RULER OF SHRINEDOM TO BE HERE THURSDAY

High jinks will be the order among the Masonic fraternity here Thursday when John Frank Treat Imperial Potentate of the Imperial Council of North American Mystic Shriners will visit the city. Mr. Treat, who has been making a tour of the coast has been elaborately entertained wherever he has appeared and his visit at Hood River will be no exception to the rule. Wherever Shriners abide the high mogul of Shrinedom is gloriously welcome and his name is magic. Primarily Mr. Treat, whose home is at Fargo, N.D., comes here to visit his old time friend Allen G. Lewis, now a Hood River rancher, but formerly a resident of the land of magnificent distances. There will be rides, eats and speeches for Mr. Treat, all of which program is now in the hands of an ingenious and competent committee. At all of these doings the faithful will gather and do honor to their Imperial chief.

FRANKTON

A little daughter came to live with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Elliott Thursday.

Mrs. L. H. Way is entertaining her niece from Tacoma this week.

R. S. Coburn, wife and son were entertained at the home of Louise Kressell, in Hood River, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. La Mar and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickinson in Hood River.

Mrs. Hollenbeck was quite ill last week with what was thought to be typhoid fever, but is now much better. All hope she will be around again soon.

Miss Alma Absten entertained Miss Merchant and Miss Davidson, teachers from Frankton high school, last Monday and Tuesday. On Tuesday the teachers visited the Columbia school.

Prof. Stubbs will take up his work at Frankton Monday. He was unable to teach last week on account of the illness of his little son.

The new furnace is now installed at the Frankton school and everything is now nicely arranged for the comfort of the pupils.

All should remember that at three o'clock sharp next Sunday afternoon Rev. Parsons will preach at the Columbia school. Please all come and bring your "Finest of the Wheat" song books.

The Four Leaf Clover Reading Club was organized Thursday afternoon at Alderbrook, the home of Mrs. J. R. Nickelson. After the business session Mrs. Nickelson served dainty refreshments, and a social hour was enjoyed before adjournment.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Commencing Tuesday Mrs. W. F. Laraway was hostess at a series of entertainments that continued each day until Friday. On Tuesday and Wednesday whist was the central figure, nine tables being put in play on the former day, and the prize winners being Mrs. Geo. Smith, who took first, and Miss Grace Carter, second honors. The consolation prize went to Mrs. E. C. Smith. The afternoon was concluded with a two course luncheon. On Wednesday the guests filled seven tables. The first prize went to Mrs. C. R. Bone, second to Mrs. L. M. Bently and the consolation to Mrs. Thos. Avery. Thursday evening a dinner party at which 40 guests were present was given, with cards later, the honors going to Mrs. H. I. Dumble and Dr. J. F. Watt. Twenty-five ladies were the guests Friday afternoon, when the house was very prettily decorated with asters, roses and potted ferns. A three course luncheon was served.

Mrs. J. D. McCully and Miss McCully were among those who entertained last week. Their pretty home on the east side being prettily decorated with autumn leaves for the occasion. Cards were the form of entertainment provided by the hostesses, followed by an elaborate luncheon. On Thursday bridge whist was played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Chas. Hall, who took first, and Miss Milliken second. Friday the entertainment was varied by substituting progressive whist, Mrs. Roy Brock winning first and Mrs. C. D. Thompson second.

The fall dancing season was opened Tuesday evening by a very pleasant dancing party given by the Tennis Club. The affair was informal, the gentlemen appearing in white ducks and the ladies in tennis costumes. About 80 were present. The decorations were autumn leaves and tennis rackets and balls artistically placed about the walls. The music was furnished by Vogel's orchestra, with additions from Portland.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Peters and Mrs. Pooley were hostesses at an afternoon tea at the handsome Peters home on the east side, given in honor of Miss Peters, Miss Morrison and Miss Milliken, and at which 60 were present. In the evening the young set in the valley were entertained at the Peters home, enjoying an evening of music and a luncheon.

Saturday at noon Mrs. G. D. Woodworth entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Woodworth's birthday, covers being laid for fourteen. Afterward the afternoon was spent enjoyably in social intercourse.

Mrs. Albert Lathrop entertained the members of her Sunday school class Friday evening. A pleasant evening was spent in playing games and later in partaking of a dainty luncheon.

MARRIED

GIBBONS-ZOLLS

Matthew P. Gibbons of The Dalles and Johanna Zolls of Hood River were united in marriage at the Congregational parsonage Monday, Sep. 18th. Mrs. Gibbons is a daughter of John G. Zolls, the well known contractor of this city.

Congregational Church Notes

The Lord's Supper will be celebrated next Sunday morning. The pastor will speak on "The New Blood Covenant." New members will be received and the ordinance of baptism administered.

Evening services will begin next Sunday at 7:30 o'clock. Pastor Harris will begin a series of five sermons on town topics which will run through the month, viz: Oct. 1st—The Problem of Church Union; Oct. 8th—The Water Problem; Oct. 15th—The Law of Amusements; Oct. 22nd—A Library for Hood River; Oct. 29th—Births and Deaths in the Valley. These are all topics which have been deemed of sufficient importance to report them for the Portland papers, and the pastor's comments will be partly in the nature of pulp editorial and partly sermonic. The public is cordially invited.

The furnace is being installed under the old church this week so none will have occasion to fear the cold at our services. A line of electric lights is also being strung on the east side of the new building to facilitate an easy entrance to the old church.

Six room bungalow, corner 10th and Cascade avenue, for sale. Choice lot. See owner on premises.
