KEEPS SURVEYORS AWAY WITH GUN

Henry Thompson, says the White Salmon Enterprise, has had a man with a shotgun guarding his "Cozy Nook" property up the White Salmon river against a party of surveyors for the Northwestern Electric Co., who showed intention of running a line across the place. The surveyors respected the guard. On Monday Thompson was at Stevenson, where the company brought condemnation proceedings, but his lawyer, Rayner St. Rayner, of Portland, had them dismissed because of an irregularity in the petition of the company. So far, Thompson has had little trouble in holding his land, which he probably could not do if the Northwestern could show clearly that it wants the water sites for public service purposes. Thompson says that so far there is no evidence that the company wants the sites along the river for anything but private purposes.

For Sale—A fine lot of hay in the Mt. Hood district. Near Mt. Hood Post Office. Phone, Odell 38 or 2002-x.

BINGEN MAN GATHERS SECOND CROP OF BERRIES

After marketing a good crop of strawberries in their regular season, Tom Quigley, who has a ranch three miles east of Bingen, brought into town on Monday a number of gallons of excellent ripe strawberries which he had just gathered from his plants. From all that we could tell, they looked as good and tasted as good as those picked in May, and here it is the middle of September. If they had been a couple of weeks later, Tom might have sent them to the county and state fairs.—Bingen Observer.

Record Breaking Peaches

Four Elberta peaches picked from the orchard of B. E. Helfer, in the Belmont district, each of them weighing more than a pound, hold the record for Hood River valley. One of the large, well-colored specimens of fruit tipped the scales at 18 ounces. Mr. Helfer states that the tree on which the fruit was grown is seven years old. He has averaged a net return of $7.50 from his trees this year. The peaches, which were on exhibit in the window of W. F. Laraway's jewelry store, attracted wide attention.

GAME WARDEN TO STOP GRAFTING

Hunting or fishing upon receipts furnished by notaries or justices of the peace will not be allowed in the future, according to instructions recently issued by the state board of fish and game commissioners. Deputies all over the state have been told to arrest any hunter or fisherman who fails to show a regular fishing or hunting license in his possession, upon demand. The holder of a receipt will be treated in every way the same as though he had never made application for a license.

"The reason for this action," says State Game Warden Finley, "is plain. Justices of the peace, who have authority to collect for licenses, issue a receipt and mail the money to the county clerk, who, in turn, mails a license to the notary public or justice, to be delivered to the applicant, have failed to do so, pocketing the money and advising the applicant that a receipt is equivalent to a license. To stop this petty grafting, the state will insist that licenses, in the future, will be recognized as the only evidence of a right to hunt or fish."

"We have a fairly complete record of notaries and justices who have retained money belonging to the game fund," said Warden Finley, "and they are located all over the state. These men have actually accepted money for licenses and made no returns of it, nor have they secured licenses for those who have made application. By arresting those holding merely receipts for licenses, we will shortly run down those who have been guilty of this fraud."

One on the Editor

Following is a small boy's essay on editors, which we clip from an exchange:

"I don't know how newspapers came to be in the world. I don't think God does, for he hasn't anything to say about them and editors in the Bible. I think the editor is one of them missing links you read of. He stayed in the bushes until after the flood, and then came out and wrote the thing up, and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever dies. I never saw a dead one and never heard of one getting licked. If the editor makes a mistake people say he ought to be hung; but if a doctor makes any mistakes he buries them and folks don't say anything, because doctors can read and write Latin. When the editor makes a mistake there is a lawsuit and swearing and a big fuss; but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a mile long without anybody knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor goes he gets a charge of buckshot. When the doctor gets drunk it is a case of being overcome by the bent, and if he dies it's from heart trouble; when an editor gets drunk it's a plain case of too much booze and when he dies it's from a cause too disgraceful to speak of. Any old college can make a doctor; an editor has to be born."

Copy for advertisements must be in the office by Monday noon.

Stomach troubles cured. Dr. Sowerby.

LOYAL BEREAN CLASS GIVE STUDENT RECEPTION

About one hundred enjoyed the hospitality of the Loyal Berean Class at the reception to the High School faculty and students at the Christian church last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Goodnough, who is to be heard in a recital at Hood River, played; Mrs. Campbell gave a reading, "The Vision of Sir Launfal," and Miss Reavis and Dr. Sowerby sang.

Mr. Cash, superintendent of the Bible School, in a short talk outlining the "Loyal Movement" in class organization, invited those not otherwise affiliated to meet with the school.

Mrs. Schreuder presided at the "Crystal Well," filling the cup that cheers, but not inebriates," and Harry Cash, as "Master of Stunts," certainly kept things moving.

HOOD RIVER GROWS HUGE CORN AS WELL AS APPLES

C. S. Wheeler, who resides down the state road a mile and a half exhibited an ear of corn in the News office Friday grown on his place, that measured 11 inches. The huge ear is of smoke flint variety. Mr. Wheeler says it was produced in 90 days and that some of the ears were still larger than the one brought to town. The seed was brought to Hood River by Mrs. Wheeler and the yield from it this year would average 60 bushels to the acre.

HOOD RIVER LIGHT PLANT CONNECTED WITH HUSUM

The Pacific Power & Light Co. is rushing its work in Kilekitt county. Manager John C. Naylor estimates the lights will be turned on in Centerville by October 10. A 66,000 volt emergency wire is being laid across the Columbia from Hood River, connected up with The Dalles, and will shortly connect with the Kilekitt plant. It has been promised that the farmers of the Horseshoe Bend will later on be supplied with electricity for power and light.

Husum Opens Apple Packing School

A school for apple packers was opened Monday, Sept. 18, at Wm. Olsen's, at Husum, free to those who sign up and pack for the union. To those who want to learn something about packing, but who do not care to go out as packers, a charge of $7.50 will be made for a week's tuition. The week beginning Sept 25, a similar school will open at the union warehouse at Underwood.

MASSACHUSETTS TO TRY HOOD RIVER PACK

Following out their line of argument that the Eastern states can compete with Western fruit if it is handled in the Western way the Massachusetts Horticultural Society will this week open a packing school. The course will run for six weeks and will be in charge of John B. Castner, who left last week for Boston and expects to arrive there today and open the school.

Growers from all the apple growing districts in the state will have employees present to learn the western method of packing apples and the crop will be marketed there this year for the first time in boxes. It is stated that Western methods will also be taken up next year in New York and Pennsylvania and the choice fruit of these districts placed on the market in fancy packages.
