CHICAGO GETS APPLE PRICES

Frank Wagner, of G. M. H. Wagner & Son, returned to Chicago a few days ago from the Northwest, where he went to look after his firm's boxed apples. He says there are plenty of buyers out there now, and because of this growers are getting stiffer in their views. The Wenatchee crop, Mr. Wagner says, is of the finest quality the Northwest can produce. He arranged for his house to handle on straight commission 150,000 boxes from independent growers and shippers in the valley. This takes the bulk of the crop there, except what is controlled by the association and the Wenatchee Produce Co. In addition to the fine quality, Mr. Wagner says the fruit will be packed high grade. He said he never had so little trouble with his contracts. The house made a good record last year.

The news here from Hood River is that the Spitz have been sold generally at $2 and $2.10 f. o. b., for the fancy stock, equal to $2.60 delivered. Jonathans have been sold at $1.50 and $1.60, and odd varieties at $1.25 and $1.75.—Produce News.

SELLING NEWSPAPERS BY MACHINE IN TWO CITIES

Street cars in St. Louis and Louisville, Ky., are being equipped with automatic newspaper vending machines on "pay as you enter" cars.

The machine, which is the work of fourteen years' experiment, is declared to be the only automatic device that will make change.

It can't be beat, but neither can it beat a customer. When the papers are all sold a sign drops down to so inform the customer. When the change in the box gives out a spur is automatically released, which shoots into the slot so as to prevent the insertion of a nickel.

Enough space is left to allow pennies to be inserted, and the machine goes on distributing newspapers.

One machine for each of four newspapers in St. Louis will be placed in each car.—American Press.

Capt. Smith Was Here

Capt. Dan Morgan Smith, Spanish-American war veteran, ex-assistant corporation counsel of Chicago and distinguished temperance lecturer, whose subject was "Prohibition is Morally Wrong," gave a lecture Monday night at the Commercial Club assembly hall to a large audience. The lecturer spoke in the interest of the Greater Oregon Home Rule Association, which has as its motto, "Settle it now and settle it right." There being two sides to the question the side discussed at the meeting is no criterion when it comes to voting on the question—home rule or temperance.
