LILLIAN GERDES WINS PRIZE DOLL CONTEST

The annual doll contest, which has been going on at Cram's store for several weeks, was decided Saturday amid a good deal of excitement, enthusiasm and naturally some disappointment. The fortunate youngster to win the prize doll was Lillian Gerdes, who had tickets to the amount of $2,347.57. Vivian Jones who was second in the contest with $1,938.93, also received a handsome doll. There were many others in the race but were so far behind that they had no chance of winning.

The contest this year developed even more eagerness to win the handsome doll offered by Mr. Cram than last year and tickets were eagerly sought by the little contestants. Grown folks were not far behind in securing tickets for their favorite and before the contest was finally decided it developed into a merry race. The winners were, of course, delighted and the disappointment of the other contestants was soon forgotten next day in the joys that Christmas can only bring to children.

MARRIED

MILLS-COPPER

The merry Christmas bells rang a double meaning to the home of J. W. Copper, for this was the day when two happy hearts were united in holy wedlock. Promptly at the 6 o'clock hour the piano, executed by Miss Cora McOmber, sounded the "Christmas Bells," and two happy young people marched to the altar of matrimony, where Pastor E. McOmber pronounced the mystic words which lawfully made Mark P. Mills and H. Alma Copper husband and wife.

Only a few of the immediate relatives were present to witness the ceremony and to partake of the sumptuous dinner which was served immediately afterward. Mr. and Mrs. Mills took the 9:30 train the same evening for their home in La Grande, Oregon, where Mr. Mills is employed on the engineering force of the O. R. & N. Co. Mrs. Mills is a graduate nurse from the Cottage hospital of this city and has made a host of friends who regret to have her leave our beautiful city for another, but who send with her their richest benedictions.

DIED

HELEN WALTON KAY.

Helen Walton Kay, aged three years and four months, died Saturday morning at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, following an operation that had been performed to remove the cause of a serious ear trouble. Little Helen was the daughter of Murray Kay and Helen Walton Kay, her mother dying a few days after she was born. In addition to her father and stepmother Mrs. Edna Kay, she is survived by her sister Suzanne Kay, her grandmother Mrs. K. S. Walton and her uncle and aunt, W. H. Walton and Miss Amie Walton.

The body was brought to Hood River Saturday and funeral services were held Monday afternoon at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Rev. E. T. Simpson officiating. The pall bearers were Chas. N. Clarke, Ralph Laraway, R. W. Pratt and Geo. Slocum. Interment was in Idlewild cemetery.

Bowling alleys now open. C. A. Richards & Co.

Methodist Church Items

District Superintendent Walton Skipworth will hold the second quarterly conference at the church on Thursday evening of this week.

On Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kaufman, Circle No. 2 of the Ladies' Aid Society will give an up-to-date silver offering muscled entertainment and social. A splendid time is promised.

Saturday evening beginning at 8 o'clock a watch night service will be held at the church. A large attendance is invited and expected.

Next Sunday morning at the regular preaching hour there will be a roll call of the church membership with a short response from each member followed by the communion service.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the newly elected Sunday school officers will be formally installed. A full attendance of the Sunday school is urged at this time and also that pupils be promptly on time.

Something For You

There will be something for every one at the Alliance chapel each evening next week. Nobody will be slighted, the christian, the church member, the hypocrite, the moralist, the rich, the poor, the wise, the foolish and all kinds of sinners will find a hearty welcome. Don't forget the time and place, 7:30 p. m. each evening at the Alliance chapel. C. E. Perry, pastor.

SUPPLICATION.

I SEEK no smile from fortune,
Nor ask release from pain,
And yet I crave high portion
Of life's most golden gain.

THIS is the prayer that rudders
My ship in any sea;
Through shift of hopes and shudders,
God, let me sail on—free!

The Evolution of Booster Bill

VIII.—Organizes a Boosters' Club

When Bill Blue grew a booster bold
He wanted all within the fold,
And so at high and low he went
To join the band of betterment.

Said he: "We'll make this town of ours
The home of fortune, fruits and flowers."
Of Progress it shall be the hub,
We'll organize a BOOSTERS' CLUB.

Very sincerely yours

"We'll make each member sign a pledge
To talk things up and be on edge
From Fortune's cheese to cut a slice
And likewise make this town cut ice."

"Twas done, and now we're racing up
Advancement road to take the cup,
"There's nothing like the creed 'I
WILL'
To make a kill," says "Booster Bill."
