FRANK A. CRAM

Live Local Topics

W. L. Upton went to Portland Wednesday for several days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Frank Davenport, after an absence of several months, was here last week visiting her son and several friends.

W. N. Moses and family who recently sold their place in the Barrett district, left Monday for Eugene where they will reside during the winter.

C. W. Peck of Minneapolis, brother of Mrs. W. B. Dickerson and a partner in the Dickerson & Peck orchard on the east side, arrived here Sunday for a two week's visit. Mr. Peck has never seen the Hood River country in the fall and comes to enjoy an outing at this season of the year.

Frank Gillam, who bought the W. N. Moses place, arrived here Saturday with his family whom he will install on his country place. Mr. Gillam is connected with the U. S. weather bureau at Seattle where he is marine observer. He will retain his position there and his sons will manage his ranch. Notwithstanding the fact that he is a Seattle enthusiast he believes Hood River is the ideal place to live and grow apples, after an investigation of the various districts.

For the apple show to be held in Hood River soon the White Salmon ferry will make a round trip rate of 35 cents.

J. McLockhead of Indianapolis, a friend of W. G. Montgomery, was here from Saturday until Monday as the guest of the latter and other Indian people.

Rev. Bigelow, who lectured at Pine Grove Saturday night, was disappointed at not meeting a large number of the University Club members and prominent residents of the valley. Some North Dakota people who had heard him on former occasions drove six or seven miles to be present.

John Leland Henderson came up Saturday from Portland accompanied by Mrs. Henderson. The latter returned to Portland but the judge remained to make an active canvass in behalf of his nomination for joint representative of Hood River and Wasco counties. He will visit eastern Oregon this week.

A. B. Chase, owner of 1,500 acres of orange grove in the Riverside district was here Monday looking the valley over and investigating the methods of growing and packing apples. Mr. Chase met Jack Robinson, whom he formerly knew in California, and also Manager Sprout of the Apple Growers' Union. He was much interested in what he saw and heard and may buy here.

Louis Henderson, who holds a responsible position with the government in the Philippines and has been in the Orient for two years, is here visiting his father, John Leland Henderson, and his numerous friends. Mr. Henderson is enthusiastic in regard to the industrial development of Uncle Sam's far east possessions and believes that they will prove a wonderfully fertile and prosperous territory.

Republicans and others should read the arguments published in the Corrupt Practices pamphlet, supplied by William J. Clarke and Willis S. Dunway, and then decide who was telling the truth. Which one is the taxpayers' friend?—Adv.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for 25c. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest and much cheaper. Sold by all dealers.

John Baker is a new resident at Hood River, having come here recently from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Redd left Thursday for a month's visit with relatives in the east and Canada.

Henry Howe, candidate for assessor, is here from Walla Walla in the interests of his candidacy for Republican nomination for that office.

Capt. A. S. Blowers was here from Portland on a business visit Saturday, as was also F. S. Stanley, president of the First National bank.

J. H. Devlin of Devlin & Firebaugh came up Wednesday for a short stay. The Devlin & Firebaugh company has recently negotiated the sale of several large properties in Portland.

Wm. McMurray, general passenger agent of the O. R. & N., accompanied by Mrs. McMurray, was here Wednesday taking a look at the valley orchards while the crop is still on the trees.

G. H. Wagner of G. H. Wagner & Co., the big fruit buyers of Chicago, was here Thursday inspecting the valley and was taken for a ride over the valley by Secretary Skinner of the Commercial Club. Mr. Wagner had never been in the Hood River country before although he has had various representatives here who have been anxious to get shipments of apples on the consignment basis. For several years he has handled large quantities of Wenatchee and Yakima apples.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by all dealers.

A flat salary for the state printer was decreed by the voters of the state in 1906, by a vote of 4 to 1, and defeated Willis S. Dunway on the floor of the state legislative session of 1907 and again in 1909. Why continue a graft when a saving can be made? William J. Clarke is the popular republican, flat salary candidate pledged to this great reform.—Adv.

Kinnaird & Kinsey Move Downtown

Kinnaird & Kinsey, who have been doing business on the heights, have moved their grocery store into the building formerly occupied by Morlan & Lathrop and opened up for business. The store is well fitted for the business, having both a front and rear entrance and two display windows. Business men and patrons who have occasion to frequent the east end of town have asked for a grocery in this section for some time and it is believed that Kinnaird & Kinsey will do a nice business.

Misses Hawley in New Store

Misses J. & L. Hawley, who have been occupying the old Knapp building, have moved into their new store in the Otten block and are now showing their fall styles of millinery there. Their new apartments give them a much more convenient location and larger and better quarters for conducting their business. The show room in front has new fixtures is well lighted and now contains a display of wonderful and gorgeous styles of ladies' headwear that will be the vogue this fall and winter.

Kindergarten Sept. 26

Owing to an illness the reorganization of the Hood River kindergarten has been delayed. The opening date however, has been set for September 26th, when Miss Stiekney will be ready to receive the little pupils.

Don't let the rabbits eat your trees. Buy your tree protectors at Whitehead's.

For Sale—A one-horse power electric motor, almost new. Enquire at News office.

"Can be depended upon," is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

Republicans four years ago were led to believe that by their vote they were electing to office a flat salary candidate for state printer. After nearly four years' experience they are told by Mr. Dunway that he only pledged "an economical administration," and now hollers for more of the graft. Give William J. Clarke your primary vote.—Adv.
