NINETY-FIVE CARS BERRIES SHIPPED

The strawberry season for 1911 has come to a close and approximately 95 carloads of berries have been shipped out of Hood River. The yield this season is a slight increase over that of last year, due to the fact that more berries have been planted in the young orchards. The demand for fruit was good throughout the season. Most of the Hood River berries found their market in the Middle West states.

DIED

JOHN L. COOPER
 John L. Cooper died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Beal, 1404 Elm street, The Dalles, July 10, after an illness of 10 days, brought on by old age and general debility. The deceased was 88 years and three months old. He was born at New Pitloigo, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, April 5, 1823. Mr. Cooper came to the United States in 1873 and resided in Douglas county, Ore.; moving to Wasco county about a year later. He resided on a farm in the Dry Hollow section until about a year and a half ago, when he took up his residence with his daughter. His wife, Mrs. Margaret Cooper died January 2, 1910.

Mr. Cooper is survived by his daughter Mrs. Beal, and her husband, two brothers, Robert, of Dry Hollow, and David, of Portland, and a sister, Mrs. George Perkins, of the Hood River Valley, besides a number of nephews and nieces. He was followed to his last resting place by a large number of sorrowing friends. Funeral services were conducted at the United Brethren church by the Rev. C. W. Corman.

MODERN CHEMISTRY.

Prediction of a Scientist and Its Remarkable Verification.
 When a mathematical astronomer in Paris gave a Berlin observatory a search warrant for a new planet and, turning his telescope as directed, the Berlin observer found the previously unknown planet all the world wondered. Equally remarkable have been a prediction and its verification in the history of modern chemistry. Grading the known elements of nature according to the weight of their respective atoms, it was observed that the elements, some seventy or more in number, formed a scale marked by periodicity like the scale in music. This periodic law in the hand of genius became an instrument of research. It was in 1871 that Mendeleef, the Russian chemist, in forming the scale of elements, found it necessary to leave three spaces vacant for undiscovered elements to make his table true.

Neither did he hesitate to predict the properties which these elements should possess when discovered. It was as if an astrologer should inform you that you would meet some time in your life three men and that with the utmost particularity he told you their respective physical weights, the color of their hair, the size of hat, shoe and glove worn by each and, in a word, all the habits of mind and body sufficient to discriminate them positively from all other men. Not only was the prediction literally fulfilled, but Mendeleef had the unexpected pleasure to see the verification in his day, for out of the night of the unknown one after another came the predicted elements into the clear sunlight of science and were instantly recognized.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

KING OF WHISTLERS WHISTLES FOR SHOES

Excitement ran high last week in the small boy world, when the King of Whistlers appeared at the Paris Fair and warbled the virtues of Security School Shoes into their hearts.

Clad in a scarlet suit, cut full dress, and flaming red top hat, this whistler had the famous whistling coon faded to a whisper. Before night dozens of youngsters, who had been presented with Security School whistles, were making the town resound with their shrill notes.

DECIDING GAME TO BE PLAYED SUNDAY

The deciding game of the baseball series will be played at Columbia Park next Sunday between the League and Heights teams, and is expected to be the hardest fought yet played.

Both sides are marshalling their forces for the struggle and the rivalry that exists it is believed will result in a fine contest. Each of the teams now has two games and Sunday's contest will decide the championship of the county.

Educational.

"Do they teach domestic science at your college?" inquired the visitor of the freshman.

"Only sewing," replied the freshman.

"Good idea," said the visitor. "And what do you sew chiefly?"

"Wid outs," replied the freshman.—Harper's Weekly.

Took It to Heart.

"Didn't you hear all of the professor's lecture?"

"Why, no. He began by saying that sleep is the secret of right living, and then I came home and went to bed."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Terminological Inexactitude.

It is what might be called a "terminological inexactitude" to say that a man is "inclined to be bald." As a rule, to become bald is absolutely against a man's inclinations.

Home Training.

Mother—Robert, come here to me instantly. Robert—Aw, shut up! Mother—Robert, how dare you talk to me like that? Say, "Mamma, be quiet."—Puck.

They are slaves who dare not be in the right with two or three.—Lowell.

Poor.

Mrs. Highupp—How was the new rector's sermon?

Mrs. Blase—Very disappointing. He was going to talk on "Revelations," and all the scandals he had to offer were about cities and people dead and gone centuries ago.—Puck.

Minute Life of the Sea.

The sea is crowded with life. So minute are the forms that nets of hardly greater coarseness than a silk pocket handkerchief are used, it having been found that what were formerly considered to be fine nets caught less than 2 per cent of the actual life in the water through which they were taken. The surface growth—plankton it is called—consists of plants and animals, and these require food just as any other plants or animals do. "The surface of the sea is a great floating meadow," said Sir John Murray, "and there is more vegetable matter in it, including to the depth of 100 fathoms, than on any meadow or forest track on land."

A Trying Moment.

What is the most trying position in which an actress was ever put on the stage? Mrs. E. W. Ward in her "Reminiscences" tells of a predicament of Mme. Vestris, while playing the principal role in an opera, which will take some heating. "Owing to the vehemence of her acting Mme. Vestris' false teeth suddenly became loose. With sly movements of her tapering fingers the famous singer endeavored to coax them back; but, finding it was of no avail and perceiving there was no other alternative, she suddenly turned her back on the audience, and, taking the plate right out of her mouth, carefully readjusted it. Then she finished her song."
