

IF YOU ARE GOING TO BUY AN AUTOMOBILE, GET A

Carter Car

The Friction Transmission Automobile

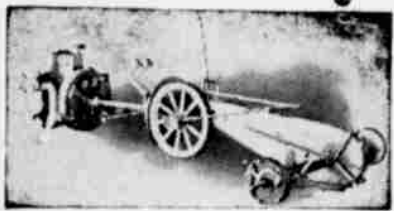

During the past few weeks this car has surprised many by the ease with which it climbs Hood River hills. It is known as the every owner being able to make all necessary repairs without the aid of a machine shop. It's simple control (ONE LEVER) has made it justly popular with lady drivers.

There are no noisy gears to strip and because of this, the cost of maintenance has been reduced to a minimum.

If you want a car of high efficiency and low cost of upkeep just ask for a demonstration and convince yourself.

were as follows:
Hood River League—Castner, H., Morse, 2nd b., Gessling, ss., Meyers, rf., Baker, cf., Tate 3rd b., Kent 1b, Large, c., Lake, p.

Hood River Heights—Hall, c., Cannon, 3rd b., Coontz, ss., Smith, rf., Bucklin, cf., R. Samuels, 2nd b., Mooney, 1b., P. Samuels, lf., Hart, p.

The umpires were Guy Smith and C. C. Lemmon, and the decisions were very good.

In the toss-up the Leaguers won the choice of positions and took the field. The game opened with Hall at the bat, and the Midgets were retired in one, two, three order. In the Leaguers half of the first, excitement was started by Castner getting to first. The hopes of the Downtown boys ran high for a score, but Morse hit a pop fly that landed in Hart's mitt, and turning quickly he doubled Gradpa at second, and there was gloom. Gessling, the next man, was put out at first.

There was nothing doing in the second. In the third, after two men were down, Hart got to first and stole second, but Hall fanned and it was all over. For the Leaguers, Kent, Large and Lake struck out.

The fourth raised interest in the hearts of the Midgets when Carson got a hit, reached first in safety and stole second. He was doomed to anchor there, however, for the next two men went to the tall timber under the expert paw of Lake. For the Veterans, Castner and Morse struck out, Gessling got to first and Meyers ended the music on a long fly.

Sliding to Second

The fifth saw no change in the score for the Heights. In the League boys' half, Baker got to first, Tate sacrificed and Baker got to third. Kent cracked a hot one and attempted to get to second on the error, but in the mixup that followed, Baker was thrown out at the home plate and Kent died at second.

In the sixth there was nothing

Leaguer Celebrating After Ninth

doing for either side, the silence being undisturbed except by the thud of the ball in the catcher's mitt and the dismal voice of the umpire announcing "striker out."

The same performance took place in the first half of the seventh for the Midgets. In the Leaguers' half, however, Christie's Pets met their Waterloo. Morse hit safely, getting to first. Gess then stepped to the plate and rapped out a two bagger, putting Morse on third. Meyers hit a long foul fly to right garden, and on the throw-in, Morse, after touching the bag, scored the first run. Hart then got a little rattled, hitting Baker with the ball. The latter went to first and Gessling got to third. Tate struck out, but Baker got to second. Gessling attempted to come home on a short scratch by Large and was put out at the home plate. Baker got to third sack and scored on a wild pitch. Lake was then put out at first and the inning was over and the game won. In the eighth and ninth Hart again settled down to business, the pitcher's battle was resumed and the game played out in a swirl of dust and a patter of rain drops.

The contest was a crackjack, and the Downtown bunch have the credit of having won it by superior play. The work of Lake and Large as a battery was faultless, the little Portland man especially doing himself proud.

gotiations to a successful issue. The proposition is also meeting with the unqualified support of the people, who believe that the solution offered is a fair one, and who are expressing themselves as willing and anxious to support the movement and vote the money necessary to take over the plant, and make way for a new system.

MARRIED

McEWEN—GOFF

A fashionable function in Portland Thursday was the wedding of Miss Laura Adele Goff, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Goff, formerly of Hood River, and Ralph Buell McEwen.

The affair took place at the First Presbyterian church at 9 p. m., and the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Griswold, pastor of the church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a large gathering of the friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony. C. F. Courson, the noted organist, played the wedding march. Miss Goff was attended by Miss Frances Nelson, of Albany, as maid of honor. Her bridesmaids were: Miss Kate Lee, of Seattle; Miss Frances Oberteuffer, Miss Lucile Smith, and Miss Vera Baker, of Portland. The flower girls were Jessica McEwen, of Athena, Ore., and Medor Steele. Arthur VanDusen, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Louis A. Henderson, of Hood River; Orville Goss, of Berkeley; Oscar Terry Beck and C. N. McArthur. Others who took part in the ceremony were Miss Edna Zimmerman, of Pendleton, and S. N. Steele, of Portland, who sang.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Laurelhurst, where a large number of the student friends of Mr. and Mrs. McEwen gathered and serenaded them with college songs. Mrs. McEwen was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable gifts.

After remaining at the Portland Hotel Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. McEwen left for their home in Eastern Oregon, passing through Hood River Friday morning. In addition to Louis Henderson, Phillip Carrol, of this city, was one of the guests present at the ceremony. Miss Goff and Mr. McEwen were classmates at the University of Oregon, where Miss Goff was a member of the Kapp Alpha Theta Sorority, Mr. McEwen, of Sigma Nu.

LATHROP-ORR

In the presence of a large number of guests Albert Edwin Lathrop and Miss Fay Knott Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Orr were married at the home of the latter's parents Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Gilmore, formerly pastor of Riverside Congregational Church. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The wedding procession was headed by the J. U. G. girls of which organization the bride was a popular member. As the latter passed down the stairs they were met at the foot by Miss Helen Orr, sister of the bride, and Miss Mina Crayton of Rushville, Indiana, her cousin, and each young lady was given a loop of white ribbon and an aisle formed for the bridal party, which consisted of the bride and groom, Miss Elder of Forest Grove as bridesmaid and Mr. Elwood Minchin of Portland as groomsman. The party then proceeded to the parlor to a wedding march played by Miss Midge Otis of this city.

Before the ceremony Miss Edith Andrews sang a solo and at its close Mrs. C. H. Sletton sang the benediction and later rendered "I Love You Truly."

After congratulations an elegant luncheon was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop left for a wedding trip.

The bride, who is one of Hood River's best known and highly esteemed younger girls was the recipient of many valuable and beautiful gifts. The groom is a member of the well known dry goods firm of Morlan & Lathrop and is one of Hood River's most enterprising and successful younger business men.

Out of town guests who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Baumgartner of Portland, Frank Orr of Idaho, relatives of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Van Dellen of The Dalles, Miss Gladys Hartley also came up from Portland to be present at the wedding.
