

STARTING FOR EASTERN MARKETS

For the benefit of those of our customers who may want special orders executed we wish to announce that we are leaving Feb. 5th for New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, and other Eastern centers, to make selections for Spring 1911. Any one wishing any item in our line, no matter how trivial it may be, can leave orders at our store up to Saturday 6 p. m. next and same will be faithfully taken care of by Mr. Cram personally. We shall spare no pains to make this Spring season most interesting, in the way of novelties of every kind, and will not return until we have the best values in Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Ready-to-wear Specialties, Fancy Goods, Notion, Etc., to be found in the different manufacturing centres east.

Sincerely yours,

FRANK A. CRAM

Of course we deliver grocery orders anywhere in the city. It makes no difference as to the size of the order either. Our delivery service is for your accommodation and we want you to make use of it.

We don't handle a cheap lot of goods and make a big blow about cheap prices. Our goods are high class and the prices very fair.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even to the length of time it takes to go for a doctor, often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all dealers.

Attorney John McKenzie, of Minneapolis, Minn., who has been spending a month on business in the west, with headquarters at Portland, came to Hood River Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sonnichsen. Mr. McKenzie, who has seen much of the west, expressed himself as more favorably impressed with Hood River and its spirit of progressiveness than with any of the other fruit localities which he has been in. It is not unlikely that Mr. McKenzie will, in time, become imbued with the spirit of the west and will want to move his family to a warmer climate than Minnesota.
