NEW YORK OFFERS BIG APPLE PRIZES

Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific railroad, has donated to the New York Land Show twenty twenty-five dollar gold pieces in a leather case, to be awarded for the best twenty-five boxes of apples, any variety or varieties, a single variety to the box, competition open to the world. The conditions are: The facts regarding the fruit as asked by the judges must be sworn to and attested by two witnesses. The apples must be exhibited by actual grower or his authorized agent. The grower must own the land or be the proprietor by virtue of lease or crop sharing system of cultivation. Condition of fruit as to size and weight, appearance, perfection of type, method of packing, the date of picking, will govern the award. The competition is not open to dealers or any other than bona fide growers, as heretofore stated. The twenty-five boxes may be all of one variety or of several varieties. The latter is preferable and will no doubt act as a factor in the award, since variety helps the display, generally speaking. There must be but one variety in each box, however.

In addition to the Howard Elliott prize, the Commercial Club is just advised that Adrian G. Hannerer will present a $200 silver cup for the best twenty-five boxes of apples, any variety or varieties, a single variety to each box.

Repacking will be permitted after the apples to be entered reach New York, where the Land Show will be held November 3rd to 12th, in Madison Square Garden.

ORTLEY

R. P. Pyle, of Portland, recently spent several days visiting here.

J. Grover and family have arrived from Salt Lake and moved on their place.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Firebaugh went to Hood River Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kilm are now living in their new home recently erected on their tract.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lemon, of Kennewick, Wash., have recently come to Ortley to make their home.

E. L. Butts, of Portland, has been here for several days looking over Mosier View Orchards, and selected tract No. 39.

The carpenters have commenced work on the new schoolhouse and it will be rushed to completion. It is expected that school will open the first of November.

E. H. Kroner and wife spent Sunday at Ortley. Mr. Kroner is interested in the construction of the hotel and was well pleased at the progress that is being made.

Miss Carrie Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sprague, was married Monday to Mr. Will Bushman. They left immediately for Aberdeen, Wash., where they will make their future home.

The Cowboy, Indian and the Lady

This is a powerful play written by one of America's most prominent play writers and played with great success last season in all the larger cities and is now being presented by the Blondie company of selected artists, and having added several new features and musical numbers, is without a doubt the strongest dramatic company that has ever played this country. Saturday, Oct. 14*

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

While affairs in society circles were somewhat quieter last week entertaining nevertheless continued. Among those who entertained was Mrs. C. A. Cass, who gave an afternoon at whilst at her pleasant home on Engine street in honor of her sister, Miss Grace Kier, who is soon to be married. Ten tables were put in play, the honors being won by Mrs. H. L. Dumble, who took first, and Mrs. H. E. Davidson, second. At the close of play a three course luncheon was served.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. P. Ross and Mrs. A. J. Page were hostesses to 48 of their lady friends at the handsome Ross home on Cascade avenue. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with ferns and cut flowers and whilst was the feature of the afternoon, play being followed by a two course luncheon.

Mrs. E. P. Friday and Mrs. W. E. Sherman are contemplating a series of afternoons and evenings at the home of the former on the east side. They will probably take place during the latter part of the month.

The Hood River Social Club which last winter gave a series of dancing parties is preparing to open the season for entertaining and expects to give its first dances during the latter part of the month.

The second of the Tuesday evening dances being given by the Tennis Club at Heilbronner hall was well attended. As before the affair was informal and an enjoyable evening spent at dancing.

HOOD RIVER APPLES TO CIRCLE GLOBE

A notable trip for Hood River apples will soon be taken when 350 boxes of Newtowns grown by Oscar Vanderbilt will be placed on the steamer Cleveland which will start soon with an excursion party for a tour of the world. The Cleveland will sail from New York, going to Europe, from there to Asia and Australia and on around to the Pacific coast.

FRANKTON

F. R. Absten has been quite poorly for some time.

L. W. Way, wife and niece, took dinner with his uncle, R. D. Way, Sunday.

Miss Florence La Mar spent last week with Mrs. J. W. Dickinson in Hood River.

Everybody bear in mind that next Sunday at 3 o'clock Rev. Parsons will hold services at Columbia school house.

We are pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson into our midst. Mr. Clarkson recently purchased the property on the state road known as the old Copland place.

Arthur Clarke

The Jeweler

Odious Comparison.

A Boston woman who attained much prominence in the campaign for woman's suffrage once said at a public meeting that she thought T. B. Aldrich was effeminate.

The remark was repeated to Aldrich as a joke, whereupon he very dryly remarked:

"Yes, so I am—compared to her."—Success Magazine.

Those Buried Treasures.

"My speech was rather lengthy, I am afraid," said the young statesman, "but I assure you that it contains numerous gems of thought."

"Perhaps," replied Mr. Growcher, "but I have never allowed myself to take the slightest interest in these stories of buried treasures."—Washington Star.

Question For Question.

Gibbs—What an aggravating habit Jones has of answering a question by asking another. Dibs—Yes; I've noticed that. Last night I asked him if he'd lend me $5, and he replied by asking me if I took him for a darned fool.—Boston Transcript.

He is the best physician who is the most ingenious inspirer of hope.—Coloridge.
