

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS CONVENE

The Hood River Sunday School convention held Saturday and Sunday drew a very large attendance, delegates being present from all sections of the county.

The sessions of the convention were held at the Baptist church and were conducted by Rev. C. A. Phillips, Rev. H. C. Carson opened the convention, which was devoted to primary work, Saturday afternoon with a sermonette, followed by Miss Howard with story telling, and addresses by Miss Grace Turney and Rev. Phillips. Saturday evening Rev. W. L. Van Nuys, of the Upper Valley, gave an address on "Fellowship in the World," and Rev. E. A. Harris demonstrated the efficiency of the stereopticon in Sunday school work.

Sunday morning there was a demonstration of how to conduct a Sunday school, by experts, Rev. Phillips in charge. Sunday afternoon Rev. W. B. Young opened the exercises, followed by Mrs. Win. Monroe, who gave a talk on Intermediate Sunday school work. After appropriate music, Rev. H. A. MacDonald talked on "Boys and the Sunday School," and Miss Alice Clark gave a reading. Sunday evening a song and praise service was held, followed by an address on "Adults in Sunday School," by Dr. Robinson. The closing feature of the program was an address by Rev. Phillips.

The annual election of officers resulted in F. G. Church being chosen president, J. M. Wood vice-president and Earl Bartness secretary. The convention was one of the most successful in the history of the organization, attracting wide attention and resulting in a valuable stimulus to Sunday school work.

Union Services to Rotate

At a meeting of the Ministers' Association Monday the matter of a union Thanksgiving service was discussed and a decision arrived at to select the minister to conduct the service according to seniority of residence. The service will go to the churches in succession from year to year. The union service this year will be held at the Baptist church Sunday morning and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. H. A. MacDonald.

CITY WILL OPPOSE CLOSING OF STREET

A lively scrap promises to ensue between the city and the property owners over fencing up the land leading to the water front below the depot. It is claimed that if the land is fenced the road leading to the Underwood ferry will be closed and that it will no longer be a public thoroughfare. The city authorities object to this procedure and have ordered Marshal Lewis to see that the road is kept open.

It is understood that the railroad company would like to see the street closed, but many citizens have entered a strenuous protest, believing that it would be an injury to the city business interests and also that the time may not be far distant when an open street through this section will be a very important matter.

The city has jurisdiction over the road in the city limits and the county over that outside. Although the street has never been declared a public thoroughfare by the city, it is believed that its usage as such over a period of ten years will allow the authorities to constitute it a public thoroughfare and keep it open.

WATCH CHAIN AND $350 GOT MORNEY INTO JAIL

John Morney, who could not resist the temptation to take a watch chain and $350 in money belonging to D. E. Shaw, was arrested Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff E. S. Olinger. At a hearing Monday before Justice of the Peace A. C. Buck, the money and chain having been found in his possession, Morney was fined $25, in default of which he was given a jail sentence.

The men were rooming in the Warlow rooming house over McDonald's store and Morney took the chain and money while Shaw was asleep. He reported the theft and Officer Olinger, who was watching Morney, saw him offer to bet the chain on the result of a pool game and arrested him.

WILL TRAP COYOTES WITH EMPTY OIL CANS

John Miller, of Pickleton, who ran the stage line between Goldendale and that place for several years, and who is now engaged in the sheep business in Eastern Klickitat, will try a new method of ensnaring coyotes this winter, says the Bligen Observer. He will cut a star shape aperture in the top of a five gallon oil can, bending the points downward. Bait will be placed inside the can and when the coyote attempts to withdraw his head the sharp tin will catch on the thick hair around his neck and prevent him from getting his head out of the can. Coyotes caught this way will be taken backward in a circle and will not get far from where the can was placed. Mr. Miller will bait them with meat and bacon.

AUGUST NIEHANS BUYS WILLOW FLAT ACREAGE

G. Y. Edwards & Co. last week sold to A. Niehans 36 acres owned by Louis P. Bruce and G. A. Hoffman, of Portland.

This tract lies in the well-known Willow Flat district and practically all of it is in orchard and some of it in full bearing.

The above firm sold Mr. Niehans home place on the east side during the past summer, enabling him to take a larger orchard.

The new owner will take possession early in the spring and make some additional improvements. It speaks well of Hood River valley, and the above section in particular, to have a local resident increase his acreage.

SLAUGHTER HOUSE ROBBED OF EQUIPMENT

Some time during the past two weeks the slaughter house of P. C. Young was entered and the machinery used in dressing beef removed. Mr. Young made the discovery Monday when he went to the premises to do some killing. One of the articles taken was a huge windlass weighing several hundred pounds, which was bolted to the wall with eight iron bolts.

No trace of when the outfit was taken or who took it has so far been discovered.

Mayor Calls Attention to Debate

To the Citizens of Hood River:
On Friday evening, November 24, a new era of interest will be instituted in Hood River when a debate will take place in the rooms of the Commercial Club on the question of Commission Form of Government for Cities. The fact that such a meeting is possible in a small city proves that citizens generally are becoming more interested in civic affairs.

The affirmative of the question is to be presented by Professors Coad and Gibson and the negative by Messrs. Joe Thomson and Geo. R. Wilbur.

While some of us may have given the subject some casual attention, there will be a great opportunity to learn the advantages and disadvantages from those who have and are making a study of the question of municipal government and civic relations from a broad view-point. No citizen should miss this debate. E. H. HARTWIG, Mayor.

CITY CORNER LOT SELLS FOR $12,000

Another valuable block of city property passed into the hands of Japanese Monday when George T. Prather sold the property on the northeast corner of First and Oak streets, occupied by M. Niguma & Company, to Taichi Kuga, a Portland resident, for $12,000. The lot is 75x100 feet, with several buildings on it.

Eleven years ago Mr. Prather paid $1,600 for the property, which was then 150x100 feet. He sold two pieces off it for a total of $1,400, making the total price from his investment $13,400.
