NEWS OF THE HEIGHTS

The Heights is booming. Arthur B. Cooper has built a home on the old ball grounds.

L. Hunt is building a nice residence at 13th and May streets.

Paul Wilkerson is building a house on the old base ball grounds.

Mrs. Kittle Cooper is starting to build a house on the ball grounds.

Chapman & Co. are closing out their stock of dry goods and shoes at cost.

Mr. Stutz, teamster for Taft, has moved into the Hayes place on Taylor street.

Ed Brawley of Shanko was down here to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law.

N. B. Allen, a barber at the Bon Ton, has been sick for the past week, but is recovering.

The heights baseball team was out practicing Sunday. They are a promising bunch of players.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lewis, a 9 1/2 pound girl. Mr. Lewis is a barber at the Bon Ton shop.

The Latter Day Saints have regular services at Chapman's hall. Sunday school at 10 a. m., church at 11. Bible class at 7:30 p. m., church at 8.

S. C. Armstrong of Colfax, Wash., has moved into the Stranahan house on Taylor street. Mr. Armstrong has purchased the place of A. W. Monosmith near the cemetery.

The heights baseball team has been reorganized, but owing to the proposed consolidation of the lower town and heights to strengthen the league team, nothing definite has been done in regard to a schedule or the election of officers. The heights have a bunch of promising material that is certain to develop into a fast team. In the event that independent ball is played by the heights, new suits will be purchased and enough outside talent hired to insure a fast aggregation.

A surprise party was given recently at the home of A. C. Staten in honor of Miss Winnifred Staten. Everyone had a good time and the Teddy bear was great amusement. After lunch had been served the guests went home in high spirits. Among those present were Jeanette Raley, Lura Merriek, Esther Johnson, Irene Raley, Nell Cameron, Winnifred Staten, Florence Stevens, Jewell Taylor, Alberta Staten, Beasle

Staten, Genevieve Bangle, Helen Hargreaves, Elizabeth Carson, Verda Waltz, Edna Johnson, Sadie Stone, Anna Stone, Calvin Evinger, Norman Shrum, Charles Carson, Lucian Carson and Clarence Carnes.

The Hood River Heights Literary Club's program for Feb. 22nd is as follows:

Essay, "An American Woman"—Mrs. Dunne.

Song—Prof. Bucklin's Quartet.

Reading—George Douglas.

Song—Alice Taylor.

Recitation—Albert Cooper.

Violin solo—Mr. Shrum.

Song—Verda Waltz.

Dialogue—Wille Evinger and Chas. Hart.

Reading, "Washington"—Walter McGovern.

Sketch of Washington's Life—Fred Curtis.

Recitation—Clarence Brown.

Recess.

Debate, "Resolved, That the negroes have been treated worse than the Indians." Affirmative—Henry Steel, Clarence Brown and Ed Hunt.

Negative—Mrs. Simonton, Mrs. Carmichael and Wille Evinger.

MOSIER

Mr. Burggraf returned Tuesday, after spending the winter in Portland.

Mr. Wilson, who has been visiting his son, Guy, at this place for several days, returned to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crate, of The Dalles, came down Thursday and visited friends and relatives, Mrs. Crate remaining several days.

Mrs. W. M. Johnson went to Portland Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Smith, who had spent several days here looking after her fruit ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mosler celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary last Thursday by giving a supper to a large number of their friends. The evening was enlivened with music, games, etc., and at a late hour the guests departed, wishing the happy couple many more years of wedded life.
