DIED

MARTHA WEAVER RIGBY—Mrs. Martha W. Rigby, a highly esteemed resident of Hood River, died Friday at her residence in this city after an extended illness. Funeral services were held Sunday from the Methodist Church, and were largely attended. Burial was in Idlewild Cemetery.

Of Mrs. Rigby's life we print the following interesting obituary prepared by Rev. O. E. McOmber, pastor of the Methodist Church: "Martha Weaver Rigby was born at Pleasant Unity, West Morland Co., Pa., May 26th, 1847. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1877, at the age of 10 years, and has ever since been a devout and useful member of that church. For 31 years she was a teacher in public and high schools, teaching for 18 years in the schools at Latrobe, Pa., and for 8 years was superintendent of the primary department.

"Of a family of ten she is survived by two brothers and three sisters: Prof. James Weaver, of De Pauw University, Greencastle, Ind.; Frank Weaver for the past 25 years connected with the Department of the Interior at Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Carrie Culbertson, of Washington, Pa.; Mrs. Elizabeth Brunner, of Union Station, Pa.; and Mrs. C. S. Smeltzer.

"On May 23, 1901, Miss Weaver was married to Rev. J. W. Rigby, of Hood River, Ore., and for 10 years made him an ideal companion and helpmeet. Not only did she make his home cheerful and beautiful, but entered heartily into the work of ministering, at times filling her husband's appointments. While he was organizing church work at White Salmon, Wash., Mrs. Rigby founded the church at Carson, Wash., and collected the first money for the edifice.

"For ten years she was the head of the W. F. M. S. of her home church, and an active member of the W. C. T. U., and held a Matron's medal from an oratorical contest in that society. She was a member of the Relief Corps of Hood River, and also the organizer and leading factor in the American Woman's League of this city.

"Her life was full of activities and if we had any heart to criticize we would say too full, for in the person of Mrs. Rigby the body was taxed to its fullest power of endurance, until on the 22d day of January, 1911, the warning came in the way of a slight stroke of paralysis. On the morning of April 27 a second stroke came, which was too much for her shattered body, and in less than 24 hours she was given rest from her labors.

"The blessings which result from her life cannot be estimated on earth, and the loss to her friends and societies, which she loved and for which she labored, will be felt more keenly as the days come and go.

BOSTON MAN BUYS OAK GROVE TRACT

The sale last week by G. Y. Edwards & Co. of ten acres in the Oak Grove district to S. M. Richardson, a Boston man, adds another desirable resident to the valley and continues the steady investment of easterners in Hood River property. The tract sold to Mr. Richardson belonged to J. W. Ingalls. The new owner is in possession and will further improve the house and grounds.

Accompanying Mr. Richardson to his new home is Mrs. McCowan, his sister, and her two daughters. Mr. Richardson recently retired from the government service and will now engage in apple raising.

EVERYBODY TO WORK ON CLEAN UP DAY

Friday, May 5th, has been set by the common council and the Woman's Club as clean up day, and it is now time, say the ladies, to get busy.

A good start was made Monday, when the down town streets were swept and garnished for the coming of the Woodmen, but this, we are told by the obdurate knights and knightesses of cleanliness, is not sufficient.

Back yards must be given attention, as well the public boulevards, and those who fail to enter the campaign for a speck and span city early and stay late on Friday, will get the hook.

SEDATE LOOKING HORSE GETS MIGHTY FRISKY

A sedate looking old grey horse that didn't look as if it could run fast enough to keep its blood in circulation, bolted from near Stewart's store Friday and smashed the rear end of a vehicle on Second street.

A plucky woman who was driving the runaway vehicle, in which was seated a little child, courageously hung onto the bridle of the nag and steered it into the side of Sumner's plumbing shop. Except to the damaged wagon, there was no injury.

Apple Blossoms for Brides—To have the bloom of the apple, earth's first fruit, supplant the proverbial orange blossoms for use in weddings, is the ambition of Sam Glasgow, of Spokane. At a recent meeting of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Glasgow offered a resolution asking the chamber to go on record in favor of apple blossoms for May brides.

Furthermore he will offer a prize for the best picture of a wedding in which apple blossoms are used as decorations.

Members of the chamber already interviewed by Mr. Glasgow on the proposal, enthusiastically favor it. As apple blossoms can be secured only in May, the intention is to boom the flower for that one month.

Big Stakes For Race Meet—Big stakes will be offered for the race meet of the Portland Fair and Live Stock Association to be held next September. Approximately $25,000 will be distributed in prizes, according to the plans of the directors, who meet early in May to pass officially upon the program. It has been decided to offer again the $10,000 purse for the 212 trot, which aroused so much interest among horsemen last year. In addition, there will be two new classifications, the 2:08 pace and the 2:08 trot. Dates of the meet are September 4-9.

James Brown died of heart disease at the Gill sanitarium in this place last Friday morning. The deceased was 72 years old and had been troubled with his heart for some time. He was one of the first settlers in the valley, living about two miles beyond Husum, and part of his original holdings are now the Mcracken place.—White Salmon Enterprise.
