secured from Mr. Hargreaves.

In the series of sermons on "Christian Essentials" next Sunday evening at the Baptist church, Mr. Hargreaves will preach on "The far-reaching and often unrecognized influence of religious faith in man's daily struggle."

Grant B. Dimick, candidate for the nomination for governor on the statement 1 platform, was here last week meeting citizens and giving them the handshake. Mr. Dimick believes he will get a big vote in the country districts.

Frank M. Gill of Dufur, candidate for the Republican nomination for joint representative from Wasco and Hood River counties on the anti-assembly platform, was here Tuesday. Mr. Gill is an active worker in the Grange and was a visitor to Hood River when the state organization met here several years ago.

E. H. Shepard returned Tuesday from a five weeks trip in the East. He was present at the International Apple Shippers annual meeting at Niagara Falls and visited many of the large cities. Mr. Shepard found his paper, "Better Fruit," very well known in the fruit sections of the East and was successful in still further introducing it in a business way.

After a few weeks' vacation, the Unitarian Sunday school will open next Sunday. Through September the exercises will take on some of the features of the "Children's church," to which parents and friends are cordially invited. All children not connected with any other Sunday school are cordially invited.

The friends of John Gleason, a former resident of this locality, were pained to learn of his sad death Tuesday evening of last week, which occurred near Oregon City. His family have the sympathy of all in their severe trouble.

$500,000 Hood River Land Company

W. A. Seale, representing the Hood River Orchard Land company, one of the largest companies that has been incorporated for the purpose of developing Hood River and Mosier property, has been here for a week in its interests. The company has just increased its capital stock from $50,000 to $500,000. The heaviest stockholders in it are the Firebaughs and J. H. Devlin. The land owned by the company is considered gilt-edged and since the increase in stock many Portland people have taken advantage of the opportunity to invest. The property, which is undeveloped, will be held for an increase in valuation.

NEW RECTOR FOR ST. MARK'S CHURCH

Rev. D. T. Simpson has accepted the position as rector of St. Mark's church and is expected to arrive here this week. Mr. Simpson is now in Portland. He was formerly in charge of an Episcopal church at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and later rector of the Episcopal church at Corvallis. Afterward he was in the Hawaiian Islands, but for some time has been connected with one of the Portland churches. He has a wife and two sons and it is expected that on their arrival, which will be this week, they will be tendered a reception. In this connection, it is asked by the bishop's committee, that new members of the church in the valley send in their names to Mr. R. W. Pratt.

Was Not Davidson Mill.

Many who read the telegram Thursday evening thought the saw mill of the Goble Milling Company, in which H. F. Davidson is interested, had again been burned, owing to misleading headlines. Later it was discovered that the report was untrue, although a hard fight had to be made to save the property. Another fire story that gained credence was to the effect that the Gribbles store at Mt. Hood had been destroyed. This report also proved to be without foundation.

Fruit Fair at Gilbert-Vaughan's

In order to solve the question of a fruit fair building this fall the Gilbert Vaughan Company at the meeting of the association held Tuesday offered the use of their big salesroom. The suggestion was considered a capital one and it is expected the fair will be held there.

Copy for advertisements must be in the office by Monday noon.

MADAME LABADIE TO BE HERE AGAIN

Madame Labadie, who gave a reading here last winter and delighted her audience, will appear here soon again under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias lodge. Mme Labadie has been in the Philippines since she last appeared here. She will give an entirely different reading. It is expected that she will appear before her audience in the assembly
