After a long search they found Hartigan and demanded to know what had become of Flynn. He contradicted himself in his replies and, being further questioned by experts in such cases, finally told that while the two lived together at 145 Croker street the house had been infested with rats. Hartigan had bought arsenic with which to poison them. One night Flynn, being ill, arose in the dark for some medicine he had been taking, got hold of the arsenic by mistake and died from taking a Eliison saw Mr. Jinsinger and the large dose. Hartigan, being asked why he had not called in medical assistance for Flynn, gave two reasons for his failure to do so-first. Flynn had died very soon after taking the arsenic; second, Flynn was a miser with £10,000 hoarded. Hartigan, after Flynn's death, secured this money and left the premises in the night.

Building Collapses

While being moved yesterday part of the wooden building formerly occupied by O. P. Dabney collapsed on Cascade avenue and came near wrecking McDonald's store. One of the show windows in the store was smashed completely. Fortunately no one was bort. The building was being moved to the Heights.
