MORLAN & LATHROP OCCUPY NEW STORE

Morlan & Lathrop moved into their new quarters in the Otten block Thursday and are now prepared to serve patrons in their changed location.

The store is much larger than their former place of business and includes two large display windows. The apartment is divided in the center with counters and shelves. Dry goods and ladies' wear are on one side and shoes and men's wear on the other. A new idea for handling ladies' coats and cloaks is shown in several closets which are easy of access but keep the stock out of the dust and from being handled by passing hands. The store is broad and deep with a good lighting arrangement and permits the arrangement of a much larger stock.

Underneath there is a full basement for storing surplus stock and for keeping rough lines of goods. The store will be ready for its formal opening Saturday.

Says Mosier Beat Us

The White Salmon Enterprise, which apparently has inside information, states that notwithstanding that the Fruit Growers' Union of Hood River sold its entire crop of 400 car loads of apples at a good price to New York parties, Mosier beat them out a little by getting twenty-five cents more per box for its crop.

Basket Picnic and Sermon

With baskets containing far more than five loaves and three small fishes the church growers of Bristol wended their way to the little school house on Sunday, listened to a good sermon by Rev. Hershner of Hood River, opened their baskets for a picnic lunch and then listened to another sermon at 3 o'clock by the same minister.—White Salmon Enterprise.
