Misstates Facts

In another column we publish an article from Mr. Knoedell, connected with the state wide prohibition movement in Oregon in answer to an editorial that appeared in the News. We have given this article in its entirety, although all the argument it contains could have been made in less than half the words. We regret that many of its statements are entirely wide of the facts and must have been written with the knowledge that they are untrue. Time forbids the editor from calling attention to them this week, but he will have a few words to say in a subsequent issue.

PORTLAND GOSSIP

Oregon's game birds are wanted in the south. Louisiana has arranged to stock her lands with 500 Chinese pheasants, purchasing the birds and eggs from a Corvallis grower. The birds will be protected for five years, when they may be shot by hunters under certain regulations.

Oregon's hop crop promises to be generous, with first class quality. The yield is now being gathered and great care is taken in the picking to get a crop clean of leaves and stems that will bring the usual good figure that Oregon hops command in the world's markets.

Oregon fruit has scored another triumph, Hood River fruit growers having just made what is believed to be the biggest sale of fancy apples on record. The New York commission firm of Steinhardt & Kelly has closed for practically all the fancy apples grown in the Hood River district, the purchase amounting to between 250,000 and 300,000 boxes, or over 400 carloads. The transportation involves a sum close to half a million dollars.

Many new towns of Oregon and Washington will be seen on the map now being issued by the Portland Commercial Club, which brings this whole region up to date and fills up the gaps noted in existing maps. Changes in the railroad situation will be shown and the accurate mapping of the two states will be a valuable aid in informing strangers of the opportunities that exist in the northwest. Accurate data of each locality will be given, the map being reproduced from plates used by the government census bureau.

Strong support for the Northwest movement to open the Columbia river to navigation from the sea far into British Columbia is given by Premier Wilfred Laurier himself. Recently he met delegations from Oregon and Washington at a conference held at Nelson, B. C., and gave his unqualified endorsement of the project. He signified his willingness to carry forward the work on his side of the boundary line, or, if any way can be found he will join the United States in accomplishing the work as a whole. He has given orders for surveying the river on the Canadian side preparatory to starting work.

Reflecting the prevailing prosperity throughout the Pacific northwest, Portland has just passed through the most successful August in its history, a month elsewhere accepted as one of midsummer dullness, when business of all kinds is in the doldrums. Not by any small percentage has Portland outdistanced former records, but by a wide margin. All the wealth comes from the soil, rivers, mines and forests of the tributary country; Portland is merely the mart where the products come. Prosperous conditions here testify to the well filled purse of the producer in the nearby territory.

Upper Valley Land Sales

Several land sales were made in the Upper Valley last week. Among them were two by W. H. Marshall who sold 20 acres belonging to Watson Irvine to Margaret White of Cleveland, Ohio, and 40 acres belonging to Margaret White to Herman Kopf of Cleveland, Ohio.

HEARD ON THE STREETS

P. C. Young has a new cash register that does everything except talk. It registers the amount of the purchase, computes the day's sales, makes change and never kicks. Every time the sale key is rung electric lamps on the machine light up and show the clerk and purchaser the amount of his purchase. Mr. Young says if he can get a machine now that will cut steaks and collect bills, the meat business will be worth while.

Right in line with this is an electric washing machine, which is being handled by Dean & Shaw. The washer has an electric motor for power and the machinery is so adjusted that it reverses after running one way for about ten revolutions. The clothes are put in the washer, which is an improved affair, and one of the best made. All that is necessary for the good housewife to do then is to start the motor, throw on the clutch and then take a copy of the News, or a book, and be seated until the clothes are washed. A wringer run by the same machinery is attached to the washer and the clothes are washed, wrung and hung out to dry while you wait. This enterprising firm has sold five of the washers and it is interesting many of the householders about town.

Relay Cowboy Race

A relay race with cow ponies and cowboy riders promises to be one of the great attractions at the Western Washington Fair which opens at 40th and Madison streets, Seattle, on September 19th, for one week. In this race there will be four ponies to each rider, and ponies and saddles will be exchanged each mile during the four-mile race.

Copy for advertisements must be in the office by Monday noon.

Hood River Light & Power Company.....

If you want quick returns on your wife's life insurance policy, just forget all the Labor Saving, Money Saving and Time Saving Electrical devices on the market at the present time.

With an Electric Chafing Dish, a Percolator and a Toaster you can prepare a good breakfast or a midnight lunch in 10 minutes to 15 minutes from the time you enter the kitchen.

With an Electric Washing Machine you can put clothes to soak at night, listen to them being washed while you eat breakfast, and watch an electric wringer do them in a twinkling after breakfast.

Women in general understand the use of and appreciate an Electric Curling Iron.

Unnumerable other devices of a serviceable and inexpensive nature are on the market, and anyone who stops to think the matter over will appreciate the fact that a shortening of the cordwood bill will more than equal the lengthening of Electric Light bill.

If you have a lighting service you will note that you get the Electricity for operating these devices mostly on a very low rate.

Besides this look at the difference in temperature in the rooms.

Just take a minute some time and figure the cost of the wood consumed for washing and ironing alone.

If the supply house don't carry a stock of what you want, we will get it for you.
