C. D. Nickelsen left for Portland Monday, to take the management of the Hood River Produce Company. The company has quarters in the center of the business district, and will make a specialty of handling Hood River fruits. Mrs. Nickelsen will remain in Hood River till the close of the school year, when her daughter, Miss Viola, will graduate.

C. E. Wilson, formerly connected with an experiment in refining the sand along the Columbia river, for gold, and later located at Goble with the Goble Lumber Company, was here visiting friends Friday. Mr. Wilson now owns land at Laddlaw, in Crook county, where he has 120 acres irrigated by the Deschutes Irrigation and Power Company's system. He has taken charge of the big farm at Lebanon owned by the Davidson Fruit Co.

Regulate the bowels when they fail to move properly. Herbine is an admirable bowel regulator. It helps the liver and stomach and restores a fine feeling of strength and buoyancy. Price 30c. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

Milo Frederick, who went to Bremerton, Wash., sometime ago, with the intention of enlisting in the navy has returned to his home in this city.

At a reception given to the J. U. G. girls at the home of Mrs. Flora Hartley Thursday evening, the engagement of Mrs. Gladys Hartley Adams to Melville Carson Hammack was announced. The wedding will take place November 12th. Mr. Hammack is a young business man of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Sommerville left Thursday for Portland, where they will spend the winter. A party of friends who went to the station with them played a little joke on the Sommers by showering them with confetti, giving the other passengers on the train the impression that they had just been married.

The Pierce Arrow truck placed in use here by the Pacific Motor Truck Company is proving a big success and is now being used for all kinds of hauling. The size and weight of some of the loads it is hauling seem almost impossible. A. H. Fox is manager of the company that is operating the truck, and has established an office, where he receives orders for its use.

Good Health Bread put up in a sanitary wrapper before leaving the bakery. Save the coupons. For sale at Parker's.

Will trade for anything, 6-acre orchard in heart of Hood River valley apple lands. Under 4 miles from town. Chas. E. Hicks, Independence Oregon.

Chilblains, frosted feet or hands, can be cured with one or two applications of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It quickly relieves itching or tenderness of the flesh. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Chas. N. Clarke.

"I do not believe there is any other medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Ore. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup. For sale by all dealers.

A letter from T. J. Cunniff to the News conveys the information that he and his wife are pleasantly situated at Los Angeles and are enjoying the balmy weather there.

Newton Clarke, department commander of the G. A. R., who has been making a tour of the state inspecting the various posts, returned home Saturday. Mr. Clarke reports very cold weather at Baker City and other sections of Eastern Oregon.

The concert given by Mordant Goodenough, the pianist, at the Free Christian church Thursday evening was well attended. Mr. Goodenough demonstrated that he is a brilliant pianist, and his efforts were enthusiastically received by his audience.

Marsh Isenberg, accompanied by his wife, returned Saturday from the Boise Valley, where he has been packing apples. Mr. Isenberg stated that before growers finished picking at Boise the apples were freezing on the trees, and that picking had to be done in the middle of the day while the sun was at its height.

Charles Davidson, the bad deacon, returned last week from his long stay in Ohio, his former home. While in the Buckeye state Mr. Davidson made the eyes of his Ohio friends stick out with tales of the Hood River country's scenery, climate and products. Miss Mae Davidson, who went east with her father, returned to Hood River Saturday evening.

H. L. Fordling left Thursday for a business trip to Salt Lake City. Mr. Fordling has established an office in the Elliott building, in connection with his business, and now makes his headquarters at Hood River.

Rt. Rev. Robert L. Paddock, Bishop of the Episcopal missionary district of Eastern Oregon, who has been a guest for some weeks at the home of a sister in Hood River, while recovering from the effects of a strained knee, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's church Sunday morning in the absence of the rector, who was called to Heppner to conduct services there.

It is suggested by several of the merchants about town that the Hood River fire boys would be the proper recipients of a benefit gotten up by the people of the city. The local fire department, which has held together and performed valuable services to the community in the face of much discouragement, would no doubt appreciate a substantial recognition from the citizens at large.
