Our Valley

Fifteen years ago the greater portion of the beautiful Hood River Valley was a wild tangle of forests and underbrush. Today one rides for miles over the same grounds through lanes of solid bearing orchards. The settler's cabin of a dozen years ago has given place to beautiful country homes where abundance, prosperity and happiness is evident on every hand.

We Have Only Begun

When one realizes the great transformation affected in the past ten years he is in position to understand the future of Our Valley.

What It Means

Hood River will be to Portland what Pasadena is to Los Angeles: the playground where homes will be at a premium and apple lands a wealth producing luxury.

An Opportunity

We have the exclusive handling of some of the best buys in Our Valley. There is a chance for YOU to reap the harvest from the future of the Hood River Valley. Our office is always open and we will be glad to tell you more about Our Valley.
