Parkdale will have an entertainment Wednesday, April 19th. "Our Folks," a drama in three acts, will be presented at McIsaac's hall at Parkdale under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's Society. The cast comprises the best local talent. "Our Folks" was played last week before a crowded house, at the Monroe theater. See critical comment in this issue. Admission 35c.*

Mrs. Ralph McDannold, of Walla Walla, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. S. Handsaker.

O. C. Dean, who has recovered from a serious attack of erysipelas, is able to be out, although still in a very weakened condition.

Christian Science services are held in Reading Room, No. 6, Davidson building, Sunday a* 11 a. m. and Wednesday at 8 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m.*

A new cement walk up a portion of Fourth street, finished last week, is causing pedestrians who have occasion to travel that thoroughfare considerable satisfaction.

On Friday, April 21, at 8 o'clock, an address will be given in the Unitarian church by the Rev. Henry Wilder Foote, of Ann Arbor, Michigan. All are invited to this address.

The city was well ventilated Saturday afternoon, when one of the windiest winds that has visited Hood River for many days struck here and caused things that weren't anchored to move lively.

Harness for Sale—Nearly new light double driving harness at a bargain. J. J. Knapp, Phone 3232-X.*

For Sale—Some good horses and a number of second-hand rigs, cheap. Apply at the Fashion Livery Stable.*

"Our baby cries for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Ransan, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all dealers.*

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Adamson, which died Wednesday, April 5th, was buried Thursday in Idlewild cemetery.

Fred Lockley, of the Pacific Monthly, was here Friday in connection with his publication. Mr. Lockley is still optimistic for the Northwest and predicts great things for it.

David Cooper, who is now living in Portland, was here Saturday visiting friends. The lively old Scotchman has become a baseball enthusiast and is a confirmed roofer for Portland.

E. O. Blanchar, cashier of the First National Bank, left Sunday evening for an extended eastern trip, and will visit a number of the large cities of the middle west and Atlantic coast before returning.

Rev. Nathan Evans was given a very pleasant reception by the graduating nurses at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jackson last Tuesday evening. A large party was present and enjoyed meeting the former pastor of the Methodist church here.

C. M. Carroll, an uncle of Phil Carroll, whose home is at Grand Rapids, Wis., spent the day here Friday, accompanied by his wife and daughter. The party had been stopping in Southern California and came on to Hood River for a day's visit on Mr. Carroll's ranch.

A demonstration of the Cartecar, an auto with a friction drive, attracted a good deal of attention Saturday. To demonstrate its hill-climbing abilities, the driver ran the car up the concrete steps at the depot and down again. The test was made without mishap and was watched by a large crowd of interested spectators.
