Sunday Observance

Nobody objects to a quiet and orderly Sunday, particularly during the morning hours, when gentle sleep wraps us in its arms and there is no disturbing thought of the week day grind. Setting apart one day in the week as a day of rest was an inspired idea indeed, and we will therefore paraphrase Cadmus in regard to books and remark, "God bless the man who invented Sunday." Seriously speaking, however, we don't believe harmless forms of amusement are wicked on Sunday. Of course, if there are those who do it is their right to think so, and to be as solemn faced about it as possible.

No right thinking person will decry churches or church-going, or the good they do in the world, and it is also probably true that weekly religious meditation is good and wholesome when done voluntarily. Forced attendance at church, however, is of doubtful value, and constraint in religion as in other things leads to an outbreak. As the old saying goes, "stone walls and iron bars do not a prison make." By the same token moral suasion is more efficient than force and likewise more lasting. Sunday may be looked forward to with complacency as a day of duty, but not as one of coercion.

State Publicity Work

California is spending $10,000 per county for advertising; Kansas spends $20,000 per annum. Missouri's legislature appropriated $25,000, and the money not being available for the first year's work, the banks of Kansas City and St. Louis, realizing the importance of the work, subscribed the $25,000. Wyoming has $40,000 per annum to spend for the next two years; Nebraska, which has little to advertise, is talking $25,000 per annum, and Iowa is putting on a campaign to secure $100,000 per annum to tell the truth about the resources of the state and keep people from leaving it.

With these facts before us, it would seem that Oregon, with all the things it has to advertise, should have a fund which would enable us to participate in the enterprises which are increasing our population and wealth, and participate in them without passing the hat to individuals and corporations.

The Opening of Alaska

Those who have the opening of Alaska at heart, are not enthusiastic over the tour that Gifford Pinchot is making to the North. They fear that he will complicate matters, which for a time promised to be solved when President Taft sent Secretary Fisher of the Interior Department to the territory to look things over.

The Controller Bay controversy, which Pinchot is said to have ribbed up, and which former President Roosevelt exploited in the Outlook, fell flat. Hence, it is that Pinchot is said to be going north to look for more "fuel". He has announced his intention to make Alaska one of the big issues before the next Congress. In the meantime, the whole Pacific coast is being deprived of the coal to which it is really entitled.

Pear Shipments Commence

The Applegrowers Union last week shipped its first carload of Bartlett pears. The consignment, which brought the growers returns of $1.25 a box, was for Steinhardt & Kelly, New York.

The Union will handle five more carloads of pears this season, and a number will be shipped by the Davidson Fruit Company. The valley, as a whole, has a good crop of this fruit.

WEST URGES EAST TO SEE AMERICA FIRST

Urging the governors of all the states to help along the "See America First" movement, Governor West has addressed a letter to them, calling their attention to the beauties of the Pacific Northwest and making an urgent appeal to do everything possible to stay the tide of foreign travel and turn it to the Pacific Coast.

Governor West calls attention to the fact that this tendency on the part of Americans is a great economic loss to the country and should be combatted on every possible occasion. He estimates that $3,000,000 is spent abroad every season by Americans that should be used in seeing their own country instead.

The Govenor calls attention to the big convention called for Baltimore January 22-27, 1912, when the "See America First" movement will be discussed and asks that each state send a big delegation.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Frances Oberteuffer to E. R. Moller was formally announced last week at a bachelor dinner given by the Hood River Hunt Club. At the same hour announcement was also made to a number of girl friends at the home of Miss Oberteuffer in Portland. The wedding will take place some time in November.

Stranahan, Correan Stranahan, Ethel Anderson, Roy Anderson, May Mottishaw, Fred Mottishaw, Clinton Mooney, Bessie Mooney, Hope Mooney, a minor; Elmer E. McCray, guardian of Hope Mooney, a minor; George W. Parsons, Marcia L. Parsons, Samuel L. Hayden, Harriet P. Hayden, A. T. King and M. L. King, defendants. — Summons

To Ella May Jones, A. B. Jones, Ethel Anderson, Roy Anderson, May Mottishaw, Fred Mottishaw, Bessie Mooney, Hope Mooney, a minor; George W. Parsons, Marcia L. Parsons and Harriet P. Hayden, defendants, impleaded with the other defendants above named, and each of you;

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you and each of you in this court in the above entitled suit, on or before the last day of six consecutive weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons as hereinafter stated, and if you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof, plaintiffs will apply to this court for the relief demanded in their said complaint, and will take judgment and decree of this court in this suit against you and each of you for the reformation of four certain deeds of conveyance constituting a continuous chain of title, by amending and correcting an erroneous description of land contained in and running down through all of said deeds, so that the same will conform to the real and true intent of the parties thereto and the said description therein read as follows:

Beginning at a point on the quarter-section line running north and south through Section 35 in Township 3, North, Range 10, East of the Willamette Meridian, 12.37 chains north of the quarter-section corner on the south boundary line of said Section 35; thence running south, 89° 08' east, 7.75 chains; thence north, parallel with said quarter section line, 6.28 chains; thence north, 89° 08' west, 7.75 chains to said quarter section line and running thence south along said quarter section line, 6.28 chains to the place of beginning.

Said deeds so sought to be reformed are briefly described as follows:

One deed from Oscar L. Stranahan and Adelia A. Stranahan, husband and wife, to George W. Parsons, dated March 12th, 1904, filed for record with the County Clerk of Wasco County, Oregon, on March 16th, 1904, and recorded by him in Deed Record No. 37 on page 344;

One deed from George W. Parsons and Marcia L. Parsons, husband and wife, to Samuel L. Hayden, dated January 27th, 1905, filed for record with the County Clerk of Wasco County, Oregon, on February 1st, 1905, and recorded by him in Deed Record No. 39 on page 202;

One deed from Samuel L. Hayden and Harriet P. Hayden, husband and wife, to A. T. King and M. L. King, husband and wife, dated March 30th, 1907, filed for record with the County Clerk of Wasco County, Oregon, and by him recorded in Deed Record No. 43 on page 419;

And one deed from A. T. King and M. L. King, husband and wife, to the said George H. Steinhoff and Edith O. Steinhoff, plaintiffs in this suit, dated February 1st, 1908, filed for record with the County Clerk of Wasco County, Oregon, on February 13th, 1908, and recorded by him in Deed Record No. 45 on page 310.

On such default of appearance and answer, plaintiffs will also take judgment and decree against you, and each of you, that those of defendants properly chargeable to that duty be directed and required to make, execute and deliver to these plaintiffs new deeds of the form and substance of the said originals, conveying said land according to such reformed description, within a definitely-named time to be fixed by the court, after the entry of such decree; and in the event that you, or either of you fail, neglect or refuse so to do within the time so fixed by this court, then the judgment and decree of this court shall stand as such conveyances, and you and each of you shall be wholly excluded from any interest in and to said land; and will take such other and further equitable relief as in the judgment of the court these plaintiffs may have shown themselves entitled, together with the costs and disbursements of this suit.

You and each of you are hereby served by publication of this summons by virtue of an order on Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of this court, duly made, granted and dated on this 18th day of July, A. D. 1911, for the service of this summons upon you and each of you by publication thereof and in accordance therewith; and which order prescribed that you and each of you shall appear and answer the complaint on or before the last day of six consecutive weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and the 19th day of July, A. D. 1911, as the date of the first publication of this summons, and you and each of you are hereby further notified that said date is and will be the first publication of this summons.
