The Evolution of Booster Bill

IV.—How Bill Came to Advertise

Bill Blue refused to advertise. Said he, "These measly paper guys will never get my hard-earned cash." AND THEN BILL'S BUSINESS WENT TO SMASH. So very "near" was old Bill Blue He pinched a dollar bill in two. He pinched his trade in two likewise. This opened poor old William's eyes.

He smiled a bit and said: "By gee! I think I've barked up the wrong tree. To cure a business on the blink Prescribe a dose of printer's ink."

Bill saw the "print." "A page," he said. The printer man almost fell dead. Now there is cash in William's till. "THE AD. FOR MINE!" says "Booster Bill."
