A pleasant Thanksgiving dinner was given by Miss Teal at her home on Lyman Smith avenue. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, Miss James, Miss Fairbairn, Mr. Crocker, Mr. Almsie and Mr. Marshall. In the evening other guests, Mr. and Mrs. Almsworth, Prof. and Mrs. Lawrence, and Miss Hester Home, came in for cards, making the closing of the day an additionally happy one.

Joseph Kelzer, residing about a mile from Hood River, near Mrs. Alma Howe's, who has been practically an invalid as a result of a stroke of paralysis about a year ago, had a second stroke a few days ago and is now entirely helpless. He has a wife and several children, and as he has been unable to work since his first attack, they have hard work to get along. In the midst of preparations for the Christmas season, the case is one which is especially pathetic.

Mrs. A. Guignard, who was injured in a runaway last week, is still confined to her bed as the result of her injuries, which were more serious than at first suspected. Her horse ran away and threw her out near the corner of Fourth and State streets. She landed on her head, and it is now believed by the attending physician that she received a severe concussion of the spine, which is slowly yielding to treatment. It will be some days, however, before she will be able to leave her bed.
