LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Dr. J. K. Locke of Portland was in Hood River Sunday visiting his ranch.

Chas. Plog, one of Hood River's successful retired apple growers, now living in Portland, was here for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruise, of Portland, arrived here Friday and went to their new home in Willow Flat, recently purchased from W. S. Nichol.

R. B. Owens, of Goldendale, in the real estate business at that place, was a visitor here last week. Mr. Owens bought the Harbison house and was here in connection with his property. He reports good crops in the vicinity of Klickitat's county seat.

Wanted—A girl to do general housework; good wages. Apply to Mrs. Frank A. Cram.*

Six room bungalow, corner 10th and Cascade avenue, for sale. Choice lot. See owner on premises.

Christian Science services are held in Reading Room, No. 6, Davidson building, Sunday at 11 a. m. and Wednesday at 8 p. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m.*

Lame back is one of the most common forms of muscular rheumatism. A few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment will give relief. For sale by all dealers.*

Wanted—Everybody in Hood River to laugh with us next Monday night in Hellbronner hall. Wholesome amusement. Wallace Bruce Ambery, the noted poet, humorist and lecturer. Second number on course. The remaining five numbers with reserved seat for only $2, or this one attraction for 99 cents. Money refunded if you are not satisfied.*

Children that are pale, sickly and peevish, with dark rings under the eyes, fickle appetite, and who appear to get no nourishment from the food they eat, are surely suffering from worms. Give them White's Cream Vermifuge and note the wonderful improvement. They soon take on flesh and are rosy, active and cheerful. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.*

The county commissioners are having the new macadam roads heavily oiled in advance of the rainy season.

The Columbia Garage has purchased a big Speedwell motor truck which will be used for hauling and other traffic in the valley.

C. A. McCarger drove over from Mosier in his car Friday, on a business trip. W. J. Firebaugh, also of Mosier, spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Christie are among the Hood River people who will spend the winter in California. Mrs. Christie left for Los Angeles some time ago, and Mr. Christie will follow in a few days.

C. P. Blanton, representing the Pacific Monthly, spent a few days in town last week. Mr. Blanton states that the article in the current number of the Pacific written by E. H. Shepard is attracting widespread attention throughout the Northwest. During the past year this magazine has been greatly improved and is becoming one of the big periodicals of the United States.

Don't ask for Bread, ask for Log Cabin Bread, the Bread of Quality. For sale at R. E. Gibson's Bakery.*

Good Health Bread—white, whole wheat and graham—home made, you will like it. Save the coupons. Sold by Parker's.*

The best show of its kind on the road, The Cowboy, Indian and the Lady. Parade at noon, show at night only. Saturday, Oct. 14.*

A good remedy for a bad cough is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It heals the lungs and quiets irritation. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.*

Biliousness is due to a disordered condition of the stomach. Chamberlain's Tablets are essentially a stomach medicine, intended especially to act on that organ; to cleanse it, strengthen it, tone and invigorate it, to regulate the liver and to banish biliousness positively and effectually. For sale by all dealers.*

Miss A. M. Spring, of Pittsburg, owner of the Booth orchard, arrived here Sunday and is making a stay in the valley.

W. H. Wilson and Senator Nick Simont, of The Dalles, spent several days here last week in attendance at the session of the circuit court.

Mrs. Hastings H. Hart and children of New York, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. R. T. Newhall, have returned to their home.

The Hood River Apple Vinegar Company started making elder last week and already has many applications for its products. The company is now equipped to handle all the cull apples in the valley.

The spot in the valley that shows more building activity than any other at present, is Odell. With a new church, half a dozen dwellings and the big warehouse of the Apple Growers' Union under way, Odell is getting metropolitan.

Apart from the fact that passenger trains have been slightly delayed, the strike of the railroad shop men has not affected Hood River. At The Dalles, where the company maintains an emergency car shop and wrecking gang, 24 men walked out and as yet have not returned to work. As a rule, local residents express but little sympathy for the strikers, as their claim is looked upon as an injustice rather than as a necessity.

For Sale—Some good horses and a number of second-hand rigs, cheap. Apply at the Fashion Livery Stable.*

Mr. and Mrs. McCrea and family, who have been living in town, have moved to their ranch in the Oak Grove district.

Attorneys E. C. Smith and S. W. Stark were Salem visitors last week, having gone to the state capital to argue cases before the supreme court.

Frank B. Cram, who bought part of the W. B. Allen place in the Oak Grove district, and his family arrived here Friday and have established themselves in their new home.

A. A. Werner, of Morgantown, West Virginia, formerly cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of that place, was a Hood River visitor Friday. Mr. Werner is in the west looking for a banking location.

The east side macadam being laid by the W. G. Aldred Co. is about finished, less than a quarter of a mile remaining to lay. This is at a point between Hans Lage's and the road leading to A. I. Mason's. The end of the macadam is at the Pine Grove school house.

According to the state organ of the labor organizations Hood River is making more public improvements and doing more building than any other town in Oregon except Portland. While employment has been given a large number of out of town laborers there have been more men here recently out of work than at any time in the history of the valley.

The city councilmen are no doubt aware of the bad condition of the east side grade, for which there are no funds to improve. The point, however, is that east side residents are kicking about this bad piece of highway, which they claim is injuring the apples being hauled over it. What they are insistent on is that a few of the holes be filled up, and when an East Sider insists, it is all up with you.

No dirt or germs—Good Health Bread—A sanitary wrapper. Save the coupons. For sale at Parker's.*

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on over the affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one-tenth as much. For sale by all dealers.*

Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.*

Rev. J. R. Hargreaves will preach out of the question this winter, the crosswalks being put in by the city will help some.

Mrs. Earl Bartness is spending the week in the Willamette valley, where she is the guest of friends and relatives at Philomath and McMinnville.

The Neal creek road is becoming so popular that it bids fair to become the Broadway of the valley, and is said by Odell residents to have taken 80 per cent of the travel to the Upper Valley.

A number of Hood River visitors were reported at The Dalles district fair last week. The largest crowd was present the day the Hood River high school foot ball team played The Dalles team. The score was 6 to 0.

Fred Page, of Page & Son, Portland, came up Friday and bought 1,000 boxes of Bourre d'Anjou pears on the August Pansch place. Mr. Pansch, who ships many thousands of boxes of apples from his own place, is also buying apples this year, which will be shipped to Hamburg, Germany.

Cap Randall, the veteran house mover, has offered to take the old depot building if the railroad will give it to him for moving it. In fact Cap says he will give the railroad the price of a ticket to Chicago in addition. If his offer is accepted, the building will be moved to State street, between Front and the bridge.

Made clean, baked clean, sold clean—Good Health Bread. Save the coupons. Sold by Parker's.*

When the bowels become irregular you are uncomfortable, and the longer this condition exists the worse you feel. You can get rid of this misery quickly by using Herbine. Take a dose on going to bed and see how fine you feel next day. Price 50c. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.*

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold, as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children, and may be given to young children with implicit confidence, as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.*

Since paved streets are apparently out of the question this winter, the crosswalks being put in by the city will help some.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Mosely, parents of C. A. Mosely, one of the proprietors of the Mt. Hood Hotel, who have been spending several weeks at Hood River, left Monday for their home in Clinton, Iowa.

Owing to the fact that lumber failed to arrive to construct part of the Bell building which would protect the carpenters from things above, work was suspended on the structure by the knights of the hammer and saw for a day last week. A falling brick struck one of the carpenters, injuring him slightly, and his fellow workers took warning.
