Simplicity and Durability
is the basis which the WHITE SEWING MACHINE is built on. We are unprejudiced in our claim that the WHITE is the best sewing machine in the WORLD. We are only too glad to show you that the range of work is unlimited. We make the Vibrator and Rotary machines, the latter being equipped with the Lock and Chain stitch, making two machines in one and possesses other desirable features too numerous to mention.
See STEWART HARDWARE & FURNITURE CO., local dealer, Hood River, Ore., before you buy.

THE REAL ESTATE SECTION

Nichol & Hadlock consummated a land sale of interest Monday when they sold ten acres of the C. R. Bone tract near town on the west side to Prof. Marcus D. Buell of the University of Boston, a Methodist theological school. The ten acres, which is in young trees, was sold for $1,000 an acre with the provision that Mr. Bone takes care of it until the trees are five years old. Prof. Buell has held his present position for thirty years and numbered among his pupils a number of years ago Rev. E. L. House of Spokane. He is now touring the country under the auspices of the general conference of the Methodist church lecturing to the local conferences. Another sale made by Nichol & Hadlock was two forty acre tracts of unimproved land to C. R. Brydle of the Epping-Brydle company. One of the tracts is located on the west side and the other on the east.

At private sale Saturday C. P. Sonnichsen of the News office bought twenty acres of unimproved land adjoining the Albert Sutton place in the Oak Grove district. The purchase was part of the Forsberg place and is considered one of the best pieces of soil in the valley.

Guy Y. Edwards & Co. this week sold for C. E. Merriam his 20 acres of unimproved land in the Oak Grove district. Mrs. Grace E. McClain, the purchaser will clear and improve the tract this fall and winter.

Real estate transfers for past week furnished by the Hood River Abstract Company.

Her Dearest Friend.
"If you were I," she said to her dearest friend, "would you be married in the spring or the fall?"
"If I were you," was the unhesitating reply, "and had actually secured a man I would set the wedding for the earliest date possible."
Utterly Reckless.
"I hear you Americans are an extravagant lot." "Yes; we eat three times a day."—Kansas City Journal.

WILL LECTURE AT PINE GROVE

Hon. Herbert S. Bigelow, a lecturer of note who is touring the country under the management of the Henry George Lecture Association, will appear at Pine Grove hall Saturday evening, Sept. 17th. Mr. Bigelow comes to Hood River highly recommended and has a wide range of subjects. It is not known which one he will select when he addresses his Hood River audience, but it is expected that he will speak in part on taxation and land values, a subject on which he is deeply learned. He will appear here under the auspices of the grange and it is expected that he will be greeted by a large audience.
