

SAY FRIENDS, ARE YOUR FEET "IN BAD"

The Florsheim
Flexsole

IF your feet burn, ache, or are tender, you need a FLORSHIEM Flexible Sole. Absolute foot-comfort for the tender foot. Step in—we will show you.

Men's Shoes $2.00 to $6.00
Ladies' Shoes $1.50 to $5.00

Grover's Soft Soles for Tender Feet
Every pair absolutely right. A record of forty-five years, known throughout the land
Price = = = $2 to $3.50

Let us put them "in right"

If you have not been getting comfort, service and style in your shoes---"that's bad."
If you have corns, bunions or tender feet---that's wrong. If we shoe you, you'll get service---"that's right." Your feet will do their duty better in "natural shape" shoes. Economy is not furthered by wearing imperfectly fitting shoes. It costs no more to get a comfortable "fit" than an uncomfortable "misfit."

BOYS, HOW ARE YOUR SUITS?

Bring that strawberry money here and let us show you what an elegant outfit you can buy and how very reasonably besides, knowing you are seeing only new, reliable, up-to-date things

ALL OUR SUITS REDUCED

CLOTHING AND SHOES
BIG REDUCTION

FRANK A. CRAM

SUMMER GOODS
ALL REDUCED

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Seabee, July 21st, a boy.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Claude Copple, July 20th, a girl.

John Franz, of The Dalles, was here Monday visiting friends.

Mrs. Edith Copple, of Portland, is spending a week's vacation here with her parents.

A. M. Kelsay, formerly of Hood River, and father of Mrs. Geo. Slocum, is here on a visit.

Attorney Seneca Fouts, of Portland, spent the day here Friday on a social and business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Putnam returned Friday from several days' visit at the Seattle Potlatch.

G. R. Laurie, a recent comer at Underwood, will erect a $10,000 house of the bungalow type, near the narrows of the White Salmon river.

A party of the valley people at the Inn over Sunday included Messrs. Peters, Pooley, Atwater, and Mrs. Pooley, Miss Morrison and Miss Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson, of Parkdale, were at Stevenson last week, as the guests of E. C. Hamilton. Mr. Thompson, while at Stevenson, inspected the country with a view to investing.

Dr. W. S. Manners and wife, of Hood, Wash., have as their guest their daughter of Newark, N. J. Dr. Manners, who owns a ranch at Hood is connected with one of the big New York life insurance companies.

Mrs. R. R. Hoge and Miss Hoge had as their guests over Sunday at Yarrow, their country home at Oak Grove, Miss Helen Mason, of Spokane, Miss Marjorie Forbis, of Portland, and Miss Margaret Mahr, of Butte, Mont.

An evening of music in its best sense was enjoyed by a number of guests at the Hotel Oregon Friday evening. The numbers were given by Miss Marian Kimball, recently of Boston, now here for the summer, Mrs. J. R. Shelton and Chas. E. Hicks, the latter formerly editor and owner of a newspaper at Independence, Oregon.

Attorney C. A. Bell, of Portland, spent Friday here on a professional visit.

Mrs. Marlon MacInae had as her guest Friday Miss Thomas, of Salt Lake City.

The "Old Mill" quartette serenaded the editor of the News at his place of business Thursday night. It was impossible to escape, we had to take it.

Wenatchee is in the same boat as Hood River on the short water proposition. Its city authorities have issued orders allowing sprinkling only at night.

Mrs. Geo. I. Sargent, who has been in Portland since the death of her brother-in-law, R. B. Lambson, who was accidentally killed several weeks ago, returned to her home here Friday.

The Social Dancing Club entertained a goodly sized party at its dance Wednesday evening. The music, which was furnished by a local orchestra was very good and the dancers enjoyed the evening hugely.

Blowers Bros. are getting in line for the fall trade in vehicles and hardware, and expect to show a superior line in these articles. Among other stock they are receiving a consignment of Mitchell wagons, one of the best makes to be had.

The Sprout building, in course of erection as an addition to the store of E. A. Franz, is rapidly nearing completion on the exterior. The front of the second story will be entirely of plate glass and will be used for displaying carpets, furniture and rugs.

Yes, Pifer has the marvelous new phonograph and only indestructible records, that are the sensation of the phonograph world in the east. These indestructible cylinder records can be used on any cylinder machine.

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by all dealers.

Dad Fouts was a Hood River visitor on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Barnes, of Prineville, is visiting at the home of Mrs. C. D. Nickelsen.

Miss Vivian Hinkle, of Prineville, Oregon, is visiting Miss Viola Nickelsen of this city.

S. W. Arnold returned home Wednesday from Newport, where he had been enjoying a few days on the beach.

Miss Helen Mulford, of Mt. Hood, left last week for Seattle, Wash., where she intends visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Doly of that city.

Owing to the inclement weather last Friday evening, the ice cream social given by the Endeavorers did not pan out as well as was expected.

Bishop Smith, of Portland, and District Superintendent Skpworth were in the city last week conducting a meeting of the M. E. official board.

Mrs. C. L. Morse is on an extended visit to relatives in Nebraska and Kansas. She expects to be absent about four months and will return by way of California.

Miss Gladys Davis, who left Hood River for her home in Portland recently, returned to Hood River last week. Miss Davis was accompanied by her mother and several friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald were here visiting their parents, Mr. Mrs. F. E. Jackson, last week. Mr. McDonald returned to his home in Portland Thursday but Mrs. McDonald will continue her visit for a short time.

Mrs. A. G. Tate, of Portland, was here a day or two last week getting subscriptions to a supplemental edition of "Views of Oregon". The views for the coming issue will be largely confined to the Columbia river and district, and on this account should be of more than usual interest locally. C. E. S. Wood has been mentioned as a possible writer of the descriptive matter.

The greatest enemy of childhood is the tape worm. It destroys health and undermines the constitution. The greatest enemy of intestinal worms is WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It removes the worms and helps the child back to strength, vigor and cheerfulness. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by Chas. A. Clarke.

For Sale—Some good horses and a number of second-hand rigs, cheap. Apply at the Fashion Livery Stable.

A. W. Norton, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Copple, was here Monday from Portland, where he is now making his home.

Joe Wilson returned from a trip through Yellowstone Park, in company with his son and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Kinports, Friday.

A fire in a patch of grass in the west end of town caused considerable excitement Thursday. The alarm caused many to hike hurriedly to the scene. The conflagration, however, was easily extinguished by the fire department.

Notwithstanding the severe and protracted hot spell very little damage is reported by apples being sunburned. The injury is said to be much less than last year, a fact that is accounted for by the fruit being smaller and less mature.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mahaffey, of Cherry Tree, Pa., related by marriage to Joe Wilson, arrived here Saturday, after having been visitors at the Seattle Potlatch. Mrs. Mahaffey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Kinports, who were recently here.

W. P. Stromberg, connected with the Portland Evening Telegram, was here Sunday as the guest of Attorney Seneca Fouts. Mr. Stromberg, who had never visited the valley before, was taken around the loop, and came back saying that Hood River certainly had the goods. He came to Hood River from Seattle where he had been representing the Telegram at the Potlatch.

Regular Sunday excursion to Parkdale. Pleasant trip for yourself and friends.

Good Health Bread put up in a sanitary wrapper before leaving the bakery. Save the coupons. For sale at Parkers.

Get your butter, guaranteed fresh eggs, cream and milk from Purity Dairy Co. Phone 68-L. Depot-Davidson Building.

We pay highest cash price for over ripe and cull strawberries. Crocker & de Reding, Fourth street, between Oak and State. Phone 227-M.

Call up C. A. Richards & Co., phone 64, for some of that delicious Hazelwood Ice Cream. We deliver any quantity, from 1 qt. up, free of charge.

Sprains require careful treatment. Keep quiet and apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely. It will remove the soreness and quickly restore the parts to a healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.

The foundation of the Congregational Church is gradually appearing above ground. Apparently there will be as much of the church below ground as above.

Chas. E. Hicks, who has been here for some time, and recently bought six acres of the Shear place on the west side, left Saturday for Independence, his former home.

Mrs. F. W. Colt, Mrs. Ella Cole, Miss F. H. Holbrook and A. S. Hall, instructors in the Chicago schools, were here Friday on their way to Orelty to visit, as possible investors.

Our choir leader is trying to organize a chorus choir for the summer evenings, or as long as the forum continues. At present the leader, W. E. Candler, is on an outing at Lost Lake with his brother and B. L. Murphy.

Frank Egan, of White Salmon, who has the agency for the Pary automobile, for Kilekita county, was here Saturday to receive a shipment of cars. Mr. Egan has sold several machines in the White Salmon district.

Oil burners were put on the Mt. Hood Railroad last week and are said to be working satisfactorily by the management. It is claimed that the engines can be operated more economically with oil than with wood, and much more conveniently.

The best yet. Hazelwood Ice Cream, bulk or in bricks. Call 64, C. A. Richards & Co.

Try a loaf of Good Health Bread at Parker's. "It's good to the last crumb." Save the coupons.

For Sale—A fine lot of hay in the Mt. Hood district. Near Mt. Hood Post Office. Phone, Odell 38 or 2002-x.

If you want to be comfortable burn coal. We are prepared to furnish it in any quantity. Plenty on hand and more coming. We handle the best quality of Wyoming coal. Transfer & Livery Company. Phone 5.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

I will make and hang your window screens at the following prices: Half screens, 90c each; full screens, $1.30 each. Prices on screen doors and porches on application. I will be glad to do your repairing or work of any class. Estimates furnished on all work if desired. Phone 306-X. Wright's Carpenter Shop.

J. M. Wood, secretary of the Hood River Merchants' Association, last week attended the big picnic of the State Merchants' Association at the seashore.

Mrs. D. J. Cooper, of The Dalles, is in the upper Hood River valley, near the Mt. Hood postoffice, where she will spend several weeks visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Judd S. Fish.

C. L. Rogers, of Hood River, Portland, Canby, etc., is here for a few days. Mr. Rogers has rented his home in Portland, and will later sojourn at the seashore for the rest of the season.

The Bon Ton barber shop has recently put in five of the latest pneumatic lift chairs, and entirely refurbished its wbskr removing emporium. The only trouble with the new chairs, it is said, is that patrons become so strongly disposed to stay in them that they have to be ejected.

The Morrison building, permission to remodel which was recently granted by the council, is now being made two stories high. The front is being squared out and will be covered with steel sheets in imitation of brick. When finished its appearance will be greatly improved and also the street it is located on.

Endeavor was well attended Sunday evening. The topic, "Lessons From Animals," was one from which we could all glean something, and the leader, Beatrice Boyce, had a most interesting meeting. This is her maiden attempt, by the way, and she did exceptionally well. We are just a handful, but we're pretty much alive.

A baseball game is coming off soon between the Live Wires and the Loyal Sons, that is, if the Live Wires don't get cold feet. We've got them pretty badly buffaloed already. They have gotten the bug some way or other that they are quite an athletic bunch. Why, the teacher even said he'd don the gloves and go a few fast rounds with any five of us. Out of pity for them we accepted the challenge, but will only put up three "men."

Right in your busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Culbertson left Tuesday for a two weeks stay at the beach.

R. M. Rosensteel, formerly editor of the Newberg Enterprise, is a guest at the home of H. R. Redom, at Odell.

Rev. Parsons will preach at the Columbia school house next Sunday at 8 p. m. Some special numbers of music will be rendered.

Sunday School will be held at 10 a. m. at the Grace E. B. church; the sermon at 11 o'clock. The subject of the sermon will be "Is the Gospel making good?"

Ex-Congressman, W. R. Ellis, of Pendleton, was a visitor at Hood River Monday. Mr. Ellis stopped off here for a look at the valley on his way to Portland.

Rev. W. E. Thompson, of Spokane, will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Mr. Thompson is the Columbia River Conference Sunday School missionary, and a very able and interesting speaker.

Miss Elsie Wolgamuth, of Brownsville is a guest at the home of Mrs. Melvin Woodburn. Mrs. Woodburn also entertained the Misses Myrtle and Mabel Meadows, of Portland over Sunday.

H. H. Ward, manager of the Pacific Northwest branch of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, was here Sunday accompanied by Mr. Johnson, vice president of the company. The gentlemen were here with a view to making investments in improved orchard lands.

Try a Sunday at Parkdale Park. Special rates on Mount Hood Railroad.

Good Health Bread—white, whole wheat and graham—home made, you will like it. Save the coupons. Sold by Parker's.

Have you heard the latest New York hits on the phonograph? Concerts daily at Pifer's Book Store.

No dirt or germs—Good Health Bread—A sanitary wrapper. Save the coupons. For sale at Parkers.

For Sale—A fine lot of hay in the Mt. Hood district. Near Mt. Hood Post Office. Phone, Odell 38 or 2002-x.

LOST
Between Hood River and Odell, on west side, one lady's coat of tan serge with braided collar. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward.