

Opening Announcement

TO THE PEOPLE OF HOOD RIVER VALLEY and VICINITY:
We wish to announce the Opening of

Our New Store On the Corner of Oak and Fourth Sts.
and extend to you a cordial invitation to attend and inspect the latest and best

CREATIONS IN

Ladies' Suits, Underwear, Hosiery, Corsets, Shoes and Rubbers
Dress Goods, Silks and Wash Goods and the Best line of Men's Ready-to-Wear Garments that ever came to town

Saturday, Sept. 24th

In making our selections we have had constantly in view two main factors—quality and price. And the result of our showing will warrant the statement that this fall we show more quality for less price than ever before shown in Hood River. In arranging our new store we have had in mind the comfort and convenience of our patrons

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

UNDERWOOD

Mrs. H. W. Hamlin spent the week in Portland visiting friends and shopping.

The Hood River Lumber Company is hauling lumber to Underwood for shipment.

A. J. Haynes has been entertaining a number of his friends and relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Greiner left Friday for Portland, to be gone a few weeks.

T. H. Amos returned to Portland Saturday, after spending a few days at the ranch.

G. A. Cooper and a party of friends came up from Portland Friday night for a little outing.

Mrs. W. A. Wendorf, who has been visiting her mother near Portland, returned home the first of the week.

A number of new houses are being built in the Hamlin neighborhood, and several more are being planned for.

Mrs. E. C. Hamilton and daughters have moved to Stevenson for the winter, to look after some of their property there.

The S. P. & S. are at last completing the side track to the Union warehouse and the apples can now be loaded direct into the car.

W. F. Cash, the manager of the Apple Growers' Union, was in Portland a couple of days this week on business connected with the Union.

The business of the Underwood livery is still increasing and the equipment is being constantly added to in order to take care of the business.

P. I. Packard, who has been quite ill in Portland, was able to return to Underwood Saturday. His sister, Mrs. W. H. Morrow, is down with typhoid, but is getting along as well as can be expected.

The Apple Growers' warehouse is now about completed and the Union expects to begin handling apples by the 20th. The apples are exceptionally fine this year and the growers are all feeling good.

The Underwood school opened this week, with Prof. Hedrick as principal and Miss Gene McAshland as assistant. The building has been remodeled and arrangements made for a regular high school course.

MOSIER

Mrs. G. H. Rorden made a flying trip to Hood River Friday.

Miss Selma Vickers, of The Dalles, is visiting her cousin, Maude Evans.

A. P. Bateham returned Wednesday from a business trip to Portland.

Paul Highley left Saturday for Kelso, Washington, where he has employment.

Rev. Keller, of White Salmon, was here the better part of the week looking over the church work.

R. L. Hunt, of Kansas, arrived Saturday and is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Highley.

Mrs. Lee Evans is again very seriously ill at her home south of town. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. N. P. Sturgis went to Portland Wednesday to visit her sons, Roy and George. She expects to be absent about a week.

Russ Huskey returned from the valley Tuesday, where he has spent the past two weeks with his brother George, who has been in poor health, but has recovered.

Miss Ione Splawn, of Portland, came up Friday evening to visit Mrs. E. W. Davidhizar and other friends. Miss Splawn was teacher in district No. 8 six years ago and she sees many changes and improvements in that time.

The funeral services of Frank Roberts were held last Tuesday in the Christian church, Rev. Clark officiating. Mr. Roberts had made this his home for about fifteen years, and his many friends were horrified when the news came that he had committed suicide. A note left by him gave the reason: "I'm tired of life. It's not worth while." He leaves a mother, sister and two brothers at Hood River, a half brother in Welser and a brother whose whereabouts are unknown, to mourn his untimely death.

WILLOW FLAT

Mr. Gentry has gone to keep bachelor's hall on his homestead.

Miss Emma Dunaway is reported as greatly improved in health, although still in the Portland sanitarium.
