Hood River County Official Election Returns

The official election returns confirm the election of the candidates already published in the extra edition of the News issued Thursday, with the exception of the measure in regard to stock running at large in Baldwin and devotes his time at other seaprecinct. Instead of being defeated, the proposition to allow stock to run sons of the year to saving souls, was carried by 96 votes. In Baldwin precinct Geo. Dimmick was elected spoke in St. Louis Nov. 5 for state justice of the peace and L. W. Tomlinson constable. In Falls, Frank Hall wide prohibition. According to a was elected justice of the peace and J. P. Wilder constable. Late returns St. Louis paper Rev. Mr. Sunday show that S. W. Stark carried Crook as well as Hood River county, but who addressed a big audience said: was defeated by the big vote for Bradshaw in Wasco. Home Rule lost in the county by eight votes.

The official count on candidates and the initiative measures in the go to heaven-then what about the saloonkeeper that sold him the stuff to an talle
