Hurlburt Makes Statement to Public Owing to a misunderstanding as to the date of filing my petition for the office of county surveyor my name will not appear on the Republican primary nominating ballot at the election Saturday. I want to set all misapprehension and rumors to the contrary at rest by stating that I am still a candidate for this office and ask my friends and the voters to write my name on the ballot, not forgetting to place a cross in front of it as provided by the pri-mary election laws.

By experience I have no hesitancy in saying that I am fully fitted to perform the duties of the office and will do so faithfully and accurately. My charges will be just and equit-able. I ask the support of all Repub-licans, but if not nominated I will support the candidate who is.

Music With Meals Popular

That a table d'hote dinner with music is podular at Hood River was evidenced Sunday night when the Mt. Hood hotel served a meal of this character, with a program rendered by the Hood River Mandolin and Guitar Club. The dinner was served from 6 to 8, and during that time the tables were filled with guests who not only complimented the new proprietors on the excellence and serving of the the menu, but also enjoyed the music.

In another column the Hotel Ore-gon announces a special dinner Fri-day evening, with a menu long and varied enough to suit the most epi-curean taste. The dinner will be served en course from 5 to 7:30.

School and Home Association At the reception to the teachers of the public school held Monday, Sept. 5th, an association was proposed, to be called The Hood River School and Home Association, and a committee appointed to consider the formation of plans. The committee it will submit to a public meeting to be held at the Unitarian church on Monday evening, Oct. 3, at 8 o'clock.

A literary and musical program is being arranged and will be announced later. All who are interested in the school are invited to be
