HEIGHTS BASEBALL TEAM
CLOSES SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The Hood River Heights Baseball team, which is about to close its schedule of games, has had a successful season under the management of Geo. P. Christy. In addition to paying for their suits and taking care of other expenses, about $30 apiece will be divided among the players. With the exception of the games lost to the League team, the Heights has won every game it has played this year, and has also demonstrated that a baseball team here can be successful financially.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Annette Emstrum, who spent the winter and spring in California, arrived here Monday and will make an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Work of excavating for the new Bell building was started Tuesday morning. It is expected to hurry the excavating along as fast as possible so as to get the brick work started.

Rev. T. J. Hazelton, a well known Portland divine, delivered a very interesting and eloquent address at Grace U. B. Church Sunday evening on the needs of a rescue home and its work in the state.

Valley Christian Church Notes
Next Sunday evening Mr. Wilmar, a lawyer of Hood River, will speak at the forum.

The teacher of the Live Wires wants a full attendance of the class next Sunday morning. He is going to vary the monotony somewhat and hold the session of the class at eleven o'clock instead of ten, the regular hour.

Those who stayed away from the concert last Wednesday night because they thought they could hear something just as good at the forum were not disappointed. Both Mrs. Armstrong's singing and Roy Cornell's cornet solo were received with a cataclysm of applause.

The Loyal Sons were victorious Saturday by a score of 9 to 0. Some thing was wrong with the Live Wire generator, for only one Live Wire showed up. We're afraid to say what we think of them—they could have us arrested. Putting it mildly they're a glorious bunch of pikers. The banquet that we are going to get, maybe, may somewhat appease our wrath.

If you want to secure a good seat at the forum now being held at the church every Sunday evening, come early, for the speakers face a crowded house every evening. Furthermore, if you are at all timid don't come at all, for the singing last Sunday evening rose in such mighty volume as to shake the house. Prof. Rodwell spoke for over an hour on his observations during his sojourn in the Philippines. His talk was probably the most instructive ever given in the church, that is outside of the regular lecture courses. LOYAL SON.
