SOCIETY VAUDEVILLE SCORES BIG SUCCESS

To an audience that filled the Electric Theatre to overflowing Thursday evening, the Society Vaudeville talent of Hood River presented a capital performance. The program was varied and entertaining, and encores were frequent. Miss Wilma Thomsen, who opened the program, danced with the grace of a genuine Spanish senorita, while the exhibition of club swinging by Miss Constance Henderson could scarcely be equalled by a professional. The clubs were of glass, enclosing electric lights that flashed brilliant colors and gave the act a beautiful and sensational effect. As an old dinky mammy singing a lullaby, Mrs. Chas.

Henney captured the audience, who overlooked the fact that this charming performer had a decided aversion to allowing the African hue of her face to extend to her neck. The exhibition of dancing given by Miss Morrison and Fordham Kimball was clever, while the sketch in which a song, "Just Tell Me With Your Eyes," was the central figure, given by Miss Millikin and Brooks Hawthorth, brought down the house. In his Jewish impersonations Mr. Rabies was immense. Banks Morrison and Brooks Hawthorth in the Gold Dust Twins tickled the fancy of the audience, although Brooks had the same aversion to applying burnt cork as had his fair predecessor. Two songs sweetly sung by Mrs. L. K. Armstrong caused prompt forgetfulness of the horseplay of the Twins, and Joe Thomsen, clad as an African savage, transferred attention to the jungles and kicked his heels with true Hottentot grace. One of the most pleasing features of the evening was an impromptu number contributed by Mrs. Frank Deems, who, stepping from the audience, sang a selection with charming voice and effect. As an afterpiece the "Bachelor's Reverie" filled the bill nicely. Mr. F. P. Lucas, with a stage setting representing a bachelor's quarters, and smoking his pipe, meditated on the prospects of marriage. As he did so there appeared before him, appropriately costumed, Miss Helen Suthoff as a school girl; Miss Morrison, chorus girl; Miss Adams, athletic girl; Miss Howard, Spanish girl; Mrs. R. R. Carter, widow; Mrs. L. K. Armstrong, Yama Yama girl; Miss Henderson, riding girl; Miss Peters, school girl; Miss Smith, country girl, and Miss Millikin as bride, with the curtain falling as he rose to meet the last named of these charming apparitions. Others who contributed to the success of the affair were Mrs. Harry De Witt, Mrs. C. E. Coffin, pianist; Philip Carroll, stage director; Crawford Lemmon, A. L. Peters, E. R. Pooley, Duane Sommerville, ushers; Dean Ballard, candy butcher; R. E. Pooley, ticket man; R. E. Kelly and Jas. Montgomery, barkers; Mandolin Club Orchestra, and Bailey & Colby, electricians. An Effort to Explain. "Why are we told not to look a gift horse in the mouth?" "I suppose," replied the man who has to pay the feed bills, "it's because looking in a horse's mouth is calculated to remind you of his appetite."—Washington Star.

UNDERWOOD'S NEW TOWNSITE BOOMING

With a new townsite in which 48 of the 53 lots have been sold, Underwood bids fair to outstrip its rival towns of White Salmon and Bingen. Several buildings are already going up in the new town, which lies on the flat bench of land half a mile back of the station, and which is reached by a grade of less than seven per cent. The main business street has been laid out 70 feet wide. Well water is reached at 30 feet, and the situation of the townsite allows convenient access to all highways coming to the railroad. As a shipping center Underwood is becoming important, and last year shipped out 18 cars of apples, almost the total shipment from the White Salmon Valley. The natural outlet of the big White Salmon Valley, it is believed that it will soon become a considerable village.
