U. OF O. GLEE CLUB HERE DECEMBER 19TH

Something new and something doing "all the time" characterizes the University Glee Club program this year. No old and worn out songs, but the latest hits will be given. The Glee Club is singing this year some catchy songs of an unusual nature. Several of the popular intermezzi of the day, such as Amina, Wild Flower and Amo, have been arranged especially for a men's choral club, and the way Oregon's bunch of songsters go at them is enough to stir the sense of rhythm in a stone. The comedy end of the program will be held up by the Suffragette Trio, composed of Messrs. Curtis, Martin and Gelsler, and a "skit" entitled "The Glee Club in Dope Centers," with Tom Burk, Melvin Ogden and Vernon Vawter in the leading roles. In this act are introduced Messrs. Curtis and Gelsler, the "Pretzel Twins," in song and dance, Frazier in solo, and the "Hungry Six," a German Band, which renders several familiar ditties in characteristic German style.

TWO CHINAMEN ON THE GLEE CLUB.
One of the unique features is the presence of two Chinamen, Lal and Ding. Both are American born and residents of Portland, and both have voices of unusual merit. One number of the program will include a solo by Mr. Lal. Mr. Lal is a freshman at the 'Varsity and is taking a course in Chemical Engineering. He will go to China when he finishes the university and engage in the cement business. Mr. Lal is a member of the first tenor section and has unusual ability. Before entering the U. of O. he studied under one of the best vocalists in the country, Mrs. Marie Wigham, of Portland, who is now in Europe. Harry Ding has entered the university to fit himself for engineering work. When he has completed his course he will enter Cornell University. Mr. Ding also expects to go to China later to devote himself to engineering work. Ding sings in the second bass of the club.

PROF. I. M. GLEN SINGS.
Prof. I. M. Glen, the director of the clubs of the university for the past fourteen years, needs no introduction to the music-loving public of this state. His beautiful baritone voice and amiable disposition have won for him a host of admirers, who will hail with delight the announcement that the program includes a solo by him.

The writer heard the club in Portland at the Hellig last Saturday night. The show was good from start to finish. The writer was

MOSIER COMMERCIAL CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Commercial Club held a routine smokers' meeting Monday evening. Nick Johnson was elected president, A. P. Bateham, vice president and Dr. Robinson reelected secretary. The club is doing some fine work in way of advertising, and have also made arrangements to have the streets lighted again, which everyone appreciates.

Mrs. Forbes of Ruthon spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Will Graham.

C. A. Hage of Portland came up by boat Tuesday evening and spent several days visiting friends.

Mrs. A. H. McLane returned Wednesday evening from a short vacation spent in the Rose City.

Mrs. Bert Middleswart and daughter Reta returned Monday morning to their home near Mount Hood.

G. H. Rorden has purchased a fine new team and as he holds the ribbons George has the air of showing people how he will farm on Mount Hope.

E. E. Fraedrick sold his ranch Saturday to Portland parties. The sale was made by Laven Matthews, Mr. Fraedrick and family intend to leave during the week for Chicago. They have made many friends here who wish them well wherever they cast their lot.

The doll bazaar and oyster supper given Saturday evening was largely attended and well patronized. The exact amount was not learned but a large sum was taken in. Mrs. Ralph Duvall received the prize for the best dressed doll, which also brought the highest bid, $7. Leodica Haacke guessed the exact number of nuts in a quart jar and Will Napper won the large box of candy.

OREGON CITY OUTCLASSED HOOD RIVER FOOTBALLISTS

An enthusiastic but not very large crowd attended the football game Sunday at Columbia Park, between the Oregon City and Hood River Heights elevens. The Oregon City boys won the game by a score of 17 to 5. They had the home team outclassed until the latter part of the game, when they made a mistake in their signals and Guy Walker made a clean run for a touchdown, scoring five points. The game was a good, clean one and was enjoyed by the spectators.

The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

Notice to Stockholders of the Farmers Irrigating Company

The annual stockholders meeting of the Farmers Irrigating Company will be held January 7, 1911, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the K. of P. hall, Hood River, Oregon, to elect seven directors to serve one year. There will also be voted on: Shall the company increase the bonds or borrow money to pay for the improvements on the construction; also to vote to amend the by-laws, Article 7, to read: "First Saturday in January" instead of first Saturday in October. By order of Board of Directors.

M. H. NICKELSEN,
Secretary.

CHECK FOR $1250 CONVINCES SPROAT

The most convincing evidence that he had won the sweepstakes and first prize on the car of Spitzburgs was received Saturday by C. H. Sproat when the mail brought him a check for $1250 from the National Apple Show.

It is stated that the amount left Mr. Sproat from the prize money will be comparatively small after all the expenses in connection with transporting and displaying the fruit are paid. The freight on the fruit to Spokane alone was over 26 cents a box or more than half it costs to send boxed apples to New York city. It is stated that the Wenatchee and Yakima displays were taken to the show by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern free of charge.

FRASER STOCK COMPANY TO OPEN MONROE THEATRE

On Thursday, Dec. 15, the new Monroe Opera House will be opened by The Fraser Stock Company, who have been secured for four nights and a Saturday matinee. The play for the opening night will be the celebrated four-act western comedy-drama, "Lost in the Hills." This is a play of the Golden West. It is something different from the ordinary play. The very unconventionality of the western mining country has a strange fascination for the average American. Here we have a vivid picture of this always interesting phase of American life, the rough but true nature of the western miner, the scheming and fierce struggle for the possession of certain papers which hold a fortune, the true friendship of one western woman for another. All these make "Lost in the Hills" one of the prettiest western plays ever written.

For the three remaining nights the bills will be, "Folks Down East," "The Runaways" and "A Bachelor's Honeymoon." For the Saturday matinee a second performance of "Lost in the Hills" will be given. The interest aroused by the opening of this new opera house, together with the excellence of the performing company, are certain to result in crowded houses, therefore those wishing good seats are advised to reserve them in advance.

Evangelistic Meetings

The Christian and Missionary Alliance will begin a series of evangelistic meetings January 1, 1911, and continue each evening indefinitely, for the purpose of quickening the church and the conversion of the un-saved. Get ready to come and help and be helped. C. E. Perry, Pastor.

O. R. & N. CO. DISTRIBUTING ATTRACTIVE BOOKLET

The O. R. & N. Co. has just issued a little booklet, called "Success in Oregon & Washington," that is deserving of more than passing comment. It is handsomely illustrated and describes the various resources of the two states briefly, but to the point. On the back cover is a view of Hood River orchards, showing Mt. Hood. Inside is a view of an exhibit of apples at a Hood River fair, while scattered through the other pages are industrial scenes in various parts of Oregon and Washington. The booklet is worth while, and worth sending a copy to anyone unacquainted with the Northwest.

A sprained ankle will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. This is due to lack of proper treatment. GETS GOOD POSITION WITH WESTERN UNION

The Western Union management has appointed Fay E. Horton, son-in-law of Mrs. M. Parkins, of this city, general foreman of construction for the second district, including Utah, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia. He is the son of C. B. Horton, formerly general superintendent of the Western Union at Omaha, and will remove his family for residence in his new field of labor. At present he is living at Hood River.

It pays to advertise.
