

WANTS TO MARRY A SASKATCHEWAN GIRL

A spley little story comes to us from the Yorkton Times published at Saskatchewan, Canada. The story will interest Hood River girls particularly as the writer claims they are not attractive enough to interest him. It says:

Mr. M. B. Appleton the local fruit dealer in unpacking a crate of strawberries the other day from Hood River, Oregon, found the following self-explanatory missive from some love-sick swain:

Hood River, Ore.
"I am 20 years old, black hair. I graduated from college in Maine.

All of the Hood River girls are trying to make a mash but I would prefer a girl about 5 foot, black hair, very pretty, white teeth, an elegant shape, write soon."

Mr. George M. Warden, Hood River, Oregon, R. F. D. No. 2 Box No. 24
Evidently George has got the matrimonial bug bad. We fear George, however, is rather stretching it when he says he is a college grad, as his spelling would indicate it is a far call from a Maine College to Oregon strawberry fields. This is a good chance for Yorkton girls who can fill the necessary qualifications and incidentally put one over on the Hood River girls who are endeavoring to capture the fair George.

The Times is publishing George's little ad free of charge and will be pleased to put any eligible young Yorkton ladies in communication with the dapper young Oregonian.

White Salmon Beats Us

The editor of the White Salmon Enterprise remarks:

The two big things in Hood River the past week were Thomas Lawson and an apple that went to Jerusalem. They have as beat on the financier, but the writer had a half box of apples that went where printers never go.

Happiest Girl in Lincoln.

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and got better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." MOSIER OPERATOR IN SERIOUS TROUBLE

F. R. Wheaton, formerly a telegraph operator at Mosier, was arrested Thursday by Sheriff Chrisman and taken to the Dalles.

Wheaton was charged with receiving and selling stolen goods at Mosier. A charge was also made against him of sending obscene literature through the mails.

Wheaton, who is a telegraph operator went to Mosier to act as substitute for the regular operator there who went away on a vacation. It is said that a short time after his arrival he commenced to receive clothing and other articles which he disposed of to residents of that place, and which it is claimed were received from another operator named L. F. Short, who has been living at Canby but who has since been arrested and is now in jail at Oregon City.

After completing his duties at Mosier, Wheaton went to Wyeth and the arrest took place there.

The obscene letters referred to were found on the person of Short who had received them from Wheaton, and form the basis of the charge which has been brought against him in the federal court, and which he will be compelled to answer to first. Afterward, a charge of receiving and disposing of stolen goods will be brought against him in the state courts.

Deputy United States Marshal Hammond went to The Dalles Friday and took Wheaton to Portland, where he will be held for trial. The evidence against Wheaton was secured by Ed Woods, detective for the O.-W. R. & N. Co.
