BAND AND SHOW CARNIVAL OCT. 12-15

Commencing October 12th, the Hood River Band and the Arnold Shows will open a four days' carnival of fun and frolic. The carnival will commence Wednesday and continue until and including Saturday, October 15th.

Among the many other attractions will be a daily balloon ascension, dog and monkey circus, electrical show and plenty of music.

E. J. Arnold, the veteran showman, asks the News to make this announcement to the people of Hood River.

"The management of this show most emphatically assures the public that every person connected with this organization is obliged to deal justly and courteously with everybody who transacts any business with it or who comes to it as a visitor. At no place, on no occasion, under any circumstances will there be any more tickets sold than there is seating capacity. No hoisterous talk of any kind will be permitted inside, outside or around the premises controlled by the management. Ladies and children can visit this entertainment with our positive assurance that they will be most politely and carefully provided with seats and have every reasonable request granted. Our aim is to give our patrons many times the cost of their admission tickets. Everything connected with this exhibition will be in keeping with the liberal, progressive and advanced ideas that have always been characteristic with E. J. Arnold's enterprises."

Don't let the rabbits eat your trees. Buy your tree protectors at Whiteheads.*

The Misses Pearl Bradley, Adah Mark and Jennie and Grace Edgington left Monday morning for Salem, where they will attend Willamette University.

"Can be depended upon," is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.*
