LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Tucker, Sunday, August 6, a boy.

H. W. Powell and Miss Effie Powell came up from Portland Sunday to spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Clara B. Wright, of Provo, Utah, sister of Mrs. R. T. Newhall, is the latter's house guest. Mrs. Newhall also recently entertained Miss Mollie Case, of Provo.

Mrs. C. A. Bell's sister, after a few days' visit with the former, returned to Portland Saturday, accompanied by her daughter, who had been spending the summer with Mrs. Bell.

Trout Lake was the meeting place of a number of Hood River guests Sunday, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bone, Truman Butler and E. J. Young.

The Hood River Baptist church is noted among those who have contributed to the assistance of Little Teddy, the half blind walf at the Portland Baby Home, whose aid and plight has attracted widespread attention and interest.

A well known Des Moines woman after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all dealers.

I will make and hang your window screens at the following prices: Half screens, 90c each; full screens, $1.30 each. Prices on screen doors and porches on application. I will be glad to do your repairing or work of any class. Estimates furnished on all work if desired. Phone 306-X. Wright's Carpenter Shop.

Stepping on a rusty nail has been the cause of many cases of lockjaw. The nail was not so much the fault as neglect of the wound. If such wounds were promptly cleansed and Ballard's Snow Liniment applied, there would be no lockjaw, as the antiseptic properties of the liniment would counteract the poison and the wound would heal quickly. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

Judge Moreland, of Portland, has been spending several days on his place in the valley.

Floyd Arnold, of the Butler Bank, is taking a two weeks' vacation at Winlock, Wash., and Victoria, B. C.

E. A. Franz, who has been on an extended eastern trip buying furniture for the new department of his large establishment, returned home Sunday. While away Mr. Franz visited at his old home in New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Castner went to Portland Friday, where they took one of Mr. Davidson's motor cars and took a 200 mile drive through the Willamette Valley. The objective point of the party was Lebanon, where the Davidson Fruit Company owns a 300 acre farm.

Kelly Bros., have bought the feed, hay and poultry supply end of the business conducted by A. Whitehead. Mr. Whitehead, who was forced to abandon this end of the business for lack of storage, being refused permission by the council to erect a frame building on the Davidson lot. Mr. Whitehead will continue to handle fruits and farm produce.

A promoter for a large tract of land at Medford caused many loyal Hood Riverites considerable ire last week by exhibiting a large picture of that district on the streets here, and buttonholing prospective land buyers.

J. R. Shelton, who has been on a two months' trip through the middle west, and who stopped for some time at his former home at Grand Rapids, Mich., returned Saturday. Mr. Shelton, like most people who have resided at Hood River for a time, returned better pleased with the country and climate than ever before.

Chas. Greisen, for several years assistant business manager and associate editor of Better Fruit, has severed his connection with that publication, and will go to Watsonville, California, to engage in business. Mr. Greisen has been a valuable member of the Better Fruit force and also one of the most loyal boosters of the Hood River country who has ever resided here. It is understood that he is making the change partly on account of the health of Mrs. Greisen, who has been advised to seek a more southern climate.

Big and genial Charley Merrick, postmaster of the city of Portland, was here Saturday for a short time, waiting for the train to Portland. Mr. Merrick, accompanied by his wife, had been a Cloud Cap Inn guest for several days. While here he called upon a number of friends, many of whom he became acquainted with when he was secretary of the State Merchants' Association. Mr. Merrick is proving to be an admirable postmaster of Oregon's metropolis and is giving the residents of that city the best postal service they have ever received. He is now urging the department to give Portland business men five deliveries a day in the business district. Mr. Merrick always has a good word to say for Hood River, and says it is a model of enterprise for the rest of the country towns in Oregon.
