PINE GROVE

Miss Kathie Walker of Washougal, Wash., is visiting friends here.

Joe Jarvis is in Washougal, Wash., looking after his interests there.

Miss Della Gerking, who has been visiting in The Dalles, returned last Thursday.

Mrs. B. H. Lange and little son came home Thursday. Both are doing nicely.

The school will have vacation on Thursday and Friday to observe Thanksgiving.

The next number of the Lyceum Bureau will be Joseph at the grange hall this evening.

Preaching services next Sunday both morning and evening. Sunday school at the usual hour.

Mrs. Walter Walthers and two children spent a couple of days, visiting her sister, Mrs. Heigel, this week.

Mrs. Nicholson of the west side has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Campbell, and attended the club party Wednesday evening.

The Aola Club gave a party at the grange hall Wednesday evening at which about ninety guests were present. Whilst was the game of the evening and the favors were won by Mrs. Mortimer and Mr. Deem. An elegant luncheon was served by the ladies of the club. Every one spent a delightful evening.

Last Wednesday evening while Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lange were away from home someone entered the house and proceeded to explore the downstairs, but made a hasty retreat when those sleeping up stairs started down to find out who was in. Saturday evening another attempt was made while the family were at the school entertainment, but he found a man in the house. He again made his escape, but will find a warm reception awaiting him if he tries again.

The Pine Grove school entertainment Saturday was a decided success both financially and in the way of entertainment. The teachers are very well pleased at the hearty support the neighborhood gave. The numbers on the program were well rendered and each deserve special mention but space will not permit. We must, however, mention the Brownies, who took the house by storm. The characters in the play were well represented. Miss Gladys Clark as queen received her many subjects who were introduced by the muses. The baskets sold well, the one bringing the highest price being the log cabin made by Miss Minnie Pansch, which brought $10. She received the prize. The proceeds of the evening were $152.70. This will be used toward the purchase of a new piano for the school.

FRANKTON

Mrs. J. R. Nickelson spent the latter part of the week in Portland.

Robert Elliott is building a house recently purchased from W. C. Trogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale, of Estacada, Ore., were recent guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Stubbs.

Roy Eastman, Hugh and Farley Elliott attended the shooting match at Wyth Sunday. Roy returned with a duck.

A number of our people attended the club dance in town last Wednesday evening. A most enjoyable time was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCustian and Miss Bertha Steptoe attended the banquet of the Woodmen of the World last Wednesday night.

Miss Letta Baker, our teacher at Columbia, will go to her home at Warren, Ore., Wednesday evening, to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Much to the joy of the traveling public a new bridge has been put in over Phelps creek, near the Spring Dale farm. It's fine, but it's like lots of other things, needs a little fixing; for instance, an approach at either side would be perfect.

A number of our High school boys gave a dance to their lady friends Friday night in the old mill at the foot of Phillip's hill. A most enjoyable time was had by all. The girls say the best of it all was, the boys provided the supper also.

The vacancy made in our Frankton school by the resignation of Miss Cabell is being filled by Mr. Harry Cash, of Hood River. While we regret Miss Cabell having to leave our school—for she was a most efficient teacher—we have an equally as good one in Mr. Cash.

FRANKTON

Miss Cecil Van Osten was the guest of Hood River friends last Monday and Tuesday.

Jethro Massey left Saturday morning for Salem, where his brother George is seriously ill.

Mrs. J. R. Vannier spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Johnson of Willow Flat.

The people of Central Vale are requested to be present at Sunday school next Sunday afternoon to talk over plans for Christmas tree.

We had a good attendance at the box social Saturday evening. Mark Cameron came over from Odell and auctioned the baskets. The proceeds were excellent.

The Priscilla Club met at the home of Mrs. Smallwood last Thursday. Dainty refreshments were served and a good time was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Frank Mussee, Thursday of next week.

HOOD RIVER LOSES ON STRAIGHT PACK

A. P. Bateham, president of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, returned Monday from Spokane, where he attended the National Apple Show, and says that he and Secretary Power succeeded in interesting many Washington and Idaho growers in placing exhibits at the 1912 Oregon Show in Portland. The proposition to growers outside the state to exhibit at Portland is said to have been received very cordially. The interest which will be stimulated in the show by outside exhibits it is believed will make next year's show the biggest that the state has ever held.

In the award of prizes at Spokane, White Salmon received the first prize on best five boxes of Spitzburgers, beating Hood River, which was marked two points low on account of part of the exhibit being made up of the straight pack. The Hood River exhibit, which was from the Maxwellton Orchard, received second prize.

HOOD RIVER LOSES ON STRAIGHT PACK

G. Y. Edwards & Co. report land sales.

G. Y. Edwards & Co. sold this week to W. E. Skinner, of Minneapolis, the 10-acre tract owned by I. Van Blarcom. The new owner will move here about February 1, and as soon after that date as possible will erect a new dwelling. Only a portion of this tract's planted, but the balance will be improved next season.

L. C. Simms, of G. Y. Edwards & Co., bought the 32 acres of raw land owned by A. Nichols. The land lies in the north part of Willow Flat and will be cleared this winter.

Mrs. Drummond Dies in Portland

The body of Laura Ellis Drummond, formerly of Hood River, who died in Portland Monday, Nov. 20th, was brought here Wednesday for burial. Funeral services were held in Bartness chapel, Rev. J. B. Parsons officiating. Interment was in Idlewild cemetery.

Mrs. Drummond lived at Hood River for several years and is survived by several relatives who reside here.

THOUGHT RYAN WAS MISSING HUSBAND

Mrs. John Ryan and Mrs. J. M. Rothford, of Tacoma, Wash., arrived here Tuesday evening seeking information in regard to John Ryan who was shot by City Marshal Lewis Saturday, October 21, and later died from the injury. From the description of Ryan Mrs. Ryan believed the dead man to be her husband, who disappeared from his home in Tacoma five years ago and has not been heard of since. Mrs. Rothford thought the unfortunate man was her brother. Both women live in Tacoma and heard of Ryan's death through the newspapers. The age, height and general description of Ryan tallied so nearly with the missing man that the visitors had the body disinterred. An examination of it, however, satisfied Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Rothford that it was not their missing relative and it was reburied.

NOTICE

Pursuant to the resolution duly adopted by the board of directors of the Hood River Commercial Club, notice is hereby given that at the meeting of the club to be held on December 11, 1911, in the club rooms in the city of Hood River, Oregon, there will be considered among other things the question of filing the supplementary articles of incorporation for the purpose of changing the name of the club from the "Husula Commercial Club of Hood River" to the "Hood River Commercial Club."

LIBRARY AND SCHOOL

Rightly used, a public library is an important extension of the public school teaching, and has a practical bearing on the training of our future citizens. If the school children have their attention drawn to particular books in the library, they will learn to read the best literature. The office of a public library is to select books of wide variety, but of good character, and this fact is a safeguard to the attendants at our schools. And since we read in later life what we learn to read in our younger days, the reading of good books is of prime importance in our school days. The safety of nations is at stake.

Local Church Conference

At the Lantarian church next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock a unique and important conference will take place. The "Conference of the Full Moon" usually treats in topics of interest to the local church, but this will be of interest to all because of the questions under consideration. Mr. MacDonald will give an address on "Civic Righteousness," in which he will lay bare frankly the national conditions of our land. In this address Mr. MacDonald will indicate his attitude toward the rising tide of popular government, the progressive political movement and Socialism. The question of social importance is "The 1911 Peace Treaties with England and France," which are causing such a stir. Hon. Ernest C. Smith has kindly consented to open this topic, and discussion will be allowed. Mrs. Alberta Jackson Gillam will sing. A most cordial invitation is extended to all.

The first basket ball game of the season will be played this evening between the Hood River Collegiates and the Hood River High School. The game will take place at the rink, commencing at 8:30 sharp.
